CLARENDON TOWN BOARD—Meeting Highlights June 2015

OPEN END

Resident Pat Giglio reported that several years ago, prisoners were brought in to clear out the terraces in the Hillside Cemetery and suggested that be done again. Paul does a good job, but is only one and there's a lot to be done.

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Superintendent Larry Swanger reported 200-250 tires picked up in May. The Highway crew has been changing culvert pipes and fixed the very bad spots on Chugg Road. Superintendent Swanger reviewed that the waterline will be going down Chugg Rd shortly. There were large branches that had come down from a tree in Hillside Cemetery; that has been cleaned up. Roads have been graded as has the Fire Company parking lot. Having the equipment, the Clarendon crew replaced a water service line under the road at Hillside Cemetery. Four graves have been dug in the last five weeks and there is one more this week. The first roadside mowing is complete and the County side mower has spent seven days in Clarendon, cutting brush back and trimming ditches. Superintendent Swanger reported his intention to pave Wood Road 1/2 mile down south from LaDue Road. Attendance at the Water conference and then the Highway conference in Ithaca went well. Councilman Campbell suggested some of the big trees be taken down at the cemetery. Superintendent Swanger agreed but confirmed not having the manpower or money in the budget. Supervisor will check on the possibility of having prisoners there to work.

SUPERVISOR REPORT

Supervisor Moy reported the joint public hearing scheduled for next Tuesday at 7:00 PM at the Clarendon Town Hall with the Town of Barre in regard to possible court consolidation. Supervisor Moy accepted an invitation from the Holley Student Council to speak to them about politics and volunteering. A thank you card has been received. We've received formal confirmation that The Sommerfeldt House at 5482 Holley Byron Road has been listed on the National Register of Historic Places, recognizing the importance of the property to the history of our country and providing it with a measure of protection. In addition, owners of income producing properties may qualify for federal and/or state income tax benefits.

CORRESPONDENCE

New York Municipal Insurance Reciprocal (NYMIR) has sent notice that the rates for 2015 will remain the same. The Town has received $26,735 from the NYSDOT for severe winter conditions in accordance with our snow and ice agreement. A partial payment of $190 was received in restitution payment for cemetery vandalism. NYS Real Property has sent notice of final telecommunications ceiling for assessments; Verizon is $177,048 and Frontier is $1,915. NYS Real Property has sent notice that the Town's tentative equalization rate is 100%. MVP Health care, if approved, will change the insurance group premium by 2.48%. Supervisor Moy and Assessor Davis will meet with another insurance company representative next week. The Community Foundation has received the submitted proposal for funding for the preservation goal for Hillside Chapel Restoration. The Orleans County Legislature has sent a rebuttal to the Village of Medina regarding sales tax distribution. Supervisor Moy agreed with points made by the County. The Orleans County Legislature has authorized distribution of Mortgage Tax Receipts received October 2014 through March 2015; Clarendon has received $17,020.98. A copy of the report submitted for The Government Efficiency Plan by the County has been received. Supervisor stated Clarendon was the first to submit its information and feels the report shows good results. A satisfactory report was received from NYS Agriculture & Markets for the June inspection at the Orleans County Animal Shelter.

