REMEMBER THE ONE YOU LOVE

Town Hall Offices and Court will be closed Feb. 18 for President's Day.

Clarendon residents Bob and Linda Barrett donated this Holley Standard Newspaper from 1960 advertising the sesquicentennial. Bob placed the newspaper in this beautiful handmade frame and delivered it to the Town Hall on January 17, 2013. The wood he used was taken from his house on Mill Road which was the home of Eldredge Farwell. Farwell is said to have discovered Clarendon accidentally when looking for his brother's lost horse in 1810!

GREETINGS FROM THE CLARENDON LIONS CLUB

As the holidays come to a close, we would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a happy new year. Just to review our schedule, the Clarendon Lions Club meets the second and fourth Wednesday night of each month at the Disciples United Methodist Church on Route 237 in Clarendon. We normally have a pot-luck supper at 6:30 pm with the regular business meeting starting at 7:00 pm. If you are interested in learning more about our organization, please call our membership chairperson, Lion George Nolte at 638-6094 and he will be happy to talk with you.

At the January 9th meeting, our guest speaker was Kathi Corwin, a facilitator for an Alzheimer's support group that meets at the Disciples United Methodist Church. Kathi gave us a brief overview of the Alzheimer's disease. This disease is a progressive degenerative disease of the brain which results in the impairment of memory, thinking and behavior known as dementia. If you are interested in learning more about this disease, or if you would like to attend one of the support group sessions, please contact Kathi at 409-1456.

Starting with the last meeting in January, the club will begin to review our schedule of upcoming fundraisers for the spring, summer and fall. It looks like we will be busy again. It should be noted that our club was very proud to have supported the Newtown, CT Lions Club in the amount of $250 to help the families that lost their children in that horrible event at their school. We also sent a donation of $250 to the West Webster Fire Department for their tragedy that happened on Christmas Eve.

In closing, I would like to acknowledge the loss of our dear friend and dedicated Lion, Vera Patterson. Our thoughts and sympathy go out to Vera's family.

See you soon,
Lion President Tom Persia reporting

WELCOME TO OUR WORLD Haidyn Sue !

Congratulations to Allysia Vanderven and Jason Gomez on the birth of their daughter. Haidyn Sue was born on 1/21/2013, weighed 7 lb 4 oz and was 21 inches long. Happy family also includes Candy Black, Grandmother, John Vanderven, Grandfather and Great Grandmother Marge Morse.

HELPING THOSE CLOSE TO HOME ..

PathStone Domestic Violence Services Program provides a safe house for battered women and children and is located in Orleans County. Those needing help go there in a hurry, leaving most of their things behind. PathStone provides housing, food and personal items to those in its care, much of which comes from donations. Though some funding is received, Food Link provides meals as does local farms through donations. Many household things are obtained through donations as well as personal items for its residents, from dishes and clothing to towels, hair brushes and lotion. Gift cards are also given so the residents can purchase what they need. When their stay comes to an end, they leave with a small box of necessities, inspiration and hope for a better life. Just think of the items you'd have to take if you were going away. These are the most needed.

Anyone needing personal assistance or wishing to make a donation should contact Margie Aldaco, Program Administrator at the PathStone HOTLINE 866-314-7233.

HILL TALK

Has your number come up yet?

We are living in a time when gambling has become socially acceptable to most people and I must admit to having had a lottery ticket in my wallet a few times. New York State is now considering allowing several more casinos to open as I write.

The plus side of all this is the feeling of euphoria that people get as they imagine the possibility of winning big money. And what do they imagine doing with these soon to arrive winnings? An enriched new life with bills all paid, cruises whenever, new homes, fancy automobiles, and designer clothes? They of course, not being one of those selfish types of people, will also finance a new church, pay for college educations, and give generously to all charities. They will be like a born-again Scrooge, loved and respected by all!

I can't say that all dreaming is bad and I hope that each of us would do great things for mankind should fortune shine on us. However, there is a down side to these dreams. Let me say from the beginning that I'm not talking about gambling by those people who use it as an occasional recreational activity. I'm thinking about those people who habitually buy weekly lottery tickets. Because I am a strong believer in the power of positive thinking, I can't help but wonder what they are thinking about their present circumstances and lives.

How can we fully enjoy the free blessings in our lives if they are diluted by "If only"? If only I had a better car, if only my house was bigger, if only we could get away on vacation, If only, if only, and if only! First of all, most of the great things in life aren't for sale anywhere so what good will money do us? Will it make babies and children more beautiful to you? Will it make the sunsets brighter and the birds sing louder? Will you feel closer to your loved ones and will food taste better? Will the grass be greener and the flowers bloom more often? Will the sky be bluer and the clouds whiter?

