July 2017

Roy Bubb has a new book!

You may purchase this book from Melissa Ierlan at the Town Hall. The book will also be available at the Clarendon Historical Society On July 19th from 5 - 7PM

It all started with a century-old scrapbook given to Roy Bubb many years ago. It sat on a shelf until, remembering the kindness of the donor, he took the scrapbook from its safe-keeping, and read it again more carefully. Its contents came to life before him as would a family tree of a pioneer family and resulted in this new book.

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD—Meeting Highlights June 2017

Russ Bosch, Planning Board Member and engineer reviewed the bid tabulation prepared by Chatfield Engineers for the Cemetery Chapel Restoration project and reported that three packages of specs for the Hillside Cemetery Chapel Restoration project had been sent out; Contract 1- Slate Roof Replacement received two bids. The Board awarded the roof bid to Leo Roth Corp of Webster, NY at a total bid amount of $72,252. Chatfield Engineers is familiar with their qualifications and feels their bid is a true representation of costs. Contract 2 – Window Repairs received two bids and Contract 3 – Miscellaneous Repairs received one bid, which was over the project budget for that work. The Board will look at the other bids at the next board meeting. Mr. Bosch requested additional time to meet with and research prior historical window work done by the low-bid contractor for the windows. It was reviewed that the grant received is for $126,000 with matching funds required; monetary and in-kind services.

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPT REPORT –

Superintendent Swanger reported the first roadside mowing done and the second one has been started. Most of the gravel roads in town have been graded and the ±20 tons of old tires behind the garage have been disposed of. The Holley school is making a new playground and has given the topsoil to the towns; Clarendon received 15 loads. Hall Road paving is complete and turned out well; it will be sealed in July and shoulder work will then be done. The Highway crew replaced a couple of culverts in town and has helped Albion and Barre with paving jobs. Superintendent Swanger informed that he put the old furnace from the highway garage out for bid and received none. The Board declared the oil furnace replaced at the highway garage surplus equipment and authorized Superintendent to dispose of it. Superintendent asked the Board to replace the 2004 truck being used at the garage with a 2018 three quarter ton work truck with a full eight foot box. Supervisor suggested many options: that sometimes when put out to bid, purchase price will come in lower than what's offered on the state bid and to put to bid it for purchase and for lease. Water funds will be used to pay for the truck. Board members asked Superintendent Swanger to see what is available on a dealer lot; that it would be cheaper to purchase that way.

HISTORIAN/HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT –

Historian Melissa Ierlan summarized the following written report:

* We are working on the wording for 4 new signs to go at the pioneer cemeteries. (with the exception of the calico hill cemetery) To spend the grant money received from the Elizabeth Dye Curtis foundation in 2016.

* I have received many photos and assorted papers to include maps, letters, and newspaper articles from a town resident. We have shared them with the county historian and other historical societies.

* Roy Bubbs book signing was a great success. Many people came out and purchased books. We received a check for our portion of the books sold. Roy is a very historical minded citizen and he does everything he can to support our CHS. We are very fortunate. The Holley library and Holley/Murray Historical Society also benefit from the book sales.

* The Lemuel Cook Marker was dedicated last month on the 20th and the turnout was tremendous. The DAR from Orleans County Patrice Birmer representing, The SAR from Rochester with an impressive display of flags and a speaker to talk about them. OCHA and our County Historian. We had folks from Michigan and South Carolina who came up specifically for this. I think Lem would have been very proud.

* The town historian has made several purchases to include a 2017 yearbook. We will purchase these yearly. A Plexiglas case to house a piece of taxidermy that was donated by Constance Gaines, to protect it.

* A Clarendon resident donated several yearbooks from the 1960's which we did not have in our collection.

* A Clarendon resident donated several local cook books from her grandmother's things. Previous to that another family member donated a huge assortment of items that were used for the ladies home co-op group.

* I assisted Holly Canham as she is writing her second book on mom and pop farms doing a couple interviews. We had a great time speaking with Joyce Blank about her family and the cheese factory as well as the GLF. She shared many photos.

* We have a presentation by Richard Reisem and Andy Olenick tomorrow night beginning at 7pm, the museum will be open from 5-7 prior to. We are approaching the 200th anniversary of the canal.