OLD BUSINESS

A pre-construction meeting with the engineer and contractor for WIBA #11 project is scheduled for 6/18/2015 at 9:00 AM. The contractor would like to begin the project on 7/1/3/2015. Suggested changes in the Employee Handbook were reviewed and approved by Board Members. Orleans County District Attorney Joe Cardone addressed the Board about court consolidation. He confirmed that the DA, Public Defender and County officials schedule Court DA Nights around the Judges docket and will be there as the Judge requests. Justice DiFante felt DA night not to be a deciding factor. Mr. Cardone felt consolidation would benefit the town in that it will have a second judge at no additional cost; that revenues stay in the town where the matter happens. Trying to consolidate to an East, West and Central Court system in the county will only be consistent with what the towns want. The west end is consolidated now. To consolidate Barre and Clarendon now makes the most sense due to timing. Clarendon Justice DiFante stated that as a judge, consolidation doesn't make a big difference; that the court clerks have expressed concerns. There would be an expense to add a judge to the town SEI court software. If someone sentenced in the Barre Court wants to pay a fine in Clarendon, the court will have to accept it, according to the NYS Comptroller's Office, making more work for the clerks. DA Cardone was unsure of that and reviewed that the Shelby Ridgeway Court share a facility, so it wouldn't be a problem. It is unknown how Yates handles the books in such a situation; this will be discussed at the public hearing. Justice DiFante suggested that as Barre is already down to one judge, that Clarendon go down to one judge and the towns remain separate for one year to see how it works. Temporary coverage as needed can be handled between the judges; Judge Punch will assign a justice to cover for a long term absence, that expense to be paid by the town. Supervisor Moy and Justice DiFante believe the court load can be handled by a single justice. Justice DiFante feels this consolidation is being rushed without enough detailed discussion between the towns; that it could be discussed further during the year and if the towns felt at that time consolidation would be beneficial or that going back to two judges would be best, do it then. DA Cardone will reach out to a judge and clerk on the west end of the county for attendance at the public hearing. There was not the required quorum of the Barre Town Board at the joint public hearing on the 23rd, so it was considered an informational meeting rather than an official public hearing. Town and County Officials present were introduced and Supervisor Moy reviewed options for the towns; after a public hearing, the towns would need to adopt resolutions to move forward. If one town decided not to consolidate, it would be a dead issue. Items confirmed from the meeting with Supervisors, Judges and Court Clerks from both towns were reported; if consolidated: Clarendon and Barre would be one court, but each would operate from its own facility; bank accounts for each Justice would be needed in each town; the revenue would stay in the town of the event; grant funding is available at $12,000 per town. This is a matching funds grant and would be used to help pay cost of expenses in considering the consolidation. If consolidation takes place, the other 50% of the funding would be available. The Town of Barre already has one justice; Clarendon can too if a resolution is adopted, subject to permissive referendum (vote).

Hillside Sketches

One of the most evocative gravestones in Hillside is near the north end, east of South Holley Road. Look for a broken column (symbolizes loss of head of the family) draped with cloth (symbol of loss and mourning) topped by an urn (symbol of the body as a temporary vessel for the soul.) The family name is Buddery.

Upon reading the stone, you will see that it memorializes John W. Buddery. John was married to Mary Youngs. They lived in Hulberton and he died in 1888. The most striking part of this stone is discovered when you read the other inscriptions. Four of John and Mary's five children are also included. They all died within weeks of their father. The oldest was 7 years old. A little research will tell you that they died of diphtheria. Only Mary and her infant child survived, although both were struck ill. It was thought that Mary somehow developed a resistance to the disease and passed her immunity onto her nursing child. Diphtheria is an infectious disease caused by bacteria. Starting with flu like symptoms it can lead to respiratory failure or death due to a pseudo membrane formation that blocks the airway. A vaccine was developed in the 1920's and in countries such as ours, where vaccination is common, the disease is seldom heard of today. Reflecting on this stone, one can appreciate the difficult challenges that our ancestors faced from disease and be thankful for what modern medicine can do.

WELL, HERE WE GO AGAIN FOLKS! I hope the intellectually challenged enjoy the following. Here are some children's letters to their pastors: 1.) I know God loves everyone, but he never met my sister. 2.) My father should be a minister. Every day he gives us a sermon about something. 3.) Are there any devils on earth? If there is, I think there's one in my class. *A man was about to tee off on the golf course when he felt a tap on his shoulder and a man handed him a card that read, "I am a deaf mute, may I play through please?" The first man angrily gave the card back and communicated that, "No. He may not play through and that his handicap did not give him such a right." The first man whacked the ball onto the green and left to finish the hole. Just as he was about to putt the ball into the hole, he was hit on the head with a golf ball, laying him out cold. When he came to a few minutes later, he looked around and saw the deaf mute sternly looking at him, one hand on his hip, the other holding up four fingers. (If you didn't get that, a golfer is supposed to yell 'fore' if it looks like his golf ball is going to hit someone!) A consultant is a man sent in after the battle to bayonet the wounded. Every thought is a seed. If you plant Crab apples, don't count on harvesting Golden Delicious. *One of my old buddies sent me this: "Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift. That's why they call it the present."

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES: Clue: All the answers will rhyme!

1. What do you call a clam that doesn't share?
2. What does a farmer call grass?
3. What is an animal doctor in the rain?
4. What do you call a rooster who takes longer to cock-a-doodle-do?
5. What is Tinker Bell when she imitates T-Rex?

