Taylor Road from Bennetts Corners Road to the County Line has been paved and the Bennetts Corners Road from Route 31A to the Taylor Road has been paved. SD 15-07 Pre Conference for 1 lot subdivision tax id# 97.-1-53.1 George Mathes East Lee Road. A pictometry map has been provided to show the lot and locations of existing buildings. The county is reviewing Ag districts and may be combining the three county districts into one. Some discussion about removing the parcel from the Ag district at that time to avoid lateral restrictions etc. To be determined. Additional information is needed to finalize application. This application will be carried on the next agenda and remain in a pre-conference stage until more information and a licensed survey map is provided.

Regular Meeting August 11, 2015

Cancelled due to lack of sufficient agenda items.

CORRESPONDENCE

Orleans County Board of Elections sent notice of election dates. (See notice on front page of this Gazette). Membership dues for 2016 New York State Association of Towns is $999. NYS Office of Real Property has sent notice of Town's Final Equalization Rate for 2015 Assessment Roll at 100%. Partial payments have been received for the cemetery vandalism restitution and court loss restitution. Hindsburg Road resident Eric Bradshaw has submitted a letter of application for the Planning Board. The Town has received $800 in revenues from the Traffic Diversion Program for April through June 2015.

OLD BUSINESS

Supervisor reported that when the Water Improvement Benefit Area No. 11 main is installed on Glidden, Hinds and South Holley Road, the contractor will install the taps there; Glidden has been tested and approved. The Town Board authorized Chatfield Engineers to prepare a map, plan and report for proposed Water District No. 9 extension at a cost of $1600, subject to permissive referendum (to replace private line on Route 237) and adopted an order to hold a public hearing for formation of WD #9 extension on September 18th at 7pm providing no petition is filed regarding the engineering report expense.

Supervisor spoke with an engineer at the Orleans County Fair regarding solar power. Laws have changed since the first presentation to the town regarding solar and the town can now put in any size system desired, not just sufficient enough to handle government electric needs (for citizens too). Supervisor will research this more in depth for next month's meeting.

The Board adopted a SEQR Resolution declaring the proposed zoning text amendments will not have significant adverse environmental impacts. The proposed amendments will go to the County Planning Board for review.

NEW BUSINESS

The Board adopted a SEQRA Resolution and a Bond Resolution (subject to permissive referendum) relating to the town's purchase of a truck with plow/sanding equipment.

Workshop meetings for the 2016 Budget were scheduled; September 21st at 9AM and if needed, September 22nd at 9AM.

Hillside Cemetery Rules and Regulations were amended to require bodies left in the vault during the winter to be removed and interred or cremated by May 15th.

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

GREETINGS EVERYONE. Well, another month has come and gone, so here I am again to pass on some intellectual nonsense that I hope will bring a smile or two to all of you faithful readers! My friend Tom opened the morning newspaper and was dumbfounded to read in the obituary column that he had died. He quickly picked up the phone and called me. "Did you see the paper?" asked Tom. "They said I died." "Yes I saw it. Where are you calling from?" Remember none of us is as smart as all of us. And even if you fall on your face, you're still moving forward. Don't cry over spilled milk, but a fallen scoop of ice cream is enough to ruin my whole day. Crazy stuff old people say: "For a fleeting moment there, I thought you were talking sense. It must be time to up my medication. "Why don't you try agreeing with me? For once in your life you might find out what it feels like to be right. Football's a contact sport, son, so sure you're going to get kicked from time to time. If you want something less physical, take up knitting. Son, the last thing I want to do is hurt you, but it's still on the list. Have I ever tried bondage? Heck no, apart from the time my pajama cord got accidently wrapped around the bedpost. The only reason I wear glasses is for little things, like driving my car or finding it.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. I Multiply but never breed, live on air but never breathe. Devour much, but never eat. I'm often measured by my heat. What am I?
2. Why do rabbits hate Elmer Fudd?
3. What dance do opticians attend?
4. What do you call an unemployed jester?
5. What do you call a tired gardener?

What do you mean, I don't express emotions? I told you I loved you forty years ago and if anything changes, I'll let you know. Conversation between Adam and Eve must have been difficult at times. They had nobody to talk about. A man asked his doctor, "Do you think raw oysters are healthy?" "Well" he replied, "I've never known one to complain."

