CLARENDON HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWS

From the President's Desk

Look for our table at Holley's Canal Side Park on June 4th at the "Murray-Holley June Fest". We are raffling a hand-crafted Santa donated by Roy Bubbs. It's a collectable and the winner will be notified at our August 17th Ice Cream Social.

June 8th and 9th, the Society will host a program put together by our Town Historian Melissa Ierlan. School children will be given a glimpse of our past by various program narrators. We enjoy having them as our guests. That's all for now!

James W. Moore, President

GREETINGS FROM THE CLARENDON LIONS CLUB

Our Geranium sale in May was a great success. We thank the community for all their support. We also thank Lion Carol Robishaw for chairing this event. She did a great job coordinating all the activities needed to keep this fundraiser going every year.

Next up is our hot dog/hamburger stand fundraisers. We will be at the Chase Bank in Albion on June 16th and 17th and at the Orleans County Fishing Derby on June 10th, 11th and 12th. For the Fishing Derby, our stand will be located at the Marine Park on Route 98 at Point Breeze. Stop in and see us!

Future dates for our hot dog/hamburger stand include eight (8) Tuesday nights during the months of July and August at Point Breeze. There will be concerts and dances too. More details will follow as the summer approaches. We will also be at the Annual Dog Show at Bullard Park in Albion on July 22nd, 23rd and 24th. These dates are open to the public. We will be at the Clarendon CrosbyOs Store at the corner of NYS Routes 237 and 31A on August 12th and 13th, and again on September 16th and 17th.

The Clarendon Lions Club currently meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 7:00 PM at the Disciples United Methodist Church, 4410 Holley Byron Road (Rte 237) in Clarendon. No meetings are held during the summer months because of our involvement in all the fundraisers. If you would like more information about the Lions Organization, or how you can serve with the Clarendon Club, please call our Membership Chairperson, Lion Joni Robishaw at 638-8235. See you soon!

NICK WINKLEY – EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT

Nick Winkley presented his Eagle Scout project at the Maplewood Pioneer Cemetery, Holley Byron Road, to the Clarendon Town Board as complete. Photos of different phases of the project were shown. Nick informed that headstones have been cleaned, small trees that had taken root and over-grown brush had been cut and cleaned out and a shadow-box display case has been built and installed. The case houses a map of the cemetery, showing headstones and a list of persons buried there. Nick thanked Town Historian Melissa Ierlan for the idea, Scott Smith Landscaping for help with the map and Stockham Lumber for donating the wood to build the case. Approximately 130 hours of work went into this project. The Scout Council has approved the project and Nick now only needs the Town's signature for completion. Nick gave electronic files of project photos to Historian Ierlan.

HILL TALK

I ONCE ENJOYED FREEDOM!

Many years ago when we were married, I gave up some freedoms. The spur of the moment fishing trips and nights of going out with the boys were not ended but were modified to a great extent as we gradually learned that our lives were a team effort. Oh, there were some bumps in the road but through time and patience (mostly my wife's) they were ironed out. Retirement has allowed me a settled, calm, and deliciously unplanned life.

However this stability ended much as my single life did back then when a female again entered my calm world. Oh, she entered it quietly enough although her stunningly beautiful appearance did take my breath away (Platinum blonds always did catch my eye) and her beautiful dark eyes could probably melt an iceberg with a small glance. I fell completely under her spell from the first moment I met her!

She is French as is her name, Bibianne, and she conducts herself so regally as she walks or dines that I wonder if she could be in fact be French royalty! In the beginning of our relationship she asked little of me and freely gave me her complete love. However, as relationships like these are wont to do, she became more demanding as time went by.

She gradually began to resent my times away from her and now sulks when I came back from shopping or fishing. When I want to relax for a quiet evening of TV she will harass me to play games with her instead as she has no interest in the military and discovery channels or in watching a movie that interests me.

I soon found out that that beautiful hair of hers has a price and that price comes out of my wallet all too often! Food? She has very expensive tastes and if it is not absolutely perfect to her pallet she refuses to touch it! Not a worker, she expects everything to be done for her so I find myself waiting on her hand and foot!