I was thinking about how a status symbol of today is those cell phones that everyone has clipped onto their belt or purse. I can't afford one, so I wear my garage door opener. You know, I spent a fortune on deodorant before I realized that people just didn't like me. Did you ever notice: the roman numerals for forty are XL. Did you ever notice: when you put the two words 'the' and 'irs' together, it spells 'theirs'.

The Elementary School cook was proud of the healthy meals she provided with lots of fruits and vegetables. When the power failed one day, the cook couldn't serve a hot meal in the cafeteria so at the last minute she whipped up great stacks of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. As one little boy filled his plate, he said "It's about time, at last, a home-cooked meal." I went into a pet shop and bought bird seeds. The clerk got real upset when I asked him, "How long will it take for birds to grow?" Most accidents happen at home and the men have to eat them. *Through the pitch black night the captain sees a light dead-ahead on a collision course with his ship. He sends a signal: "Change your course ten degrees east." The light signals back, "Change yours ten degrees west." Angry, the captain sends "I'm a Navy Captain. Change your course sir!" "I'm a Seaman Second Class," comes the reply, "change your course". Now the captain is furious. "I'm a battleship! I'm not changing course." There is one last reply. I'm a lighthouse, your call." It's extraordinary; one day you look at your phone bill and realize your child is a teenager.*

My son has taken up meditation. At least that's better than sitting and doing nothing. If the world should blow itself up, the last audible voice would be that of an expert saying it can't be done. Telling a teenager the facts of life is like giving a fish a bath. A man without a woman is like a neck without a pain. Your marriage is in trouble if your wife says you're only interested in one thing and you can't remember what it is. After you've dated someone, it should be legal to stamp them with what's wrong with them so the next person doesn't have to start from scratch.

Politeness has become so rare that some people mistake it for flirtation. I used to hit the gym when I was stressed. Now I just hit the person that caused the stress. It works much better! You know you're bored when you stand at the microwave and count how many times the food goes around before it's done. Pilot: Have you ever flown in a small plane before? Passenger: No. I have not. Pilot: Well, here is some chewing gum. It will help to keep your ears from popping. Pilot after the plane landed: Did the gum help? Passenger: Yep, it worked fine. The only problem is I can't get the gum out of my ears. Every day may not be good, but there's something good in every day. A Scottish mother visits her son in New York City and asks, "How do you find the Americans, Donald?" "Mother" says Donald, "they're such noisy people. The one in the apartment next to me keeps banging his head against the wall and the one above screams and screams all night long. "Oh Donald, how do you manage to put up with them?" "What can I do? I just lie in bed quietly playing my bagpipes."

The Following by Jill Lemming

We can't rely on earthly things
To bring us happiness,
Treasures come from deep within
God's Heart-gifts are the best.
Like forgiveness when we need it most
And when it's least deserved,
A simple smile when we are sad
A hug for what it's worth.
All these things are Heaven-sent
And priceless through and through,
Heart-gifts never fade away
They grow inside of you.

Well, that's it for now. Have a great month.

CLARENDON PERSONALITY—Hill Bill

Niel William "Bill" Nielsen, better known to Gazette readers as 'Hill Bill', passed away at 81 years of age on June 3, 2015 at Strong Memorial Hospital. Born October 18, 1933, Bill was a Greenwich, CT native and moved to the Rochester area after serving in the United States Marine Corps. He was a resident of Clarendon for the past eight years, moving from Kendall. He was preceded in death by his wife of 55 years, Janet Sealy Nielsen, who recently passed in December 2014. Bill served in Korea with the United States Marine Corps from 1953-1956, after which he did many things professionally. He retired and discovered his passion for writing. He authored two publications: a technical book on the button-dyeing process, which he co-authored, and a fictional book called "The Qaakil," which was recently rereleased under the title of "Passion and Pandemonium." Bill's life was celebrated by many from fishing, book clubs and friends that he made along the way using his strong, magnetic personality at the Kendall United Methodist Church on Friday, June 12th. I've been in contact with Bill's daughter Lorrie who said that Bill so enjoyed writing for the Gazette; that it gave him a deep sense of purpose and helped him to branch out with writing his book. I know the entire Gazette Community shares the loss of our Hill Bill. Lorrie said that to say she will miss him would be like saying that she is going to miss breathing. Due to her own health issues, Lorrie could not attend her father's service but sent me the following:

My Dad was born just a few years after the crash of the stock market on the brinks of WW II and into a family that faced the ups and downs of the economy along with the rest of the world. He lost his beloved brother Eddy to WWII something that he never really got over.

