SAFETY TIPS FOR WINTER:

SPACE HEATERS - Keep space heaters at least three feet from any combustible surface; do not use gasoline or diesel fuel in a kerosene heater; do not use unvented heaters indoors and do not use liquid fueled heaters indoors.

KEROSENE HEATERS - Be sure your heater is in good working condition. Inspect exhaust parts for carbon buildup. Be sure the heater has an emergency shut off in case the heater is tipped over. Never use fuel burning appliances without proper room venting. Burning fuel (coal, kerosene or propane, for example) can produce deadly fumes. Use ONLY the fuel recommended by the heater manufacturer. NEVER INTRODUCE A FUEL INTO A UNIT NOT DESIGNED FOR THAT TYPE FUEL. Keep kerosene, or other flammable liquids stored in approved metal containers, in well ventilated storage areas, outside of the house. NEVER fill the heater while it is operating or hot. When refueling an oil or kerosene unit, avoid overfilling. DO NOT use cold fuel, as it may expand in the tank as it warms up. Refueling should be done outside of the home (or outdoors). Keep young children away from space heaters especially when they are wearing night gowns or other loose clothing that can be easily ignited. When using a fuel burning appliance in the bedroom, be sure there is proper ventilation to prevent a buildup of carbon monoxide.

WOOD STOVES AND FIREPLACES - Wood and pellet stoves and fireplaces are becoming a very common heat source in homes. Careful attention to safety can minimize their fire hazard. Although proper maintenance, cleaning, and care should reduce the chance of a chimney fire, it's always smart to be prepared. To use wood stove and fireplaces safely: Be sure the fireplace or stove is installed properly. Wood stoves should have adequate clearance (36") from combustible surfaces, and proper floor support and protection. Replace the batteries in your home's smoke and carbon monoxide detectors annually. Check your fire extinguishers on a regular basis and recharge or replace them if necessary.

We must accept finite disappointment, but never lose infinite hope.

"The LIONS Roar"

The Clarendon Lions Club always welcomes new members. The Lions motto "We Serve" certainly describes our club as we have been serving the Clarendon Community Since 1998. We meet the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of every month (September through May) at the Disciples United Methodist Church on NYS Route 237 between the Clarendon Hamlet and the Village of Holley. We have a pot luck supper at 6:30 PM followed by a regular business meeting at 7:00 pm. Our fundraising events start in May and run through the end of August.

The funds raised at these events will be given back to the community through donations to local charities and emergency situations.

If you are interested in joining our team or would like more information about our club and the Lions International Organization in general, please contact our membership chairperson Lion Tom Persia at (585) 489-9074. Lion Tom will be happy to talk to you or send you a brochure. You are always welcome to stop by for a visit. And as always, we thank the surrounding communities for all your support over the years. See you soon!

The next regularly scheduled Planning Board meeting is at 7PM January 9, 2018.

SUPERVISOR REPORT

Supervisor Richard Moy acknowledged the presence at the meeting of three Holley School students; attending for Participation in Government class. A check for $350 has been received in revenue for the Stop DWI Program through the court. Chatfield Engineers has requested appointment as town engineer. Supervisor has responded with a letter that the town doesn't appoint and engineer but rather contracts with one when needed.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Orleans County Legislature has sent distribution of Mortgage Tax Receipts received between April 1 through Sept. 30, 2017; Clarendon has received $25,868.40. The Orleans County Legislature has approved appointments of Kevin Johnson, full member and Russell Bosch, Alternate Member to the County Planning Board; terms will expire 12/31/2020. The 2018 Clarendon Planning Board meeting schedule for 2018 has been received. Revenue from NYS DOT has been received for Snow & Ice maintenance in the amount of $59,792.90. Wham 13 - ABC has sent web instructions to find out closings due to weather. The NYSDOT has conducted its annual sign surveillance and sent a map of Region Four sign control.

OLD BUSINESS

Supervisor reported the petition for WIBA 12 is in the process and WD 13 will begin after the holidays. If received, Supervisor will forward them to Attorney Essler for confirmation of legality. An estimate to paint the water tower was reported to be $550,000-600,000. Painters contracted need to guaranteed 40 hours; flag men on the ground are getting the same rate of pay as the painters per the Monroe County Water Authority. The price anticipated includes removal of lead paint; if there is none, it will be cheaper. The Hillside Chapel roof project is complete and looks great. No agreement has been received for purchase of large rocks by the county. Legislator De-Filipps explained that in 2013 the flood mitigation plan expired (this is holding up the rock exchange) and cost of a new plan is $150,000. The County will seek grant funding for $112,000 to cover part of that cost. This item will be taken off the agenda until further notice. Public Hearings were scheduled regarding proposed Local Laws; see Notice on front page of this Gazette. The Town Board adopted the Zoning Amendments proposed to the text and map; they are available at the Town Hall. The Board authorized Chatfield Engineers to prepare updated zoning maps.