Lately having decided to organize my previously unorganized lifestyle, she tells me when to eat, when to take her out, when to work on the computer, or when my bedtime is! She is decidedly heavy-handed about such things and won't take no for an answer! I had thought that my wife would resent her presence in my life and be jealous but much to my surprise they have teamed up in such a way that if I don't "jump" when Bibianne asks, she goes to my wife and complains vocally while looking at me and then the both of them are on me!

Through all of this she still has me completely under her spell! I guess I should have stayed with old laid-back hound dogs instead of this much too smart twelve pound poodle!

I once enjoyed FREEDOM!

A TWIST ON THE CLASSICS

Holley eighth graders in Mark Thomas' English class recently put their own spin on classic fairy tales. They chose fairy tales and fables by Aesop, Hans Christian Anderson and the Brothers Grimm then created their own "fractured fairy tales" based on the original. Each student either wrote a book and colored pictures, created a computer pop-up book on Zooburst.com, or created a homemade video of the fairy tale or fable. The eighth graders shared their tales with kindergarten and first grade classes, who listened intently. Shown here with their books are: (first row, l-r) Lorene Beidlingmaier, Cassie Rivera, Brianna VanAmeron, Hayley Diep, Hailey Murphy, and Anna Odeychuck; (second row) Tara Ryan, Jade Underwood, Bailey Papaj, Emily Klimack, Tessa McArthur, Alicia Lutes, Leigha Klopp, and Ariel Frazer; (third row) Kamryn Nickel, Skye Drager, Alexis Hinkley-Maier, Samantha Stephens, Kayla Brooks, Jeff Hale, Brian Wass, Justin Dake, Tyler Dibelka, Jacob Riis, Glenn Robb, and Tyler Wing.

HOLLEY ELEMENTARY RAISES $1,500 FOR LEUKEMIA & LYMPHOMA RESEARCH

Holley Elementary School students and staff raised $1,500 for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society through the fundraiser Pennies for Patients. The Student Council organizes a penny drive every year, and every year the response is greater.

Amie Callen's kindergarten class collected the most coins - 68 pounds! So Student Council members decided to do a special flash mob dance for them as a surprise. The kindergartners cheered as Matt DeSimone, Luca Fahmer, Ryley O'Mara, and Sierra Verhagen showed them their dance moves then gave the students squishy star toys.

According to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, an estimated 894,543 Americans are living with leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma. Leukemia causes more deaths than any other cancer among children and young adults under 20. The money Holley Elementary raised will help fund blood cancer research, patient aid and services.

Holley Elementary Student Council members (l-r) Luca Fahmer, Ryley O'Mara, Matt DeSimone, and Sierra Verhagen perform a flash mob dance for Amie Callen's kindergarten class as a reward for collecting the most pennies for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

EMERGENCY CREWS ENACT REALISTIC CRASH FOR HOLLEY SENIORS

Holley seniors weren't thinking of getting their hair done or picking up their tuxedos the morning of their senior prom – they were thinking about the serious consequences of drinking and driving. Assembled in the Holley Middle School/High School parking lot, they sat and watched as a deluge of emergency vehicles arrived at a staged car crash. First, the Holley Police Department and State Police arrived on the scene. Then the Clarendon, Holley and Hulberton Fire Departments, Holley Ambulance, and Monroe Ambulance Advanced Life Support arrived – sirens blaring and lights flashing.

Inside the car were seniors Sean Brooks, Brandon Comden, Danielle Oliver, and Nick Troup, who volunteered to play the occupants of the car that caused the crash. “I never want anything like this to happen,” said Sean, who played the driver of the car. “It’s a weird feeling being pulled out of a crushed car.” Wearing fatal vision goggles, which give the illusion of being intoxicated, Sean took a breathalyzer test, was handcuffed, and then put in the back of a police car.

After rescue crews used the Jaws of Life to pry open the mangled car, Brandon and Nick were removed, placed on stretchers, and put in the ambulances. When the fourth passenger, Danielle, was taken from the car, a hearse from Christopher Mitchell Funeral Home arrived to transport her body. “It was very scary,” she said.

