HISTORIC DESIGNATION for HILLSIDE CEMETERY

The Town of Clarendon has received word that they have been designated at the state level for historic designation of the Hillside Cemetery. This is a two part process. Hopefully when complete, the Hillside Cemetery will be designated on the National Register of Historic Places. This designation is very important as it will enable the Town to actively seek grant money to maintain and rehabilitate the cemetery, especially the Chapel.

Hillside Cemetery, established 1866, is an intact and distinctive example of a late-nineteenth-century-designed rural cemetery. It is situated in the northeast part of the Town of Clarendon, Orleans County, NY at the southern border of the Village of Holley, Town of Murray, NY; primarily within the Town of Clarendon. It occupies a site encompassing a hillside which descends to a glen with a running stream. It has been terraced and features curvilinear paths and lanes as well as ornamental trees and bushes. Notable examples of cemetery art and architecture are found in the statuary monuments and the distinctive Gothic Revival Mortuary Chapel constructed of rock faced Medina sandstone. (summary in the actual application written by resident Erin Anheier)

Cabel Witt, resident of 16292 East Lee Road in Clarendon, was presented with a Certificate of Appreciation at the March 19, 2013 Clarendon Town Board Meeting

For his "selfless act of rescuing someone in need." Mr. Witt helped to rescue an elderly man who had fallen through the ice on Lake Alice in January. Cable is a 2012 graduate from Holley High School.

LAKESIDE HEALTH SYSTEM has announced that it will seek permission from New York State to retain its emergency department. "We have been working diligently to explore and pursue all viable options" said CEO Jim Cummings. "We know that with the many changes in healthcare, Lakeside cannot continue to operate in the same manner it has for many, many years. Based on our future analysis we have determined that retaining our emergency department in our reorganization plan is a feasible option. The ability to retain our emergency department will strongly support our shift in focus to an outpatient-based healthcare system and enable us to continue to provide important emergency services." Nancy Plews, Board Chair of Lakeside says "From the onset, our goal has been to keep Lakeside open. Our reorganization plans never included closing all of the services of Lakeside Health System. This is about restructuring our operations to better meet the healthcare needs of Brockport and the surrounding communities and to ensure that our doors stay open. Our number one priority is the health of our community."

You can share your thoughts, ideas and opinions by calling (585) 395-6092 or emailing at hereforyou@lakesidehealth.org. For up-to-date accurate information, please visit the website at www.lakesidehealth.org; or on Facebook: Lakeside Health System; or on Twitter: @LakesideHealth1. You may also contact Stacy Wright, Director of Marketing at (585) 395-6095 ext. 4386 if you have questions or for additional information.

HILL TALK

Ever Been Attacked By Snowmelt Nostalgia?

It was a nice “spring-thaw” day. The ground was beginning to dry up enough to allow me a stroll out into the back yard. Ah! That wonderful feeling of ownership kicked in! The snow, at long last has released its firm grip, if only temporarily, on my wonderful summer world, my estate, my little kingdom!

Well, not completely my world. I began to see the signs that someone had already claimed ownership to large parts of it! That yearly spring task of activating the “pooper-scooper” so that I could reclaim my territory began.

As I went about doing that work for “The Little Queen” I began to notice other things that hadn’t entered my thought patterns for a while. My boat received a loving pat as memories of the wonderful times we shared fishing or just exploring local waterways caused me to pause. The mulch heap looked good, promising to produce fishing worms for the coming year. Although a few deer tracks showed up near the blueberries, the bushes seemed intact and the memories of the bumper crop last year are likely to be repeated again.

I found other items here and there that the strong winds had deposited or that I had neglected to pick up in the fall. Silently and sneakily “Snowmelt nostalgia” began to attack.

“What is that small yellow plastic thing?” I asked myself. A close examination showed a piece of elastic cord dangling from it. A little further along was the small dollar store plane with a notch in the bottom that had been launched with it. Suddenly the visions of our three very active grandsons running around the yard last Thanksgiving came to me. The laughter and taunts as they tried to fly these clearly not airworthy toys along with the giant foam plane that was destined to bury its nose in the ground and lose its wings at the end of almost every flight.

