GREETINGS FROM THE CLARENDON LIONS CLUB

It has been a busy time for our Club during the months of March and April. On March 13, our guest speaker was Mr. Chad DeRock, the head Varsity Football Coach at Holley Central School. Mr. DeRock gave us a great overview of the school's football program. He has brought the program back to life seeing that Holley has not had football since the fifties. Over the past several years, Mr. DeRock has produced several championship teams in the Genesee-Orleans League. Holley is currently building a new stadium and we wish him and his teams great success in the future. At the March 27 meeting we welcomed our Town Historian, Melissa Ierlan. Melissa gave us a brief overview of the historical stone store in the Clarendon Hamlet. The Town has a buyer and everything looks good to go except for some septic issues that need to be resolved with the County. Melissa also passed around photos of the store, past and present. Great job Melissa.

On April 10 our Club entertained the Greece Ridge Lions Club with a terrific pot-luck supper. After supper we played Trivia and Greece Ridge beat us with a score of seven to five. We will meet again and hopefully will beat them!

We would like to thank the public for your support of our pasta supper held on March 23 at the VFW in the Village of Holley. We cleared over $365.00 that will be used for donations to various charities over the coming months. We thank Lion Howard Cohen for chairing this event and everyone who helped. We hope to do it again next year.

Our next event will be the Geranium sale in front of the Historical Society building on the weekends of May 10 and 11 and May 17 and 18. Lion Carol Robishaw will again chair this event, as she has for many past years.

We have a full slate of fundraisers coming up this summer including the Murray-Holley June Fest, Point Breeze Concerts, Fishing Derby Contest at Point Breeze, Dog Show in Albion, Crosbys in Clarendon and Save-A-Lot in Holley. We will list dates as we get closer to these events.

The Clarendon Lions Club currently meets the second and fourth Wednesday each month at the Disciples UMC, 4410 Holley Byron Road (Route 237) in Clarendon at 7:00 PM. Pot luck supper starts at 6:30 PM. Stop by for a visit and if you are interested and need more information about the Lions Organization, please contact our Chairperson, Lion George Nolte at 638-6094.

HILL TALK

So what's happening? Have I lost the beat?

Is it an age thing? Has my understanding of what beautiful music is strayed so far in my senior years, that I can no longer recognize it? Could the very rhythm of my being and heart have changed to that extent? Popular music used to stir my soul so much that it put me into a wonderful dreamland far away from reality, but no longer.

I know that my ears are far from being the best receivers in the world, but even making allowances for that, something seems terribly wrong with most current music. It seems to be made up of chants with voices competing to screech the highest and loudest, half buried under an avalanche of pulsating beats! We used to call that kind of singing "catawaller" (not sure how to spell that!). It has me wondering if this type of music could affect society as a whole and in that way? After all, it is a long, long way from the Sound of Music or You are My Sunshine!

Now, I'm the first to admit that this kind of music gets your feet to "a tapping" but I have a fear about what will happen if my less than pristine heart synchronizes with that very loud beat and they suddenly change it in the middle of the song! If that happens, I hope they speed it up because at my age, slower is definitely not better!

During my grammar school years we had an eleven mile ride by bus from a rural area to our school. We were different back then and we must have had a very understanding bus driver because we sang our way back and forth. We knew all the songs of the day and boys and girls would sing them together. We never worried about being "cool". Strains of "I'm gonna buy a paper doll to call my own", "Down in the valley, valley so low" and "Mares e dotes and does e dotes and little lambs e ivy" were mixed with WWII songs like "One Meatball" or "Off We Go into the Wild Blue Yonder".

We did have Jitterbugging dances and the music to go along with them but they weren't the sing-a-long type of songs. The Andrew Sisters were the Jitterbug stars as they sang songs like the "Bugle Boy from Company C:"

Even my final repository of well-known music, the church, has been changing from familiar hymns such as "On A Hill Far Away" to repetitious chants without a discernible melody!

Now when we want music at home we turn to "Easy Listening" or horror of all horrors, to the music that we used to call "catawaller", country music! Even that has to be the older "She'll do you Wrong" type of songs as the new country music is also getting more and more chant-like.

What's to say? Am I joining that class of people that I remember as a child? Those old timers who shook their heads in dismay as they heard the music that was popular back then.

So what's happening? Have I lost the beat?

Hill Bill - May 2013

On April 6 and 7, 2013 the Disciples Methodist Church in Clarendon hosted a fund-raising event. Twenty-nine youth from Albion, Holley, Clarendon and Elba fasted for thirty hours to raise $900 for famine relief.