Holley Police Chief Rick Cary said rescue crews responded to the staged scene with $3.5 million in equipment. “In the 10 years we’ve been doing this in Holley, we’ve never had an alcohol related incident on prom night,” he said.

Holley senior Nick Troup plays an injured passenger during the DWI crash enactment at Holley Middle School/High School on the morning of the senior prom.

DONATIONS FROM HOLLEY STUDENT COUNCIL, LOCAL STORES HELP SIXTH GRADERS STAY WELL GROOMED

When a student mentioned to his teacher that he had brushed his teeth with soap that day because he had no toothpaste, teachers and the Holley Elementary Student Council sprung into action. Student Council Advisor Sally Martin suggested that the group make a monetary donation so sixth graders could each receive their own package with soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrush and shampoo. Then the Brockport Wegmans and Walmart stores donated gift cards so more supplies could be purchased – enough to give every sixth grader a hygiene bag. “Good hygiene is important to talk about in sixth grade,” said Teacher Leigh Onisk.

“In fact, we have a science unit on hygiene and students are working on fictional stories about how they would tactfully help someone who had poor hygiene.” At the end of the unit, every sixth grader will receive the items, so no one is singled out. “We’d like to thank Wegmans, Walmart, and our own Student Council for the generous donation,” said Onisk. Extra items will be saved in case there is a student who runs out of something.

GREETINGS and a Hearty HI YA to you all! Common sense is the most evenly distributed quantity in the world. Everyone thinks he has enough! Spring is an excellent reminder that I was suppose to get in shape before Spring. Two hats are on a hat rack when one hat says to the other, "You stay here. I'll go on ahead." The windshield wiper and tail light had a staring contest. Who won? The windshield wiper. The tail light couldn't stop blinking! "Honey, I have good news and bad news "a woman tells her husband. "What is it?" he asks. "First, I think I'm losing my voice." She croaks. "So?" her husband says. "What's the bad news?"

Two women appeared in court, each accusing the other of causing trouble in their building. "Let's get to the evidence" the Judge said in an effort to end their bickering. "I'll hear the oldest woman first." The case was dismissed for lack of testimony! A man entered the local paper's pun contest. He sent in ten different entries hoping that at least one of them would win. Unfortunately, no pun in ten did. A guy came into a local bar one night with two black eyes. "Wow" the bartender said. "Who gave you those beauties?" "Nobody. I had to fight like crazy for both of them?"

One day, Mother was out and Dad was in charge of their two year old daughter. She had got a little tea set and it was one of her favorite toys. Dad was in the living room reading the paper when she brought him a little cup of tea, which was just water. After a few more cups of tea and lots of praise for such yummy tea, Mom came home. Dad made her wait in the living room to watch their daughter bring him a cup of tea because it was just the cutest thing! Mom waited and sure enough, she came down the hall with a cup of tea for Daddy and she watched him drink up. The Mom said (as only mothers would know) "Did it ever occur to you that the only place she can reach to get water from is the toilet?"

This Month's Riddles

1. What do you call a receptionist in a beauty salon?
2. Why are frogs so happy?
3. What did the left sock say to the right sock?
4. How did they know Dracula was broke?
5. If Joy is the opposite of Sorrow, what is the opposite of Woe?

Her first day at the convent, the anxious new nun started biting her nails. After trying to quit by force of will, self-help books and even hypnosis, she finally turned to the Mother Superior for advice. "Change your clothes" came the response. "But how will that help?" "Simple" the Mother Superior said. "You've just got a bad habit!"

I asked my wife if she wanted to renew our vows. She got so excited – she thought they had expired. I see a sign that says "Caution, small children praying". I slow down and then it occurs to me. I'm not afraid of small children. Bill - When were you married? Bob – Fifteen years ago. Bill – You must be very sentimental to still be watching you and your wife taking you vows after all these years. Bob – Yes, it still chokes me up to hear her say "Yes" for the last time.

