Dear Voters,

On May 20th when Holley residents are voting on the School Budget we ask you, once again, to please continue to show your support for the Holley Community Free Library.

As in previous years the library has experienced a significant decrease in State and County funding; surrounding towns and villages have also cut library funding from their budgets. Despite these decreases we, as a board, work diligently to provide revenue by means of grants, donations and fund raising activities in an effort to continue providing quality programs and expanding collections and services. The Board of Trustees and the Library Director have worked hard to keep the budget increase this year at 2%. This effort allows the library to maintain its present hours and services without putting an undue burden on the taxpayer.

The Community Free Library provides a variety of excellent services to the community. At the library, patrons may check out books, magazines, audio books and e-readers. They may relax with a newspaper to keep up with current events or participate in the various programs we offer such as the visiting authors program. Children's programs are offered throughout the year and include a weekly story hour, the Summer Reading program, hosting walking field trips from the Elementary School and working with the High School to enhance and advance their programs. Staff are always on hand to assist students with research for school assignments. Special events are offered during school breaks and the Adult Readers Group meets monthly.

Computers with internet access are available to utilize for job search, research or simply to check e-mail and keep in touch with family and friends.

Throughout the year, and in cooperation with the NIOGA library system, training classes for the use of various software programs are offered to the public. Photocopying, faxing, inter-library loans, tax forms and meeting rooms are all available to the community.

If you haven't stopped in lately we hope you will visit soon. On May 20th remember to vote on Proposition #3 - the library needs your continued support to maintain its high level of service to the community.

Sincerely,
The Holley Community

Yin and Yang

The same experience seen from different points of view can seem as dramatically different as the proverbial Yin and Yang.

It all started innocently enough when I purchased a book at a yard sale called “How To Fix a Volkswagen for Idiots.” At that time I didn’t own a VW but had been interested in them ever since a neighbor imported one of the first ones into the US. He touted the fact that, if needed, the engine could be removed and repaired on the kitchen table. That experience and the book renewed my interest and stimulated me to actively search out a fixer-upper which, once repaired, would provide my oldest son an economical vehicle without laying out a lot of cash.

Shortly after that, a few miles from our home, a Volkswagen was offered for sale. It didn’t run, wasn’t registered, had no lights or brakes, but was otherwise intact. I decided to buy it and see if that book was true without completely accepting the Idiot title. Solving the problem of getting it home seemed easy enough at first. I would tow it with our Ford van while my wife Jan steered the VW. The lack of brakes would be overcome by keeping the car in gear, pressing in the clutch and letting it out and using the motor drag to slow the vehicle down.

I’ve never been a patient man so even though it was late evening and the car didn’t have working lights; I decided to take it home right then. That trip home was viewed so differently by me doing the towing and by Jan, the one being towed, that I must give the two perspectives separately.

My point of view was:

I wanted to get home before any cars came up from behind us because I had to make a left turn into my driveway without directional lights. I drove at what I thought was a reasonable speed while keeping a wary eye out for car lights coming up from behind. About a mile from home I saw headlights in the rearview mirror approaching fairly fast. It’s possible that I might have speeded up a little to get into the driveway before that car reached us.

When I finally turned into the yard, I felt a sharp jolt as the towline parted. I stopped, got out of the van and looked back. The VW had partially climbed a small scotch pine bordering the drive. The driver’s door opened and out climbed a very angry redhead. I tried to find out what had happened but couldn’t get a word in edgewise as she tore into me in a very unreasonable manner and stormed into the house.

Her point of view was:

As soon as we started out I realized that I couldn’t see anything but the back end of the van because the towline was too short and he was driving like a maniac. I was petrified from being pulled at such a high speed while I tried to steer. Instead of it becoming easier as we went along, Bill was speeding up—going faster and faster! I had no way of signaling him but had to tough it out as best I could while trying to stay in the middle of those taillights. It was one of the most terrifying rides of my life!

The van suddenly turned left and we were in our driveway. I couldn’t possibly stop in time. It was smash into the van, run into the garage, or hit one of the softer looking small scotch pines that lined the drive. I chose the pines but didn’t expect to climb up one.

When I collected my wits and got out of the car, Bill was angrily questioning me about why I had snapped the towline and hit the tree. I felt my face flush and heart pound in anger but I still answered him in a very ladylike and reasonable way before quickly going inside.