CHOCOLATE FOR A GOOD CAUSE

A delicious prized chocolate rooster recently raised $375 for Hospice of Orleans. The donor, who wishes to remain anonymous, brought the rooster and other chocolate delicacies wrapped neatly in a basket to the wonderful staff at Ronson's Auctions. The giant rooster basket was quite a unique item for the Ronson Spring Auction and both donor and auction house staff were pleased with the bidding. Once the announcement was made to the bidders that the proceeds would benefit Hospice of Orleans, the bidding started and went on until it ended at an astonishing $375! The Board and Staff of Hospice extend sincere gratitude to the donor and the winner for this very generous gift.

The 2012 deer harvest results are now available.

Hunters took approximately 243,000 deer (124,000 antlerless deer and 119,000 adult bucks) during the 2012-13 hunting seasons, about 6 percent more than were taken the previous year. Increases were most pronounced in the Northern Zone where total take (30,840) increased 15 percent from 2011. In the Southern Zone, the adult buck take (about 98,570) increased 6 percent and the antlerless take (110,900) increased 5 percent from 2011. The 2012 harvest reflects deer populations that are greater than desired levels in many parts of New York. Increased take of antlerless deer will be necessary in 2013.

TAPS

We in the United States have all heard the haunting song, 'Taps.' It's the song that gives us the lump in our throats and usually tears in our eyes. But, do you know the story behind the song? If not, I think you will be interested to find out about its humble beginnings.

Reportedly, it all began in 1862 during the Civil War, when Union Army Captain Robert Ellicombe was with his men near Harrison's Landing in Virginia. The Confederate Army was on the other side of the narrow strip of land. During the night, Captain Ellicombe heard the moans of a soldier who lay severely wounded on the field. Not knowing if it was a Union or Confederate soldier, the Captain decided to risk his life and bring the stricken man back for medical attention. Crawling on his stomach through the gunfire, the Captain reached the stricken soldier and began pulling him toward his encampment. When the Captain finally reached his own lines, he discovered it was actually a Confederate soldier, but the soldier was dead. The Captain lit a lantern and suddenly caught his breath and went numb with shock. In the dim light, he saw the face of the soldier. It was his own son. The boy had been studying music in the South when the war broke out. Without telling his father, the boy enlisted in the Confederate Army. The following morning, heartbroken, the father asked permission of his superiors to give his son a full military burial, despite his enemy status. His request was only partially granted. The Captain had asked if he could have a group of Army band members play a funeral dirge for his son at the funeral. The request was turned down since the soldier was a Confederate. But, out of respect for the father, they did say they could give him only one musician. The Captain chose a bugler. He asked the bugler to play a series of musical notes he had found on a piece of paper in the pocket of the dead youth's uniform. This wish was granted. The haunting melody, we now know as 'Taps' used at military funerals was born. The words are: Day is done. Gone the sun. From the lakes From the hills. From the sky. All is well. Safely rest. God is nigh. Fading light. Dims the sight. And a star. Gems the sky. Gleaming bright. From afar. Drawing nigh. Falls the night. Thanks and praise. For our days. Neath the sun Neath the stars. Neath the sky As we go. This we know. God is nigh.

Bob Woodworth shown above at 16 years of age, served with the K Company, 3rd BN, 21st Regiment NYS Guard. This photo is at the Culver Road Armory. Bob joined the military at 14 years old. The legal age was 17, but his buddy's brother-in-law was a Lieutenant and signed them both up! Robert E. Woodworth, more commonly known as Bob or 'Rotten Robert!' was born on December 12, 1931 and passed away on January 22, 2009. All funeral services were held at the Clarendon Firemen's Recreation Hall on Sat., 1/24/2009. The 400 maximum capacity building was full of people there to pay respects to Bob. At the end of the service, a last call for Rotten Robert Woodworth was heard and tones went off leaving the rec hall in a state of emotional silence while bag pipes were heard playing Amazing Grace.

REGARDING GRIEVANCE PROCESS

The Grievance Board and Assessor have no control over taxes. Although the Grievance Board and Assessor sympathize with complaints about taxes and are taxpayers as well, the purpose of the Grievance Process is to determine whether your property is assessed at Market Value. The Most important Question to ask yourself before you Grieve:

Would you sell your property for less than the Assessed Value?