SUPERVISOR REPORT –

Supervisor Moy reported that the County is responsible for maintaining the north end of Route 237 which is deteriorating. The County is looking to purchase rocks for that purpose; Clarendon has three hedgerows full of rocks on the lot by the highway garage. The County will come up with a price. Soil & Water reps met at the Holy Cross Cemetery today and felt a berm needs to separate the farming operation from the Cemetery. Mr. Penna will plant that and will rake and reseed the cemetery where rains have washed through the property. OIO Ierlan reported that Penna farming cuts across their leased portion of property and onto our driveway. Supervisor confirmed that he can't do that; that Mr. Penna should be informed. Supervisor reported receiving numerous calls complaining that the grass on the state roadsides is too high and blocks view at intersections and driveways; Superintendent has received calls also. Supervisor will call the NYSDOT; the Town used to mow the state highways.

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

GREETINGS EVERYONE. I got started late on this article, so I'm writing faster. I'm sorry if you have to read quicker! Tom was walking home one night after stopping at the bar. He was walking with one foot on the curb, the other foot in the gutter. The good father passing by said, "Thomas you're drunk." Tom said, "Thanks be to God. I thought I was a cripple." A three year old boy went with his father to see a litter of puppies. On returning home he breathlessly told his mother, "There were two boy puppies and two girl puppies." "How did you know?" his mother asked. "Dad picked them up and looked underneath." He replied. "I think it's printed on the bottom." A pirate walks into a bar with a paper towel on his head, sits down and orders a drink. The bartender serves the pirate his drink and asks about the paper towel. The pirate smiles and says, "That be the bounty on me head." "Son, you're not joking when you say you've got two left feet. The dog's got two left feet, but even he can dance better than you." "Yeah, that's fine son. You park here, no problem. I can walk the rest of the way to the curb." "I hate to shatter your illusions of stardom sweetheart, but your singing sounds worse than a stray cat in a fan belt." "No way am I eating with chopsticks! I want to eat with regular silverware, not a pair of knitting needles. The object is to get the food into my mouth, not all over the table cloth."

*A man burst into the dentist's office and held forth as follows: "Now, look here, I've got no use for these new-fangled notions – gas, cocaine and painless extractions – and all that rubbish. The tooth's given a lot of trouble. All you need to do is yank it out, just yank it out." "Well" said the dentist, "you're a plucky fellow, just step into the chair." "Oh" said the man. "It isn't my tooth. It's my wife's, she's downstairs." Last night I was out for a few drinks. One thing lead to another and I had a few too many and then went on to the brandy. Not a good idea. Knowing I was way over the limit, I decided to leave my car at the bar and took a taxi home. Sure enough, I passed a police checkpoint at the top of the road where they were pulling over cars and performing breathalyzer tests. Because I was in a taxi, they just waived it past. I arrive home safely and without incident, which was a real surprise as I've never driven a taxi before and I am not even sure where I got it from. Everyone has photographic memory. Difference is some do not have any film. When she was asked what she thought was the best thing about being one hundred and four, the old gal replied, "No peer pressure." What ten letter word starts with gas? Automobile! If at first you don't succeed, destroy all evidence that you tried.*

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. How did the moron break his leg raking leaves?
2. What is the only bone in your body you can't break?
3. Why did the worm cross the road?
4. What did the cook say to the salad?
5. What school do you go to, to learn to greet people?

Never trust an undertaker boyfriend who asks you how tall you are and if you're not sure, produces a tape measure. Never trust a man who starts twitching uncontrollably and makes excuses not to go out when there's a full moon. Never trust a man who says, "Does anyone know you're here?" Never trust a street vendor who keeps looking over his shoulder. "You want to go skating on the lake? Wait 'til it gets warmer." A man was getting shaved by a barber and after submitting in agony for several minutes, he asked the barber to get him a glass of water. "What's the matter?" said the barber. "Got a hair in your throat?" "No" shouted the man. "I just wanted to see if my neck would still hold water."