If our yearnings for "If only" cause us to blindly walk over the cornucopia of blessings laid out every single day for us without really enjoying them, how very, very poor we must be! The long-term effect on our life can be even more profound because we all tend to gravitate toward what we believe we are. So, are you rich or poor?

Deep down we all know these facts about lotteries but it might help us to revisit them. The odds of us ever collecting the "big one" in our lifetime are minuscule! In fact, the odds of us dying before we collect are many, many millions to one! So what are we gambling with for that big payday, our life?

I'm sure that the church or charity would like the influx of the money people spend on lotteries much more than a weekly donation of a lottery ticket!

So, Has your number come up yet?

*Enjoy Clarendon in Winter
Put on a Pair of Snowshoes and Take a Walk*

Musings on Winter by Susan Persia

Breathe the fresh country air of Clarendon!

Enjoy the silhouette of Adirondack chairs poking out of the snow.

Watch a tiny bantam chick peeking out of the coop at new fallen snow,
the first snow he has ever seen.

Have the pleasure of getting the first eggs from Rhode Island Red chickens on a cold snowy day.

Look at newly spring planted fruit trees
that were put lovingly in Clarendon Soil by children on Earth Day and hold the promise of spring fruit.

Watch the Clarendon birds –
Nuthatches, Woodpeckers, Sparrows, Cardinals, Blue Jays, Chickadees and many more, scratch for food at the birdfeeders.

Look up at a twelve foot pine tree
laden with heavy snow branches lovingly planted by my eleven year-old daughter Angela when she was in sixth grade.

But, most of all,
be thankful you are able to experience a new 2013 in Clarendon
and the promises of a happy county life.
Say to yourself, "LIFE IS GOOD."

Just for Laughs

Two sisters, one blonde and one brunette, inherit the family ranch. Unfortunately, after just a few years, they are in financial trouble. In order to keep the bank from repossessing the ranch, they need to purchase a bull so that they can breed their own stock. Upon leaving, the brunette tells her sister, 'When I get there, if I decide to buy the bull, I'll contact you to drive out after me and haul it home.' The brunette arrives at the man's ranch, inspects the bull, and decides she wants to buy it. The man tells her that he will sell it for $599, no less. After paying him, she drives to the nearest town to send her sister a telegram to tell her the news. She walks into the telegraph office, and says, 'I want to send a telegram to my sister telling her that I've bought a bull for our ranch. I need her to hitch the trailer to our pickup truck and drive out here so we can haul it home.' The telegraph operator explains that he'll be glad to help her, then adds, it will cost 99 cents a word. Well, after paying for the bull, the brunette realizes that she'll only be able to send her sister one word. After a few minutes of thinking, she nods and says, 'I want you to send her the word 'comfortable.' The operator shakes his head. 'How is she ever going to know that you want her to hitch the trailer to your pickup truck and drive out here to haul that bull back to your ranch if you send her just the word 'comfortable?' The brunette explains, 'My sister's blonde. The word is big. She'll read it very slowly... 'com-for-da-bul.'

CLARENDON FIRE COMPANY

16169 East Lee Road, PO Box 136, Clarendon, NY 14429

The members of the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company are pleased to announce the recent procurement of a special piece of equipment designed to help those you love the most in a fire or hazardous fumes incident. On December 10, 2012 we received through a generous donation from Wayne Schiavone, owner of Earthworks by Schiavone, a new Wag'n O2 Fur Life pet oxygen delivery system. This system is designed to allow firefighters to administer oxygen to pets rescued from house fires and other hazardous fumes incidents such as carbon monoxide. Recently the members of the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company were trained on the use of the equipment and it was placed in service on Rescue Truck 66. We are pleased to say that the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company is one of the few agencies in the area with this equipment and we look forward to the continued service to our community. More information on the system can be found at <http://www.petoxygenmasks.org/> or through the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company website www.clarendonfirecompany.com.

WE NEED YOU!