A lady opened her refrigerator and saw a rabbit sitting on one of the shelves. "What are you doing there?" she asked. The rabbit replied, "This is a westing house, isn't it?" To which the lady replied "Yes". "Well," the rabbit said "I'm westing." Sorry, I couldn't stop myself! I hope you all had a wonderful Easter. Is it male or female? Hammer – Male, because in the last 5000 years, they've hardly changed at all and are occasionally handy to have around. Remote Control – Female. Ha ~ You probably thought it would be male, but consider this: It easily gives a man pleasure and he'd be lost without it! Web Pages – Female, because they're constantly being looked at and are frequently getting hit on. Trains – Definitely Male. They always use the same old lines for picking up people. Egg Timers – Female, because over time, all the weight shifts to the bottom.

On Parents: "Sparents" are those who spare the rod. When offspring need attention: they find their troubles multiplied in ways too sad to mention. The behavior of some children suggests that their parents embarked on the Sea of Matrimony without a paddle. The trouble with being a parent is that by the time we're experienced, we're unemployed. Do not handicap your children by making their lives easy. Just about the time you think your problems are all behind you, you become a Grandparent.

On Marriage: A man who gives in when he is wrong is wise. A man who gives in when he is right, is married. When a man and woman marry, they become one. The trouble starts when they try to decide which one! There are two periods in a man's life when he doesn't understand women – before and after marriage. Woman to Marriage Counselor: "That's my side of the story. Now let me tell you his." Adam and Eve had an ideal marriage. He didn't have to hear about all the men she could have married and she didn't hear about how well his mother cooked!

On Experience: He who stumbles twice over the same stone deserves to skin his shins. Experience should be a guide post and not a hitching post. Don McNeill wrote, "Experience may be the best teacher, but the one I had in Grammar School was much prettier." Scott Adams said no matter how many times he visits New York City, he's always struck by the same thing; a Yellow Taxi Cab.

Clay Harrison wrote:

When words begin to fail you
A simple hug will do
To lighten someone's burden
And give them hope a new.
Heartaches often leave us speechless
With nothing wise to say,
Just being there speaks volumes
And friends can save the day.
We can cry with those in mourning
And hold each other tight
For Joy comes in the morning
If we make it through the night.
Tears shared are not as bitter
As teardrops cried alone
For friendships soil is fertile
For seeds of kindness sown.
Love can expedite a healing
And faith can light the way
When words begin to fail you
God taught us how to Pray!

That's it for this time. Have a great month!
Adios and God Bless.

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

May 2011

CLARENDON HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT

James Moore, President

President Moore reported that Historian Ierlan has again arranged for the Society to host a field trip to the Museum Site for the Holley School fourth graders on June 6th and 7th. This year, the PTSA is funding the trip as there is no money in the school budget for it, this year or last year. Supervisor Moy teaches the students what "old time school" was like.

The Town Board accepted a proposal from Clarendon resident, Gary Germeo, to tear down the burned structure at 4513 Hulberton Road and haul it away in dumpsters at a total cost of $4125.20. Mr. Germeo stated the job could be done in one day; that once the burned house is down, he'll push the foundation in. As the Fire Company has training on the ladder truck at that site on the 25th of May, work will not begin until at least the 26th. Mr. Germeo will have a Certificate of Insurance faxed to the Town Hall.

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Larry Swanger, Superintendent

Superintendent Swanger reported that the highway crew has patched roads and beavers have been flooding Wood Road; that problem is being taken care of. Most of the roads have been grated again and crusher run has been added. Because of the rain, the highway department is behind about a week; Superintendent intends to re-grate the roads. Most of a week was spent cleaning up after the wind storm. A few trees and three large limbs came down in the town, but most damage was found in Hillside where four big limbs came down. One huge limb was split; the highway crew will need to get help with the Village of Holley bucket truck to get it down. Tires picked up this year were not as many as in the past. They are piled behind the garage. The highway department dug three graves at Hillside last month. The old roller was junked at $252/ton, bringing in $2600 revenue for the town.

Superintendent Swanger reported turning on the water at Hillside and having to go into the Chapel basement to shut the faucet off to drain the lines. Superintendent reported urns in the basement that are rusted, cast iron; that at one time must have been in the cemetery but look like they were just thrown down there in a pile. Supervisor Moy felt they were salvageable and that the Town may be able to sell them.