I guess that is a perfect example of Yin and Yang.

HILL BILL

 Kingdom Under Glass

In this epic account of an extraordinary life lived during remarkable times, Jay Kirk follows the adventures of legendary explorer and taxidermist Carl Akeley, who revolutionized taxidermy and environmental conservation and created the famed African Hall at New York's Museum of Natural History. Akeley risked death time and again in the jungles of Africa as he stalked animals for his dioramas and hobnobbed with outsized personalities of the era, such as Theodore Roosevelt and P. T. Barnum. Kingdom Under Glass is "a rollicking biography...an epic adventure...[and] a beguiling novelistic portrait of a man and an era straining to hear the call of the wild" (Publishers Weekly).

Holley boys' varsity baseball team plays at Ripken Experience Field in Myrtle Beach

Holley Central's varsity boys' baseball team, led by Coach Jason Cole, traveled to Myrtle Beach, SC April 14-17 to play three scrimmages and one game at the Ripken Experience Field. This state-of-the-art baseball field and facility was developed by major league player Cal Ripken and his brother and is designed for use by high school and college teams throughout the year. The Holley team practiced several times on the multi-million dollar field and played against Greece Odyssey, taking a 4-1 loss.

"This is a great experience for our athletes," said Cole. "The facility is impressive and the opportunity to play out of state in a facility like this is something that inspires students and is an experience they will always remember." This is the seventh year that the team has traveled to the Ripken Experience Field. Next, they travel to Cooperstown, NY – home of the Baseball Hall of Fame — where they will play a team from Alexander Central School on Saturday, May 3 on Double Day Field.

The team holds several fundraisers throughout the year to cover the cost of travel, ranging from concessions at music and dance events to a dodgeball tournament. The team also sells discount cards thanks to generous support from area businesses.

HOLLEY MUSIC STUDENTS EARN HIGH HONORS AT MYRTLE BEACH MUSIC FESTIVAL

Ninety-one Holley High School band and chorus students participated in the Heritage Music Festival, April 3-6, in Myrtle Beach, SC and earned high honors in competitions involving schools from across the country. This is the second time Holley students competed in the event, competing two years ago in Baltimore, MD.

Holley's concert band, led by teacher Dan Wakefield, increased its score over the last competition by four points winning silver, one point shy of gold. Holley's concert choir and women's choir, under the direction of teacher Kelly Marzano, both earned a gold rating, and the Holley choral group was awarded trophies for Outstanding Choral Group and the Sweepstakes Award.

Special recognition was given to Holley senior Ben Rowley who received the Ovation Award. This award is selected by adjudicators and festival coordinators after reading the nominations from all schools. This award recognizes a student whose contribution to the music program transcends the making of music, and represents the spirit of determination, inspiration and service to others.

In addition, the Holley Central School District Music Program was given the Spirit of Myrtle Beach Award. This prestigious award is given to the group that shows true sportsmanship, gratitude and positivity in their actions at hotels, activities and the performing venue.

"This award is a testament to the character of our students who acted as a shining example as representatives of their school, district, city and state," said MS/HS Principal Susan Cory.

The Holley music department plans to participate in the 2016 Heritage Music Festival.

Historic moment - Holley to host first home track in decades

The new track and stadium complex at the Holley Middle School/High School will be the site of the first home track meet that Holley has hosted in decades. The meet will take place on Wednesday, April 23 at 4:15 p.m. and will include teams from Attica, Byron-Bergen/Elba. Everyone is welcome to attend, cheer on our Holley Hawks and enjoy this special occasion.

Between 1975 and 1997, Holley did not have a track team but one began in 1998 with teacher Dan Goodwin as coach. Under his guidance, Holley quickly built a competitive team that produced several league all-stars and sectional champions. In just a few years the Holley Hawks uniform was proudly on display at the New York State championship meet with Ariana Cuadrado placing 2nd in the Long Jump. The last six years Coach Goodwin has been working alongside Head Coach Art Goldstein. Over this time the boys and girls have developed competitive teams which include several years finishing 7-2. A number of athletes have been recognized as Genesee Region All-Stars including Cadizsh Norford, James Williams, Andrew Heath, Kristina Martin, David Smith, Martin Beadle and Julie Brooks. Julie Brooks has competed twice at the State Meet twice for high jump.