He spoke of simpler times when relationships were created based on face to face interactions. Friends made by bringing your pole down to the local fishing hole or simply climbing trees. Not unlike scenes from the Little Rascals with pocketbooks filled with rocks dragged by a string with cousins on a lazy Sunday afternoon placed perfectly on a gravel road. He fought for our country in the Korean War, pieces of him lost there never to be found again. Something he spoke of seldom yet the damage done to him seen easily if you made the mistake of accidentally touching him to wake him as an automatic response of self preservation, his fist would jet out faster than a jack in the box. Or the way that he would walk in agony without his inserts in his shoes due to months of walking with no socks and broken boots in freezing cold weather. As I type this now it brings tears to my eyes. Now we speak of words like Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Then it wasn't even discussed. I wonder if it would have made a difference at all in his life.

He strove to be the best that he could be in all that he tried. He loved to cook, write, fish, paint, make people laugh, watch the birds, garden, shop for unusual items at garage sales, car rides around the lake enjoying each and every mile but most importantly, he enjoyed living. He lived each and every day to its fullest and tried to do all that he could for those around him. Even when he purchased his new car he wanted to be sure it had room to help transport friends to local events in the community so that they were not stuck in their homes.

I'm not going to sit here and say that he was a saint. If he was his soul would have had no reason for being here. Dad was Dad, he got into mischief however he was loved by all and we all were so lucky he was here with us. He did do something that we all should be doing though is strive to be as perfect as we can be...expecting to fail and to get up and keep trying.

To me at times my Father was my hero...not unlike Superman. Some of my favorite moments involve my Dad putting me on the back of his bike for a family bike ride through the Brockport and the SUNY College. I felt secure and safe...nothing could catch me. The way I would keep my eyes closed even if I woke up on the way from someplace in the car just so he would have to carry me inside. I often wonder if he knew and did it anyhow. Of course doing that at age 17 he finally said one day "Lorrie, your awake come on go inside" (just joking!) He taught me how to fish, placing my finger on the line waiting to feel the little vibration on the line teaching me patience. He taught me how to cook the family recipes that always came along with a family story he recalled.

With each season came another event for our family. During the fall there were walks, scarecrows and big family dinners. With winter came snow perfect for sledding parties and his homemade hot chocolate and cookies for all. A trip to the favorite sledding hill that seemed to go on forever sitting on that toboggan with a smile from ear to ear, never once thinking he could have been tired of walking up that doggone hill with me and younger brother in tow. After all, all we did was sit there! With spring came Easter egg hunts, fishing, picnics at the lake with family and gardening. With summer came more lake time and the long awaited two week yearly trip to Canada. Looking back now we were blessed.

As I grew older and began a life of my own I no longer took the time to hear his stories, or wanted to be there as he made Christmas Cookies or the family kuchen and not once did he ever complain. As I moved away with my husband to St Louis he and I talked but our conversations lacked true substance more of ships passing in the night because we had our translator, my Mother that filled in the gap. Upon her passing six months ago we found each other again. My mother no longer here to bridge the gap between us we had to discuss issues we had with each other and resolve them. We found a way back to each other as such our relationship became stronger than ever before. I was that little child again on the back of my Dad's bike feeling like he could conquer the world. We talked morning and night and in between on the phone. He spoke of his new challenges being without Mom and his newly found friends that were helping him to create a new life, his donut buddy, his ride-around-the-lake-burger-bird watching friend and all of his church buddies. We exchanged recipes our recent writings and exchanged our deepest fears locked in each of us from the rest of the world with a key. We were blessed to have mended our fences and found each other again on a level we should have had all along. It is my sincerest hope that whoever hears this does the same with those that they love. Dad was able to quickly forgive and forget and differentiate the difference between something worth worrying about and something to let go of. He was capable of not taking other persons actions personally even if directed towards him. I can only hope that someday I am able to do the same. To be half the person he was on this level I would be happy with.

In closing, during moments when tears stain my face, I find myself desperately wanting for my phone to ring with him on the other end. I will strive to remember the moments he would want me to. Like the time he wanted the kids to laugh at the family holiday party and he put olives in his eyes never thinking about the vinegar and its impact. Or the times he would ask me while camping in Canada what I wanted for breakfast and I would request wild strawberry or blueberry pancakes and he would literally go and find them in the woods and make them. To me no big deal as a kid, but now as an adult I am amazed. Most importantly what I will remember is his ability to rebuild himself over and over no matter what knocked him down, he was going to get back up and try again. Try he did and never stopped. For him life was not wasted. He lived it to its fullest.