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company is actively seeking members of the Clarendon and adjacent communities to join our all-volunteer team. We offer positions in the Emergency Medical and Fire service fields. The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company owns and operates a Basic Life Support Ambulance requiring Emergency Medical Technicians, and is used to treat and transport members of the community needing medical attention. We also own and operate a heavy rescue which carries our "Jaws of Life" extrication tool, one Engine, one 75' Quint ladder truck, one Tanker which carries 2,000 gallons of water for large fires, and an Off Road Rescue vehicle which has the ability to float and can be used in snow and on dry ground with tracks or tires. In 2012 we responded to 306 calls for service in all weather conditions and all hours of the day. Of those calls 123 were fire type calls which bring the response of a fire truck and 183 were emergency medical calls for persons needing medical treatment. Training is provided as well as personal protective equipment at no cost to you. The basic courses for entry level duties are provided by Orleans County and New York State. The Firefighter 1 course which is required for interior firefighting operations is approximately 90 hours in length. The Emergency Medical Technician Basic is required to treat patients in medical emergencies and is approximately 180 hours in length. We accept ages 14-16 which are classified as Junior Firefighters and are allowed to train with us in-house and help out with duties around the fire house when needed. At the age of 16 members can join or become Restricted Firefighters and are allowed to respond on calls and perform exterior operations on fire scenes with the commands approval. Once a member reaches the age of 18 they can become an interior fire fighter which allows operations entering structures on fire. The age of 18 is also the pre-requisite to become an emergency medical technician and care for patients in need. Drivers of apparatus must be at least 21 years old and will be trained in the use of pumps, ladders, and water supply. If you are interested please stop by the firehouse located at 16169 East Lee Road on a Tuesday evening around 6:30 p.m. or stop in anytime you see a vehicle in the parking lot. We would be happy to provide information, answer any questions, show you around, and give you an application. More information on the Clarendon Fire Company can be found online at www.clarendonfirecompany.com.

CLARENDON CONNECTIONS IN THE MILITARY

Clarendon Residents,

This Military Address Book is for our local service men and women. If you've a loved one serving our country, we'd like to give the community an opportunity to keep them in touch with home by offering addresses for letters and packages. Be My Valentine

GREETINGS EVERYONE! It sure is cold out as I write this article, so I'll try and use only warm words! Hopefully some of the will cheer you up.

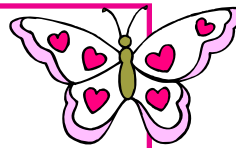

A young married couple who had just settled down in their new home got a pleasant surprise in their mail one morning, a couple of tickets to one of the best shows in town. But, the donor had omitted to send his or her name and for the rest of the day, the couple kept asking, "Wonder who it was?" They enjoyed the show, but when they reached home, they found that all their wedding presents had been taken. There was a note from the burglar saying: "Now you know!" Will Rogers said: We can't all be heroes, because somebody has to sit on the curb and clap as they go by. Charles Schulz wrote: Life is like a ten speed bicycle. Most of us have gears we never use. A young girl grabbed a thermometer from the medicine cabinet and popped it into her mouth. Her mother said, "Honey, that's the dog's thermometer." She spit out the thermometer, "Ewww, that was in Fido's mouth?" Mom hesitated before replying, "Not exactly."

A woman, before she ran off to work, gave her husband detailed instructions on how to cook dinner. Returning home, she found a dry chicken roasting in the oven next to a measuring cup full of water. "What's that doing in there?" she asked, clearly offended. Her husband said, "You told me to put the chicken in the oven with a cup of water." I belong to a gym now. Well, let me rephrase that. I don't belong there at all, but I go! Then there was the self-proclaimed invisible man who was a "no show" at his court hearing. Did you hear about the world's biggest optimist who fell out a window on the seventy-ninth floor? As he sailed past the twentieth floor, he was overheard saying, "Doing O.K. so far." I read where love is an irresistible desire to be irresistibly desired. It's a ten minute walk from my house to the pub. Oddly, it's a two hour walk from the pub to my house. The couple at the table next to me thinks some really weird guy is eavesdropping on their conversation, but I don't see him anywhere. I'm not speaking from experience or anything, but I'm guessing "by the toe" would have to be the worst possible way to catch a tiger.

Two men sitting side by side in an airplane started to talk. One explained he had never flown before. They left the airport in New York City headed for Los Angeles. They landed in Chicago whereupon a little red truck pulled up and refueled the plane. They again landed to refuel at Denver. The little red truck pulled up to the plane and refueled it. As they were about to land at their destination the veteran flier pointed out to the novice what great time they had made. The novice said, "Yes, we made good time, but that little red truck wasn't doing bad either."

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. What kind of tax does a hitchhiker pay?
2. What position does a monster play on a soccer team?
3. Where do you learn to belly dance?
4. What do you get when you cross a turtle with a porcupine?
5. What's another name for a cat's house?

America is the only country where you can go on the air and kid the politicians and where the politicians go on the air and kid the people. Ian Easterner went to Texas and opened a law office. He was asked to speak at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. He accepted, but did very poorly, what with being so new and feeling strange. After he got through, he sat down at the back of the room. Looking around he noticed two fellows dressed like cowboys and with a gun in each hand, coming in his direction. He looked around for some place to hide, but one of the men said, "Don't worry son, we ain't goin' to hurt you. We're looking for the program chairman." Sister: I made the chicken soup. Brother: Thank goodness, I thought it was for us. The doctor asked me if my cough was better this morning. I said it should be. I've been practicing all night. Man to a farmer: Is that scarecrow of yours any good? Farmer: Good, I'll say so. The crows are so scared they're bringing back the seeds they took last week. You can tell when you are on the right road – it's uphill. Psychiatry is the art of teaching people how to stand on their own feet while reclining on couches. It is harder to be a good winner than a good loser. One has less practice.