*Walking into the bar Greg said to the bartender, "Pour me a stiff one. Just had another fight with the little woman." "Oh yeah" said the bartender, "and how did this one end?" "When it was over" Greg replied "she came to me on her hands and knees." "Really" said the bartender. "Now that's a switch. What did she say?" "She said, come out from under the bed you chicken." When I saw an elderly woman struggling to get her walker out of the car I jumped into action. I grabbed the walker by the handles and tussled with it 'til it came out. Then I opened the collapsed legs, put them in the locked position and placed the walker in front of her. Viola! "Thank you" she said, "but I was trying to put it into the car." I couldn't understand why my son was so outraged by his friend drinking out of our garden hose. "What's the big deal?" I asked. "Mom" he moaned, "He puts his mouth on it. It's disgusting." "But why do you care so much?" "Because I drink out of that hose." After an impromptu song, our pastor asked the church pianist "What key did I sing that in?" The pianist replied, "Most of them." *A smile is the shortest distance between two people.

A Good Samaritan noticed an elderly man being robbed so he jumped in and punched the thief. The thief was so upset, he called the police to complain. One moonlight night after a prom dance, a young man begged to drive a beautiful young girl home. She accepted and got in his little roadster. As they were driving along, he sighed deeply. "You're beautiful" he murmured audibly. "That golden hair." "Thank you" she answered. "And your big blue eyes; they're beautiful too!" "Thank you." "And your lips and pearly teeth." She thanked him again. As they rode along he continued to shower her with compliments but she remained silent. Suddenly she spoke. "Can you drive with one hand?" she asked softly. "Sure" he quickly replied, hopefully. "Well" she suggested, "wipe your nose, it's running. " A man knocked on our door and asked for a donation toward the local swimming pool. So, I gave him a glass of water. A minister bought a lawnmower at a yard sale, but returned it a few days later complaining that it wouldn't run. "It'll run" said the man who had the sale. "But you have to curse at it to get it started." "I have not uttered a curse in thirty years." The minister was shocked. "Just keep pulling on the starter rope. The words will come back to you." Wandering inside a pet store I stopped in front of a birdcage to admire a Parakeet. We watched each other for a few minutes before it asked, "Can't you talk?" After finishing their Chinese supper a husband and wife cracked open their fortune cookies. Hers read, "Be quiet for a little while." His read, "Talk while you have a chance." Two old farmers liked to complain to each other about the weather and conditions on their farms. "Never did see hay grow so short as mine this year" sighed one. "You think yours is short" scoffed the other, "I had to lather mine to mow it." He wrecked his car, he lost his job and yet throughout his life he took his troubles like a man. He blamed them on his wife.

*Age cannot be counted by the years a person lives
But by the hope within his heart and all the love he gives
How young you are does not depend upon your date of birth
How old you are, not measured by your time upon this earth
But if your heart is full of dreams and if you are among those with eagerness for life, then you are truly young.
But if you see no beauty in all that you behold
And care not for your fellowman, then you are truly old.*

*Well Ladies and Gentlemen, that's it for this time.
Have a great month. Adios and God Bless,
Geary (Moose) Shenck*

Rural Community in Western New York Hosts Growing Canadian Cluster of Businesses

BUFFALO NIAGARA ENTERPRISE

Access US—August 2015

Canadian companies are setting their sights on Buffalo and Niagara Falls to create U.S.-based locations that are close in proximity to their home operations. Canadian businesses expanding into surrounding New York counties are proving to be interested in more rural communities such as Orleans County, New York; this is due to an abundance of prime land and affordable building inventory, an industrious workforce and convenient access to the entire Northeast corridor.

One of those that came and stayed is Hinspergers Poly Industries Ltd., a Canadian manufacturer of seasonal and solar pool covers, opened in 2002 in Medina, New York and has remained a consistent supporter of Orleans County. General Manager, Greg Budd, notes that the company's 83,000 square-foot warehouse manufacturing facility has expanded twice since coming to the area and annual product sales have increased up to 8 times as much since the year the company moved to Medina. Currently, Hinspergers employs over 60 people and Budd says rural Orleans County suits their company, "It's about two hours door-to-door from our head office and close enough for Owner, Peter Hinspergers, or our Vice President of Finance to come down for a visit. Our Canadian sales reps meet here, which is also close to our existing and growing customer base," he says. When looking for a place to establish U.S. operations, Budd said that many cities were considered, "I would say that this region was settled on because of the proximity to our head-office and customer base," he notes.