By Helen Steiner Rice

*Deal only with the present
Never step into tomorrow
For God asks us just to trust Him
And to never borrow sorrow
For the future is not ours to know
And it may never be
So let us live and give our best
And give it lavishly
For to meet tomorrow's troubles
Before they are even ours
Is to anticipate the Savior
And to doubt his all-wise powers.
So let us be content to solve
Our problems one by one
Asking nothing of tomorrow
Except Thy Will Be Done.*

*That's all folks. Have a great month.
Adios & God Bless,
Geary (Moose) Shenck*

Hillside Sketches

Clowes Cliffe was born in England in 1866. At some point he came to Holley to work in the quarry industry as a stone cutter. Records indicate that he worked cutting stone on the capitol building in Albany in 1896 and prior to that in 1895 he traveled to Black River country to do stone cutting on the locks. It was said that he contracted "stone cutters disease of the lungs" and was forced to retire. He had also been a successful taxidermist and there were many ads in the Holley Standard in the early 1900's. One ad from 1909 stated this: TAXIDERM Y - I f there is anything that you want mounted in the line of birds or animals, Clowes Cliffe will do it for you. South Main Street, Holley. Another newspaper article from 1924 talked about an Arctic Owl mounted by Mr. Cliffe being exhibited in H.C Oakley's Store. Clowes Cliffe died at age 65 in 1931 and was buried in Hillside cemetery.

The Clarendon Historical Society has a piece of his taxidermy in their museum. It is made in a similar style to Carl Akeley's Red Fox. It bears his signature in the bottom left corner.

A Bronze tablet listing the names of 24 soldiers from Orleans County who died in World War I was rededicated and placed on the wall outside the Orleans County Court House. Tim Archer, the service learning teacher for Albion Middle School and his class of 7th graders worked to make this happen. The 3-by-5-foot plaque lists the names of soldiers from central Orleans – Barre, Albion, Gaines and Carlton – who died in the war. They include: John D. Arnett, Albert Beary, Jesse S. Brooks, John A. Butler, Leo. F. Christopher, Oliver E. Clement, Ronald F. Corey, Robert B. Densmore, Harry H. Dibley, Frederick Green, John Kurzawski, Martin Larwood, Louis Monacelli, Dewey Mott, Benjamin A. Needles, Leonard Osborne, Adolfo Passarelli, Stanley Rutkowski, James A. Sheret, Egbert Sheret, John H. Stevens, Alexander Wilson and Stanley P. Zyglarski. "These men witnessed what no citizen, man, woman, or child, could ever imagine," said County Historian Matthew Ballard. "A war that raged in the French countryside thousands of miles from home, exposing men to terrible disease, horrific weapons, chlorine and mustard gas, barbed wire and trenches, the list goes on."

Learn about Joseph Santens, Taxidermist

On Wednesday July 19th at 7:00 PM there will be a free presentation at the Clarendon Historical Society regarding Joseph Santens, a taxidermist with a connection to Bergen NY. Our presenter will be Ray MacConnell, the Village of Bergen Historian. Belgium born Joseph Santens became a respected taxidermist in the United States in the middle of the 20th century. He worked in Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Chicago, and Philadelphia. He made his home in Rochester and retired to the Village of Bergen in 1934. It is said he wished to be closer to the famed Bergen Swamp. While in Bergen he was asked to mount "Mirage", a magnificent white Arabian horse for a family in Ohio. "Mirage" made millions for Selby Stud Farms, but also was a gentle horse, loved by the Selby's. Ray is the Village of Bergen Historian since 2012. He received his Master of Fine Arts at Rochester Institute of Technology. Prior to retirement, he was a graphic artist at the University of Rochester for 33.5 years. He was born in Bergen and lives in his family's home there. The program is free and open to the public at the Clarendon Historical Society, 16426 Fourth Section Rd., at Church Street in Clarendon. Light refreshments will be served. For more information call 585-638-6371 x 104.

CLASSIFIED

Feral Kittens born in my garage. Each kitten has been cuddled daily and socialized so they are very tame. Their mothers are still in garage with them, mothers are not socialized but very tolerant of my continual contact with their babies. They will be 10 weeks old and ready to go on July 9th. They are bathed weekly, ears treated and wormed. 2 males, 7 females. Variety of colors. None of the kittens have been outside to keep them safe and healthy, mothers have been kept in the garage as well. I have already had one of the mothers spayed and plan to spay the 2nd as soon as the kittens are gone to stop the breeding. Come and see, cuddle and pick your favorite!!! I have a 2 year old feral kitten in my house from a batch born in the garage 2 years ago and he is a very sweet boy. Cindi Davis P# 314-1340