In addition to the meet on April 23rd, this year's Holley team, which includes over 50 varsity track and field athletes, will compete against Pembroke on Wednesday, May 7 and Wheatland-Chili and Kendall on Monday, May 12. Holley will also be hosting the Varsity B Championship on Monday, May 19.

THANK YOU!

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

GREETINGS EVERYONE: Well, do to circumstances beyond my control, here is another page of all sorts of nonsense you have to put up with! An old man lay sprawled across three entire seats in the movie theater when the usher came by and noticed this. He whispered to the old man, "Sorry sir, but you're only allowed one seat." The old man didn't budget. The usher became more impatient. "Sir, if you don't get up from there I'm going to have to call the manager.: Once again, the old man just muttered and did nothing. The usher marched back up the aisle and in a moment, returned with the manager. Together to two of them tried repeatedly to move the old disheveled man, but with no success. Finally they summoned the police. The officer surveyed the situation briefly then asked, "All right buddy, what's your name?" "Tom" the old man moaned. "Where you from Tom?" asked the police officer. With a terrible grunt in his voice and without moving Tom replied, "The balcony." George Washington Carver wrote: How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong because someday in your life you will have been all of these. I had a mind once but I kept giving people pieces of it and now it's all gone! I'd do anything to lose weight except eat healthy and exercise.

Here's some things old people say: When I was your age, the house we lived in was so small that the front and back doors were on the same hinge! I'm not yelling at you. I'm helping you to hear. If you don't use your head, might as well have feet at both ends. Think of how foolish the average person is and then realize that half of them are more foolish than that. If the shoe fits, get another one just like it. The only substitute for good manners is fast reflexes. A hillbilly walked into an auto parts store and said, "I'll take a set of wiper blades for my pick up truck." The salesman glanced outside at the truck and said, "Sounds like a fair trade." A shotgun wedding is a case of wife or death. My grandmother is over eighty and still doesn't need glasses. Drinks right out of the bottle.

This Month's Riddles

1. Why did the man start going to the gym?
2. Why didn't the omelet laugh?
3. What do grizzly detectives look for?
4. What do all boxers have in common?
5. If you woke up in the night feeling sad, what would you do?

Did you hear about the glass blower who inhaled and got a pane in his stomach? Bruce Dern said: You know what the greatest remedy on earth is today? It's not a pill. It's not a shot. It's a hug. I agree. It's called celery because cold wet plant bones takes too long. A lion comes across two men, one reading and the other writing. The lion pounces on and devours the reader, but ignores the writer. Why? Because as everyone knows, a writer cramps while a reader digests. While going through his deceased father's things, a man finds a twenty-five year old claim check for a shoe repair. Curious, he goes to the store and hands the owner the ticket. The owner goes to the back and then reappears. "Good news" he says, "they'll be ready next Friday." Strange but true – A group of accountants is called a balance. A group of librarians is called a shush. A group of dentists is called a wince. A group of bowlers is called a keg. A group of creditors is called a curse. "Mom, Dad, sit down. I have something very important to tell you" said Denise upon her return home from college after graduation. "I met a guy who lives near the college that I really like and we decided we are going to get married." "Oh Denise, I'm so happy for you" gushed her mom, giving her a big hug. "I hope you two will be really happy together, I can't wait to meet him." "Tell us more about him" said her dad. "Does he have any money?" "Oh Dad, is that all you men ever think about? That was the first question he asked me about you!" A man walks up to a very beautiful woman in a large supermarket and said, "I've lost my wife here in the supermarket. Can you talk to me for a couple minutes?" The woman looking puzzled asks "Why do you want to talk to me?" "Because every time I talk to a beautiful woman like you, my wife appears out of nowhere."

Women spend more time thinking about what men think than men actually spend thinking. Most people believe that if it isn't broke, don't fix it. Engineers believe that if it isn't broke, it doesn't have enough features yet. A successful politician is one who can get in the public eye without irritating it. The reason politicians make strange bedfellows is because they all like the same bunk. Matrimony is a process by which a grocer acquires an account the florist had. A man never knows a woman has any old clothes until he marries her. A boss told his new secretary "Always add a column of figures at least three times before you show me the result. The next day she came in with a broad smile. "Mr. Johnson" she said, "I added these figures ten times. "Good" he said. "I like a girl to be thorough." "And here" she said, "are my ten answers." Bald man (in Barber's shop): Is this bottle of hair restorer any good? Barber: Any good? We had one customer who pulled the cork out with his teeth, next day he had a handlebar mustache. Sentry: Halt who's there? Voice: American. Sentry: Advance and recite the second verse of the Star Spangled Banner. Voice: I don't know it. Sentry: Proceed American.