Thank you to all of you...his extended family in the church and the community that were there with him at the buffalo dinners, BBQ's, community center events, family at the Gazette, church picnics, holidays and more. Always know that you were cherished and spoken of often. He was grateful for each and every one of you as am I for the joy you brought into his life.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD

It was reviewed that overall, consolidation would not show a big savings. District Attorney Cardone offered that the Towns can 1) Do nothing, electing a second justice at the November election; 2) Maintain separate courts, each with one justice; 3) consolidate to one court. Board members discussed the vacant building registry. Clerk to provide board members with the Village of Medina policy. Board members discussed Solar Power; Councilman Major will visit solar sites and look more in depth regarding their savings. Councilman Robinson has attended a seminar on this and feels that the grant funding and free electric in ten years may be worth it; that the panels should be on the ground, not a roof mount. It was said that 1" severe hail will break through the glass; that the town can own or lease the system and it's considered to have a 20 to 30 year life before repair is needed. Supervisor Moy will check on cost of insurance for a solar system.

NEW BUSINESS

The Board adopted a resolution approving an Amendment to the 2015/2016 Snow & Ice Contract Extension as prepared by New York State Department of Transportation including a cost increase for fuel for the 2014/2015 winter season. Planning Chairman Dave Griggs explained the reason for the proposed zoning amendment. The Ordinance initially allowed using a camper in town for a total of thirty days. Then the Board decided to allow seasonal dwelling permits for up to 180 days/year and removed the 30 days limit. When the Board decided to remove the seasonal dwelling permit, nothing was put back into the ordinance for limited use of a camper. There are currently two seasonal dwelling permits that have grandfathered use as long as the permit fee is paid each year. Supervisor Moy read aloud optional language for camper use limitations as prepared:

* Travel trailers, campers, and recreational vehicles lawfully located on a private lot may be occupied on an overnight basis for a period not to exceed 30 days per calendar year.

- Alternate language for consideration – Travel trailers, campers and recreational vehicles lawfully located on a private lot may be occupied on an overnight basis for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days per calendar year. Additional time may be granted by requesting a camping permit issued by the OIO. Up to two (2) camping permits may be issued per calendar year. Each camping permit shall be issued for a maximum of fifteen (15) days. Permit fee to be determined by the Town Board of the Town of Clarendon.

The Board introduced the amendments to the Zoning Ordinance to include the initial 30 day limit on use of campers and scheduled a public hearing (see notice on front page).

H. No "gray water" or sewage shall be drained or dumped from any camper except into such collection vehicles or septic disposal systems approved by the Orleans County Health Department for such purpose.

History Helpers

The Clarendon Historical Society has been actively seeking ways to get the public involved. Erin Anheier was able to connect with GCC students in Derek Maxfield's History classes. We had two students, Gina Buda and Austin Carapezza who each worked 10 hours to fulfill the community service requirement. Our chapel basement had piles of rotted wood and some coal left over from days gone by.

Russ Bosch built some shelves using the existing racks in the basement to serve as storage and our students carried them up from the other side and back down to be organized and stored on this side. After this was done, the emptied out side got a good cleaning and the debris was shoveled up and discarded. The purpose was to get the basement dried out as much as possible in order to assess what type of mortar work needed to be done as the chapel restoration moves forward. We appreciate our volunteers and GCC!

Restoring Hamlin's CCC Prisoner of War Camp
Wed. July 15th at 7PM
By Ed Evans

Ed Evans is a retired high school science teacher. He worked for 33 years in the Hilton Central School system teaching chemistry, physics, earth science and remedial science. Ed was also on the Hamlin Town Board for 12 years and recently retired from Hamlin's Conservation Board.

Ed's interest in Hamlin's CCC/POW camp of the 1930s and early 1940s grew out of his working closely with the Town's Historian, Mary Smith, during his Town Board years. In 2008 Ed was asked by Hamlin Beach State Park manager, Marty Howden, to help the park turn the old CCC/POW camp site into a history trail and the work to clear the site of dense overgrowth began. He and his fellow volunteers are into their 7th year of sawing, chopping and mowing. [A self guided tour of the site can now be found on the NYS Parks website.]

Ed is also well into his second series of 100 tours and lectures about the restoration of the site.