If your answer is YES, then you may want to get a Market Analysis of your property by a Certified NYS Appraiser showing properties within the Town of Clarendon only of like size, quality and age and submit that appraisal with your application to the Grievance Board. (Bank appraisals don't necessarily reflect market value, only the bank's interest). You can also do a market study on your own by finding like properties within the Town of Clarendon, similar to what the appraiser would prepare. If you do a study on your own and discover that your property is out of line with like properties in the Town of Clarendon, submit that information with your Grievance forms to be presented at the hearing. The Assessor will submit all applications and supporting documents to the Grievance Board for the hearing. The Assessor also does market studies and will submit those findings for the hearing as well. The Assessor will assign a time slot for your Hearing with the Grievance Board. Hearings are generally 15 minutes in length. All market studies must be done within the Town of Clarendon as each Town has its own unique market. Clarendon has a very active market and provides enough sales to prepare a fair study.

If your answer is NO to the question of whether or not you would sell your property for less than assessed value, then there is no Grievance. Again, taxes are not addressed at Grievance, the Grievance Board and the Assessor have no control over the taxes and that is not the purpose of Grievance. Grievance Day is May 28 from 10am – 2pm and from 4pm – 8pm. Grievance packets are available from the Assessor beginning May 1. Forms should be returned to the Assessor prior the hearing date to insure that the process is not held up for preparation of the applications. The Assessor will prepare packets for the Grievance Board and assign time slots.

Time slots will be assigned when the forms are returned in the interest of fairness to all wishing to participate. See page 1 of this Gazette for Assessor hours.

The Holley Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society welcomed 41 new inductees recently.

FORTY-ONE HOLLEY STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

Forty-one Holley Middle School students were inducted into the National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) during a ceremony in the Holley High School auditorium on March 28. Students are eligible for induction if they have cumulative average of 90 percent or higher. Each year, the Faculty Council selects inductees from that group based on five National Junior Honor Society qualities: character, citizenship, leadership, scholarship and service.

After entering the auditorium during the candle ceremony, each current NJHS member went into the audience to tap the new inductees and bring them onstage for the induction ceremony. Students currently serving as NJHS officers assisted faculty adviser Kelly Evans-Marzano during the ceremony, including: Amber Becker, president; Jared Scherer, vice president; Jessica Mandigo, secretary; and Mikayla Hargreaves, treasurer.

Holley Middle School/High School Principal Susan Cory presented the new inductees with certificates and congratulated them individually on their accomplishment. Francis Gaylord, Holley transportation director and Orleans County deputy fire coordinator, was the featured speaker for the event. Gaylord urged the students to continue to work hard in school to achieve high grades. He also told them to look for opportunities to serve their communities, pointing out that he has developed many lifelong friendships due to his association with the fire service.

Students newly inducted into the National Junior Honor Society include: ninth grader Randi Gergley; eighth graders Andie Carpenter, Hannah Ellsmore, Ashlyn Hotchkiss, Corinne Johnson, Rebecca Kinsey, Derek McArthur, Katie Morgan, Collin Nothnagle, Collin Papaj and Bailey Schubmehl; and seventh graders Liam Anderson, Jesse Beach, Patrick Bower, Crystal Cabic, Matthew DeSimone, Nina DiLella, Brandon Dillenbeck, Jacob Downey, Luca Fahmer, Alexis Gamble, Alassia GianCursio, Allison Howard, Kelsie Johnstone, Emma Kennedy, Ava Kohut, Samuel Lammes, Alexander Lane, Dalton Major, Hunter McMillion, Alexis Milazzo, Madison Papaj, Michael Passarel, Kamryn Penna, Jessica Sedore, Corrine Spsychalski, Dakota Thompson, Dalton Thurley, Nathan Towne, Hanna Waterman and Alexis Younes.

HOLLEY BOARD OF EDUCATION ADOPTS 2013-2014 BUDGET

During its April 23 board meeting, the Holley Board of Education adopted a $22,976,429 budget for the 2013-2014 school year. If approved, the plan will result in a two percent tax levy increase.

The district received an additional $702,000 in state aid and did not have to make any cuts to staffing or programs. Items that were added to the budget include two teaching positions, an athletic trainer, a golf team, and upgrades to the Middle School/High School music room.

“The Board of Education has worked hard with our administrators to build a budget that meets students’ needs while also staying at the two percent cap. We have accomplished this task,” said John Heise, board president. “We are happy to have been able to include a number of items in the budget that will improve opportunities for our students.”

When Holley residents go to the polls on May 21, they also will be asked to vote on three additional propositions. The first is for the purchase of two full-size school buses, two 22-passenger buses, and one nine-passenger vehicle at a cost not to exceed $372,136. The second allows the district to maintain a seven-member Board of Education rather than reducing to five members as authorized by voters on May 15, 2012. The third authorizes the district to raise $102,652 to be used in support of maintenance and operations of the Community Free Library.