Superintendent Swanger provided board members with photos of the urns. Councilman DeFilipps suggested the Town be careful with the urns and not clean them up; that they're worth hundreds of dollars. They're cast iron and probably have lead paint on them; let whoever buys them, do the cleaning. Supervisor Moy and Councilman DeFilipps will go to the Chapel and look. It was suggested Historian Ierlan put photos of urns on Craig's List to sell.

Superintendent Swanger reported trying to fix the fence at the Hibbard Road Cemetery but the bottoms broke off, so he took it down. The cast iron pieces are at the site in a pile. Superintendent reported that the Munger Road Cemetery fence is also falling down and suggested they all be removed.

Councilman DeFilipps complimented T.J. Foster on the nice job of cleaning the wood out of the cemetery. Discussion was held and town board members in agreement that when the highway department cuts a tree down in front of someone's house or property, the wood will be given to the property owner. If they don't want it, the highway crew will haul the wood back to the garage. When it has accumulated to a large pile, the town can bid it out.

CORRESPONDENCE

Independent Oil & gas Association of NY has sent correspondence regarding the prospects of natural gas development in New York State, promoting their trade.

New York State Real Property has sent notice of STAR exemption values for 2011-2012 school taxes; Basic STAR $30,000; Enhanced STAR $60,100.

The Orleans County Planning Department will host training workshops on June 29th at the Albion Middle School Auditorium. Supervisor Moy will attend the workshop entitled Locally Unwanted Land Uses.

A partial restitution payment of $190 has been received for the Munger Road Cemetery vandalism. Original amount due was $15,000; this person's balance due after this payment is $5,169.25. Supervisor acknowledged that the other person's restitution has been paid in full.

National Grid has sent an electronic copy of the proposed environmental management and construction for its transmission line reconstruction. If anyone is interested in viewing the plan, it is available at the Town Hall. Councilman Robinson reported seeing the three-legged towers being taken out; that they were originally purchased from Sears & Roebuck Co.

OLD BUSINESS

Supervisor Moy reported that all permits and approvals had been obtained for Water Improvement Benefit Area #10 when New York State determined that Upper Holley Road needs an archeological study. Supervisor explained that if any portion of the proposed project is determined to need the study, the entire waterline project (5.4 miles) needs to be done. Bids for the study obtained from Chatfield Engineers range from $7100 to $7800. This study can hold up progress of the project for an additional four weeks.

Historical Society President Jim Moore confirmed that the Society Board will review and rule on the proposed agreement with the town regarding historical property ownership, at tomorrow's meeting. President Moore sees no problem with the agreement and will report the CHS Board's decision at the next Town Board meeting.

Supervisor Moy informed Town Hall Roof Bids have been received and reported high-low bids as follows: For Asphalt Roof; low $11,150; high $27,500. For Metal Roof; low $12,750; high $30,550. Discussion was held and Supervisor asked board members for individual preference of roof material. Supervisor Moy and Councilman Nicosia were in favor of the metal roof reasoning it would last longer. Councilmen Campbell, DeFilipps and Robinson in favor of the asphalt roof reasoning it looks better. Supervisor Moy will contact the low bidder and arrange for color samples to be left at the Town Hall prior to the June meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

The Town Board amended the Fee Schedule to include the following under Planning Board Fees: Reclamation (fill) Application: $200 fee; This will include your site Plan review and necessary inspections by the Town of Clarendon Code Enforcement Officer. Reclamation (fill) Permit (for 180 days): $100 fee. Reclamation (fill) Permit (for period in addition to 180 days up to 365 days): $200 fee.

The Board adopted a Resolution declaring surplus equipment and designating disposition. See front page of this Gazette for Notice.

Discussion was held regarding the Stone Store Property and Town Board intent in July 2010 to demolish the building was reviewed. Supervisor Moy informed that some residents have approached him about the historical building. A public informational meeting was scheduled for July 19, 2011. See front page of this Gazette for Notice.

It was confirmed that the Town has not yet received a check from Hanson for the 10% due from 2010.

REMINDER: The June 21, 2011 Town Board meeting will begin at 1:00 PM at the Town Hall.