Alimony is a system by which when two people make a mistake and one of them continues to pay for it. The easiest way to get your wife's attention is by looking comfortable. The stage who said "go west" never had to figure out how to do it on a cloverleaf intersection. The really happy man is the one who can enjoy the scenery when he has to take a detour. Will Carton to Louis Pasteur (about 1875): O Good

Monsieur Pasteur! Your humanized art has thrilled every brain and has touched every heart! Man's friendliest beast – by disease tortured sore, henceforth is a poisonous reptile no more; Now please find a cure to our maladies when – this poor world is bitten by mad-minded men!

Best friends graduated from medical school at the same time and decided that in spite of two different specialties, they would open a practice together to share office space and personnel. Dr. Smith was the psychiatrist and Dr. Jones was the proctologist; they put up a sign reading: Dr. Smith and Dr. Jones: Hysterias and Posteriors. The town council was livid and insisted they change it. The docs changed it to read: Schizoids and Hemorrhoids. This was also not acceptable so they again changed the sign to read Catatonics and High Colonics – no go. Next they tried Manic Depressives and Anal Retentives – thumbs down again. Then came Minds and Behinds – still no good. Another attempt resulted in Lost Souls and Butt Holes – unacceptable again! So they tried Nuts and Butts – no way. Freaks and Cheeks – still no good. Loons and Moons – forget it. Almost at their wit's end, the docs finally came up with: Dr. Smith and Dr. Jones – Specializing in Odds and Ends. Everybody loved it You know, if you cross a centipede with a turkey you would get drumsticks for everybody.

By Beatrice Morris

*There is a reason in this life
For every little sigh
And there is solace to be had
For ever tear we cry.
We may not understand it
When the shadows touch our feet
And in the cup of bitterness
We may not taste the sweet.
But everything that's in its place
Is by the Will of God
However gay or tragic
Or mysterious or odd.
And somewhere there is comfort
And a compensation too
For every hurt we suffer
And the good we try to do.
If only we will honor God
And give the best we can
To persevere in our pursuit
And serve our fellowman.*

That's all for now.
Take care and God Bless.

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

January 2013

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Larry Swanger, Superintendent

Superintendent Swanger reported plowing was done in the past month. Water meter readings are complete for the fourth quarter 2012. Work is being done on equipment in the shop.

SUPERVISOR REPORT

Richard H. Moy, Supervisor

Supervisor Moy reminded all that the Town Board meeting in February will begin at 1:00 pm. Association of Towns has sent information regarding its annual meeting in New York City. Supervisor Moy sadly acknowledged the loss of Nick Quaranto, Clarendon's Cemetery Administrator. He passed away on January 1st.

CORRESPONDENCE

Monroe County Water Authority has sent notice of increase in water meter base charge rates for wholesale out-of-county water districts.

The Town has received a partial restitution payment for Munger Road Cemetery vandalism from the Orleans County Probation Department.

OLD BUSINESS

Board members discussed the final $320,000 net savings in refinancing some of the water districts and adopted a Bond Resolution authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $3,300,000; for the purpose of refinancing water districts.

Supervisor Moy felt the board should wait to discuss Water Improvement Benefit Area No. 11 until the Rural Development Agency census information for Clarendon's income is corrected to enable application for grant funding. It was explained that as the income information was omitted from the census, a sampling was done of each town; all high income households were included from Clarendon.

The Board amended the Clarendon Water Rules and Regulations, Section 31(A) to authorize a 15% late payment penalty added to bills not paid within 30 days following the billing date. Board members did authorize informational letters be sent to water customers informing them of adopted water regulation changes.

NEW BUSINESS

The Town Board approved the proposed 2013 Dog Control Agreement with Orleans County; at an annual cost of $2,766.24.

Melissa Ierlan was appointed as Cemetery Administrator for the Town of Clarendon.

The Board adopted a Resolution approving the extension of Snow & Ice Agreement D009593 for 2014/2015 contract year.

The Town Board re-appointed Supervisor Richard H. Moy as Marriage Officer for the Town of Clarendon.

A Confidentiality/Privacy Standard Policy for all service providers, consultants and volunteers was adopted and the Board authorized Supervisor Moy to sign an agreement pursuant to such policy with V2D Tech, computer service provider.