In addition, residents will be voting on one Board of Education seat. The three-year terms of office of current board members John Heise, Dorothy Morgan and Brenda Swanger expire on June 30, 2013. In accordance with a proposition adopted by voters on May 15, 2012, the board is being reduced from nine to seven members effective July 1, 2013. As a result of this reduction in membership, two positions on the board are being eliminated as of July 1, 2013, leaving only one vacancy to be filled at this year’s election. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be elected to a three-year term of office expiring June 30, 2016.

Additional budget information will be available soon and will be communicated on the district website at www.holleycsd.org/budget, through Facebook, and in the budget newsletter mailed to residents in mid-May.

GREETINGS to all of you who have the courage to read this article. Since last month I've gotten a year older, so I'm writing slower! Did you ever wonder why sheep don't shrink when it rains? Why didn't Noah swat those two mosquitoes?

There was a bagpiper who was asked to play at a graveside service for a homeless man. He had no family or friends, so the service was to be at a paupers' cemetery in the back country. He was not familiar with the back country. He got lost and being a typical man, he didn't stop for directions. Finally arriving an hour late he saw the funeral director had evidently gone and the hearse was nowhere in sight. There were only the diggers and crew left and they were eating lunch. He felt bad and apologized for being late. He went to the side of the grave and looked down and the vault lid was already in place. He didn't know what else to do, so he started to play. The workers put down their lunches and began to gather around. He played his heart out for this man who had no family or friends. He played like he never had before for the homeless man and as he played Amazing Grace, the workers began to weep and he began to weep. They all wept. When he finished, he packed up his bagpipe and started for his car and though his head hung low, his heart was full and satisfied of the job he had done. As he opened the door to his car, he heard one of the workers say, "I never seen anything like that before, and I've been putting in septic tanks for twenty years!"

Some strange signs: On a repair shop door – We can repair anything. Please knock hard on the door. The bell doesn't work. Outside a second-hand shop – We exchange anything, bicycles, washing machines, etc, etc, etc. Bring your wife along and get a wonderful bargain. Last one – This toilet is out of order. Please use floor below.

I'm afraid old age is like happy hour. You get discounts on tons of stuff but it's over much too soon. When I was younger I could remember anything whether it happened or not. I've never understood why women love cats. Cats are independent. They don't listen. They don't come in when you call. They like to stay out all night, and when they're home they like to be left along and sleep. In other words, every quality women hate in a man, they love in a cat.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. What is another name for stable thinking?
2. Why does a dishonest man stay indoors?
3. Why can a thief be said to be broadminded?
4. How do telephone operators talk?
5. What do you get when you put a witch in the refrigerator?

In politics, an absurdity is not a handicap. Did you hear about the glass blower who inhaled and got a pane in his stomach? Some minds are like concrete, thoroughly mixed up and permanently set. I always hated it at weddings when someone would poke me and say "you're next." They stopped doing it when I started doing it to them at funerals. One Liners: I couldn't repair your brakes so I made your horn louder. I just got lost in thought. It was unfamiliar territory.

Depression is merely anger without enthusiasm. Ok, so what's the speed of dark?

A man walks into a bar obviously quite drunk and asks for a drink. "Sorry" said Tammy the bartender, "but you obviously already had too much to drink." Fuming mad the drunk walks out the front door, walks around and goes into the side door. "Can I have a drink." "Sorry" says Tammy, "but you can't have a drink here." The drunk walks out very upset, walks around and goes in through the back door. He asks "Can I please get a drink?" The bartender screams "You can't have any drinks here." The drunk looks at Tammy closely and exclaims, "Darn, how many bars do you work at?" Immature is a word boring people use to describe fun people. When I was born, I was so surprised I didn't talk for a year and a half. If stress burned calories, I'd be a supermodel.

By Rosa Nelle Anderson

Thank you for the breeze that blows
And for the golden wheat that grows
For each and every flowers' birth
For all the good things on this earth.

Thank you for the wind's refrain
To the splatter of needed rain.

Thank you for your silent voice
That always makes our hearts rejoice.

Thank you for the gift of friends
And for your love that never ends.

Thank you Lord for being here
To wipe away each helpless tear.

Thank you for our nightly dreams
For all the stars and soft moonbeams

Thank you Lord you're always there
To listen to our humble prayers.

That's it for this time. Hope everyone has a great month. Adios and God Bless.

JUST FOR LAUGHS

A couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a checkup, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember. Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks. 'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?' 'Sure.' 'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks. 'No, I can remember it.' 'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?' He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries.' 'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks. (Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!') Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, the old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment. 'Where's my toast?'