NEW BUSINESS

The Board authorized payment of year-end bills and reassessment for the 2019 assessment roll. Russ Bosch was reappointed to a 5 year seat on the Town Planning Board.

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

'Twas the night before deadline and all through the house not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. Moose, he sat in his old rocking chair, scratching his head and pulling his hair. It took quite a while and it was late at night when he finally decided just what he would write. So if you read, I hope you enjoy it. If not, there's always the toilet. Joe, "What did you get your wife for Christmas?" Tom, "She told me 'nothing would make me happier than a diamond necklace'". Joe, "So you got her diamonds?" Tom, "No, I got her nothing." As we get older, we're a lot like vintage cars. Maintenance costs get higher and used parts are hard to find. It takes real skill to choke on air, fall up stairs and trip over completely nothing. I have that skill. The state of consciousness is that annoying time between naps. I hate brushing my teeth at night because that signifies that you can't have any more food and I'm just not ready for that kind of commitment. I wish more people were fluent in silence. Apparently you have to eat healthy more than once to get in shape. That is cruel and unfair. Bill: "What's become of the hiker's club?" Greg: "Oh, it disbanded. It was getting too hard to persuade passing motorists to pick us up and give us a ride." Al: "My wife asked me to take our old cat off somewhere and lose it. So I put it in a basket and tramped out to the country for about eight miles." Sam: "Did you lose the cat?" Al: "Lose it? If I hadn't followed it, I'd never have got back home." By the way, any names that I use have no reflection on people I know who might have that name. I also have a bridge to sell. Rod and John were putting shingles on a garage. John noticed Rod was throwing about half the nails away. He asked, "Rod, why are you throwing all those nails away?" Rod answered, "The heads are on the wrong end." John said, "You didn't realize that they're for the other side of the garage?"

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. What do you call elves who work at the North Pole?
2. What time is it when a lion comes to dinner?
3. Why do birds fly south for the winter?
4. Why do fish swim in schools?
5. How did the snail cross the road?

You told me you were going to take up a sport, be a champion, make me proud. Instead, you've taken up swimming. Swimming's not a sport. It's something you do to keep from drowning. Boy, where did you learn to drive? On bumper cars at the fair? As you journey through life, take a moment every now and then to think about others, because there's a good chance they could be plotting something. One day when your life flashes before your eyes, make sure it's worth watching. Someone asked me if anyone in our family ever made a brilliant marriage. I said, "Only my wife".

Oh Wonderful Horse

Oh horse, you are a wonderful thing
 No buttons to push, no horn to honk;
 You start yourself, no clutch to slip;
 No spark to miss, no gears to strip.
 No license buying every year,
 With plates to screw on front and rear.
 No gas bills climbing up each day
 Stealing the joy of life away.
 No speed cops chugging in your rear
 Yelling summons in your ear.
 Your inner tubes are all OK
 And thank the Lord, they stay that way.
 Your spark plugs never miss and fuss.
 Your motor never makes us cuss.
 Your frame is good for many a mile.
 Your body never changes style.
 Your wants are few and easy met.
 You've something on the auto yet.

Tom: You look all out of sorts, what's the matter? Rod: Plenty, on account of my rheumatism, the doctor told me to avoid all dampness, and you've no idea how silly I feel sitting in an empty bathtub and going over myself with a vacuum cleaner. Professor: "What happens when the human body is immersed in water?" Student, "The telephone rings." "John, dear," said Mrs. Brown, "such an odd thing happened today. The clock fell off the wall, and, if it had fallen a moment sooner, it would have hit my mother. I always said that clock was slow." Man at Police Station, "Could I see the man who was arrested for robbing our house last night?" Sargent: "This is irregular. Why do you want to see him?" "I only want to ask him how he got in the house without awakening my wife?!"

*There's a time to part and a time to meet.
 There's a time to sleep and a time to eat.
 There's a time to work and a time to play.
 There's a time to sing and a time to pray.
 There's a time that's glad and a time that's blue.
 There's a time to plan and a time to do.
 There's a time to grin and to show your grit,
 But there was never a time to quit.*

That's all – Adios & God Bless.

Geary (Moose) Shenck

P.S. Hope and pray you all had a great holy and happy holiday season!