A man died and went to The Judgment. They told him, "Before you meet with God I should tell you, we've looked over your life and to be honest, you really didn't do anything particularly good or bad. We're not really sure what to do with you. Can you tell us anything you did that can help us make a decision?" The newly arrived soul thought for a moment and replied, "Yeah, once I was driving along and came upon a person who was being harassed by a group of thugs. So I pulled over, got out a bat and went up to the leader of the thugs. He was a big, muscular guy with a ring pierced through his lip. Well, I tore the ring out of his lip and told him he and his gang had better stop bothering this guy or they would have to deal with me." "Wow that's impressive, "When did this happen?" "About three minutes ago" came the reply.

Never entrust your life to a surgeon with more than three plasters on his fingers. Never trust a taxi driver who drives down a side street every time he sees a police car.

FIGHT WITH STRENGTH & HOPE

By Dolores Karides

Worries come in many forms
And heartbreak follows woe
But put them in the hands of God
For his blessings to bestow.
He heals the sick and reaches out
To soothe the troubled soul.
He helps you find the way to go
To reach your chosen goal.
Remember you can't always win
The daily trials you face,
But you can fight with strength and hope
When you invoke God's Grace.

That's it for this time. Adios and God Bless,

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

APRIL 2014

Highway Superintendent Swanger was absent from the meeting for attendance at the annual Water Conference Training.

PLANNING BOARD REPORT –

David R. Griggs, Chairman

Chairman Griggs submitted the following written report:

03-25-2014 (regular Meeting) - No action items

04-08-2014 (regular Meeting)

- The Planning Board held a pre-conference for two (2) each, one (1) lot subdivisions for property merger, SD-14-07 Kevin Lewis, 16179 New Guinea Road, SD-14-08 Louis Holley, 16175 New Guinea Road. Each divided parcel is proposed to be merged with existing remaining parcels of subdividers. No issues were noted with the proposal. Applicants had each requested in writing to waive the pre-conference. A motion was made, seconded and approved to amend the agenda from a pre-conference to a formal application for both applications. A motion was made, seconded and approved to approve both of the one (1) lot subdivisions contingent upon deeds being filed with the county and verification that each parcel had been merged with existing parcels as presented.

ATTORNEY REPORT –

David C. Schubel, Attorney

Attorney Schubel reported being in contact with Attorney Jeff Martin in regard to the Brown Schoolhouse Road property being researched for ownership. Attorney Schubel is hoping for additional information to report by the May meeting.

CLARENDON HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT –

Melissa Ierlan, President

President Ierlan submitted the following written report:

Our first meeting will be on Wed., April 16th. We have done a mailing to all our members and asked them to renew their membership. We are hoping for a good turn-out to our first meeting of the season. There were some issues at the historical property just recently. It appears as though a tree branch came down on one of the old farm implements. Not sure if it was damaged or just knocked over. We have had our gutter on the school house come off and currently it is hanging. The wood has rotted and it gave way most likely when the winds were high. Tim Gregoire came and looked at it, he had some opinions and in his estimation there is some work to be done there.

The sump pump quit in the school house basement and there was about four inches of water in the basement. Not sure how long it was there. A spare pump was hooked up and the basement has no water, the floor is still very damp and needs some air. The water meter inside the building must have had some water left inside of it when the water was turned off and it froze and blew out the meter. Larry Swanger is aware and most likely we will be buying a new meter. Some folks are still in Florida and probably won't be back until our second meeting. That's all for now. Melissa.

Vice-President Jim Moore reported that this was a very hard winter and there was a freeze in the basement of the museum, which broke the seal in the water meter. On the back of the building, eaves in the roof are pulled down. Tomorrow's CHS meeting has been moved from the Museum site to the Town Hall; at 7:00 PM.

HOW I LEARNED TO MIND MY OWN BUSINESS:

I was walking past the mental hospital the other day, and all the patients were shouting, "13... 13... 13." The fence was too high to see over, but I saw a little gap in the planks, so I looked through to see what was going on. Some idiot poked me in the eye with a stick, then they Started shouting, "14... 14... 14."