A faded Frisbee seems so lifeless lying there but once it was alive, dynamic, and proud, as it flew (or sometimes just rolled) across the yard using the seemingly limitless energy of small hands and arms. Two long sticks had been blown out into the yard. The burnt tips on them testified to their purpose and they along with the fire pit, conjured up visions of other times with those boys noisily chasing lightning bugs or each other, campfires, lawn chairs, cans of pop, stars, marshmallows, and of course s’mores. They now live in northern Minnesota so it is highly unlikely that my little world will hear their laughter and shouts or feel their boundless energy again. But Oh the memories!

Ever been attacked by snowmelt nostalgia?

Holley School District accepting applications for Alumni Hall of Fame

The Holley Central School District has an Alumni Hall of Fame to recognize Holley High School alumni who have achieved distinction at the local, regional, national or international level in any appropriate area of endeavor, such as academics/education, arts, business, media, public/military service, philanthropy or science.

Nominees must be graduates of Holley High School of at least 10 years. The nomination form is due to District Clerk Connie Nenni by Friday, April 26, 2013. The District Improvement Team will review the applications and make a selection. The honoree will be recognized at the high school awards ceremonies in June, and a plaque will be displayed in the foyer of the Middle School/High School. The Alumni Hall of Fame began with the 2009-10 school year. Recognized alumni include James J. Piedimonte (2010) and Mary Leuze (2011).

For an application, visit www.holleycsd.org/halloffame or stop by District Office. Forms can be printed and mailed or filled-out online and submitted electronically. Please send completed forms to District Clerk Connie Nenni, 3800 N. Main St., Holley, NY 14612; email cnenni@holleycsd.org; phone 585-638-6316, ext. 2003.

Holley School District hires security staff to enhance safety in its schools

The Holley School District introduced new security officers to students and staff on March 4. The District recently hired COP Security Inc., a local security company, to assist in maintaining a safe school environment and to help promote safety education in the schools. All of the security staff members are retired law enforcement officers from local agencies.

A security officer will be stationed at Holley Middle School/High School and Elementary School from 7 a.m. to dismissal, from 3 – 8 p.m. at the Middle School/High School, and from 4 – 9 p.m. in the Elementary School. In addition to their security duties, the officers will promote a positive school climate. “Many of them are former school resource officers or DARE officers and are looking forward to working with our students, staff, and community on topics such as anti-bullying, prom safety, bicycle safety, and other pertinent topics,” said Superintendent Robert D’Angelo.

At the Middle School/High School, Principal Susan Cory has been introducing the officers to students during their physical education classes. At the Elementary School, Principal Karri Schiavone has been introducing the officers in each classroom. The security officers wear khaki pants and a dark shirt with the name of the security company.

The Holley School District also has security cameras throughout its buildings, which security officers can access in the office space provided for them in the District. “In addition to our staff, the security officers will be the eyes and ears around our schools and will provide us feedback throughout the day,” said D’Angelo.

D’Angelo added that there wasn’t one particular event that prompted the added security. “It is our obligation as a school district to keep our students and staff safe, and our community safe when the schools are being used for evening activities,” he said.

Holley Elementary School Sweetheart Dance Sponsored by the PTSA was held on March 1st, 2013.

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

GREETINGS EVERYONE. Well, another month has come and gone so here we are again. Time sure does seem to go faster these days. You know you're getting old when you finally realize you've been idling at an intersection waiting for the stop sign to change. I have a cane that makes my hand numb after I use it. I call it my nova-cane. I don't mind being old, it's the side effects that bug me. The closest thing I get to exercise these days is jogging my memory. Happiness is good health and a bad memory. You know you're getting old when you have ties that would qualify for social security. A man and his wife were having an argument about who should brew the coffee each morning. The wife said, "You should do it because you get up first and then we won't have to wait so long to get our coffee." The husband said "You are in charge of the cooking around here so you should do it because that is your job and I can wait for my coffee." Wife replies, "No. You should do it. And besides, it says in the bible that the man should do the coffee." Husband replies "I can't believe that. Show me." So she fetched the Bible and opened the New Testament and showed him that at the top of several pages that it indeed says Hebrews. All my life I thought air was free until I bought a bag of chips.