Additional Canadian companies with operations in Orleans County include Associated Brands, Bomet Recycling, FreezeDry Foods of Oakville, Ontario, as well as Niagara Falls, Ontario-based Brunner Inc. Brunner is a 10-minute drive from the Hinspergers plant and makes drive axles, brake shoes and S-cams, which force brake shoes apart and against brake drums; the company recently completed a $15 million expansion at its Medina plant, which employs more than 400 and is located in a former foundry, built in 1951. Brunner Inc. Vice President, Bradley MacDonald, notes that the community is strong and has resources available to large companies such as low-cost hydropower to support manufacturing initiatives and growth, "We had more confidence in the strength of the talent base in Orleans County and Western NY," he said. "The Orleans EDA, local and state officials all collaborated and reinforced that the full scope of our expansion could be more effectively achieved in Orleans County versus other parts of the country."

Orleans County is 45-minutes from both the urban centers of Buffalo and Rochester, New York and offers a commute that is 25% shorter than the national average. Along with the surrounding counties of Erie, Niagara, Monroe and Genesee, Orleans County is part of the 3rd best performing economy and the 15th strongest job market in the United States. The region is also recognized for having some of the best real estate values in the nation and is one of America's #1 arts destinations.

The Orleans County Economic Development Agency is very welcoming to new opportunities and they work closely with the county's existing businesses because they value retention projects. Hillside Sketches

Hillside has two grave markers in the form of tree stumps. Nationwide, you can find thousands of such markers in almost as many variations. The tree stump symbolizes a life cut short and was a funerary art contrivance mimicking the natural surroundings of the park like cemeteries. Generally they were most popular from 1885 to 1905. One of Hillside's is unusual because it comes well after that period. Many such stones are associated with the members of the Woodsmen of the World, a fraternal benefit society based in Omaha Nebraska that operates a large privately held insurance company for its members. Once again, Hillside's are a bit different, as they do not seem to be connected to WOW.

Ida Hayworth Clark, the wife of Charles Clark, died at the tender age of 24 in 1892. Her grave marker includes a prominent calla lily which represents beauty. A truncated branch is engraved with the words "At Home With Jesus."

Mary P. Lemke Arendt died in 1940. Her marker includes an anchor which symbolizes hope and a cross to represent Christianity.

Hillside Chapel Awarded Another Grant

The Town of Clarendon received some great news recently. The Rochester Area Community Fund has awarded the town a grant of $20,000 towards the restoration of the chapel in Hillside Cemetery. This money is to be used towards the roof replacement project, the most expensive project in the plan.

The chapel was built in 1894 of Medina Sandstone in the Gothic Revival style. Both Hillside Cemetery and the chapel are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Due to age related deterioration, the chapel has not seen much use in recent decades. It is only used for the storage of caskets when winter weather makes burial impossible. However, it is a beautiful building with great potential as a community asset. Future uses include concerts, art exhibits, lectures and historical displays. First, however, more than 120 years of wear and tear has to be corrected. If the building is not made weather tight in the near future, we will be at risk of losing this fine example of Victorian architecture.

This is the second time we have received funds through the Rochester Area Community Foundation. This spring an anonymous donor gave $10,000 to the chapel restoration through the Foundation. We have also received a grant from the Elizabeth Curtis Dye Foundation which recently funded the re-pointing of the exterior stone work. Altogether, $34,500 has been raised through grants. Each of these grant proposals were written by volunteers from the Clarendon Historical Society at no cost to the Town.

The community has also shown local support through tax-deductible donations made to the Clarendon Historical Society Chapel Fund. To date, about $9,800 has been donated. This includes some donations made in memory of loved ones, a donation from the Holley National Junior Honor Society and the proceeds from the sale of geraniums by the Holley Elementary Student Council which is also adopting the chapel restoration as their civic project for this coming school year. You can help too by sending your donation to the fund to PO Box 124, Clarendon, NY 14429. For more information, call 585-638-6371 ext. 104.

Olivia and Myron Snyder lived on the Brown Schoolhouse Road in Clarendon in the late 1800s and were buried in the Middle Division on the old side of Hillside Cemetery (behind the iron fence). Their graves were marked with simple wooden crosses bearing their names, dates of birth and death. The crosses were found to be broken and in need of repair. Supervisor Dick Moy reconstructed the crosses while Historian/Cemetery Administrator Melissa Ierlan went on a Treasurer Hunt to match the lettering on the original crosses. She found the vintage letters and numbers at Gillette Hardware in Byron and Stull Lumber in Brockport.

Robert and his wife Paula Barrus (photo below) were very happy with the restoration. Robert is the Great Grandson of the Snyders on his mother's side of the family.