I don't trust joggers. They're always the ones that find the dead bodies! I'm no detective, just saying. The most valued antique is an old friend. Beer doesn't have many vitamins, that's why you need to drink a lot of it. I was visiting my son the other night when I asked if I could borrow a newspaper. "Dad, this is the twenty first century. I don't waste money on newspapers, but if you like, you can borrow my I-pad." I can tell you this, that spider never knew what hit him! The young father took a seat on the bus next to an elderly man and plopped his one-year-old on his lap just as the little boy began to cry and fidget. "That child is spoiled, isn't he?" The old man remarked. "No" said the dad. "They all smell this way."

During a congressional race in our rural district, a party loyalist took one of the candidates to a meeting of farm leaders. There, he read off a long list of the man's qualifications; Native lowan, graduate of an ivy-league college, successful businessman, state department staffer, etc, etc. When he finished, a farmer stood up. "Seems to me it would be a mistake to send this man to Washington" he said. We ought to keep him around to deliver fertilizer. Most vegetables are something God intended to let women get even with their children. A fruit is a vegetable with looks and money. Plus if you let a fruit rot, it turns into wine, something Brussels sprouts never do. Never trust a man who raves about fresh-cooked vegetables. I toss and turn for hours until I realize that making a salad isn't going to relax me. I am the worst driver. I should just drive a hearse and cut out the middleman.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. Why did the old house go to the doctor?
2. What ailment do computers get most often?
3. What kind of a tree has hands?
4. Where does a cow get its medicine?
5. What type of fish plays poker?

Jerry Seinfeld stated: The proof that we don't understand death is we give dead people a pillow. I mean, if you can't stretch out and get some solid rest at that point, I don't think there are any bedding accessories that can make the difference. Rodney Dangerfield said: Always look out for number one and be careful not to step in number two.

A teacher was explaining hybrids to her class. "For example" she explained, "if you cross a horse with a donkey, you get a mule. Now what would happen if you cross a mule with a cow?" "You'd get milk with a kick in it" shouted a student. A school teacher was pointing out the difference between right and wrong to her little pupils, stressing the wickedness of stealing. She tried to illustrate her point. "Now children," she said, "if I put my hand in a man's coat pocket and took all of his money, what would I be?" "You'd be his wife" shouted a youngster. Vacations are great levelers. The person who takes one, returns home just as broke as the person who stayed home because he couldn't afford to go away.

I visited an old friend in the hospital. I took the young nurse aside and asked "Give me the real low-down. Is he making any progress?" "None at all" she replied decisively. "He's not my type!" A man interested in gardening saw his neighbor planting razor blades in his potato patch. Curious to know why he was doing that, he called over the fence "What are you expecting to grow Don?" "Chips" was the reply. I've learned that I don't feel my age as long as I focus on my dreams instead of my regrets. A very tired traveler stopped for breakfast. He said to the waitress "All I want is two soft-boiled eggs, a cup of coffee and a few kind words." The waitress returned with his order. He said "Here are the eggs and the coffee, but where are the few kind words?" "Don't eat the eggs" said the waitress.

BILL CARR WROTE: MY FRIEND

I have a friend I've never seen
But just as sure as night
My friend keeps close watch o'er me
Makes sure things are all right
His helping hand is always there
Whenever I may fall
And though I backslide now and then
He loves me through it all
In sorrow I can turn to him
In secret shed my tears
My friend's full name is Jesus Christ
I love Him, yes indeed
He never fails to comfort me
Whenever I'm in need.

Well, that's all folks.
Adios and God Bless
