Hillside Cemetery

Memorial Day 2019 –

The parade entered Hillside cemetery and situated near the Veterans flagpole which was constructed in 2016 and was the Eagle Project done by Jacob Crandall. The American Legion led the ceremony which included a reading of the Gettysburg Address by Evan Valentine a junior at Holley Jr/Sr. High. (Evan spent 7 months going through chemotherapy for leukemia which was diagnosed in October 2018) The chapel was open to the public and military displays were set up inside. People also got to see the work that has been done to date including a new slate roof, masonry repairs and some of the newly restored stained glass windows. Mother Nature provided an exceptional day for the community to enjoy the parade and activities meant to remember our veterans and thank them for their sacrifice and service to our country.

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

Greetings once more to all the faithful readers who somehow manage to put up with my page full of whatever you want to call it. I love waving at random people because you know that for the rest of the day they're trying to figure out who the heck you were. I had a friend who said to me, "I suppose you think I'm a perfect idiot?" I said, "No, Rod, none of us is perfect." A big game hunter took his wife on his newest safari. After several weeks they returned. The sportsman had bagged a few minor trophies, but the great prize was the head of a huge lion, killed by his wife. "What did she hit it with," asked a friend admiringly. "That fine rifle you gave her?" "No," answered her husband dryly, "With the station wagon we hired." Typographical errors describing a young bride - the editor wrote: "Her dainty feet were encased in shoes that might have been taken for fairy boots." It appeared in print, "Her dirty feet were encased in shoes that might have been taken for ferry boats." "The new cleaning woman has stolen two of our towels!" "The thief! Which ones did she take?" "The ones we got from the hotel in Miami." What constitutes a living wage depends on whether you are giving it or getting it. So far no one has invented an intelligence test to equal matrimony. When a man begins to realize the truth about himself it frequently retards his program for reforming his neighbors. According to a doctor singing warms the blood. I've heard some that has made mine positively boil. Greg's wife said to him, "My hands are really hurting me from using the broom today." He said, Next time take the car!" I heard he'll be ok in three or four days.

Laughter is the jam on the toast of life. It adds flavor, keeps it from becoming too dry and makes it easier to swallow. The best way for a woman to have a few minutes to herself is to start doing the dishes. A fellow was arrested and taken to the police station. "What's your name?" the desk sergeant asked. "Size six," McFadden said. "That's a funny name, size six," the desk sergeant remarked. "That really isn't my name," declared McFadden. "As a matter of fact my name is six and seven eighths." "I don't get you," said the sergeant, somewhat bewildered. "Well you see, when I was born my parents didn't know what to call me," he explained, "so they put a lot of names in a hat and by mistake my father pulled out the hat size." He who flees temptation should not leave a forwarding address. Time is a great healer, but a poor beautician. Some people can stay longer in an hour than others can in a week. A second wind is what some preachers get when they say, "now in conclusion." The egotist says, "Everyone has a right to my opinion." Never judge a man by the opinion his wife has of him. A diplomat can bring home the bacon without spilling the beans. Many people hate any change that doesn't jingle in their pocket. By the time you're eighty years old you've learned everything. You only have to remember it. I used to be with it, then they changed what it was. Now what I'm with isn't it and it seems weird and scary.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES:

1. Why did the boy construct a bicycle out of paper?
2. Did the chef relax when he went out west?
3. Why did the worm cross the road?
4. Why wouldn't the cleaning lady operate the computer?
5. What did the girl say when she decided to sell her bicycle?

Tom: So there I was riding my horse with giraffes on both sides and a lion at my heels. John: Oh my! What did you do.? Hung on for dear life until the merry go round stopped! You know you're a grown up when you actually pick up the ice cube instead of kicking it under the fridge. I saw a sign - "Police Toilet Stolen" but the cops have nothing to go on. Is a rivalry between two vegetarians still called a beef? Do you ever feel like your body's "Check Engine" light is on and you're still driving like, "No, it will be fine." My neighbor just yelled at her kids so loud that even I brushed my teeth and went to bed. No one has ever choked to death swallowing their pride. The extra mile is never crowded. Experience is something you don't get until after you need it. A good temperature is a cool head and a warm heart.

By Grace E. Easley

Don't worry, your life is in His hands,
He knows and He loves and He understands.
So what if you stumble now and then,
He always picks you up again.
Nobody always gets his way
So don't sigh and fret and spoil the day.
Think of your blessings, Heaven knows
Folks have a way of forgetting those.
Don't squander years that you could fill
With such tremendous worth until
One by one the chances pass
Like sand within an hour glass.
Don't worry and wish and plot and plan
Remember the mighty oak began
From nothing more than one small seed
And God is aware of what you need.

That's it for now. Have a great month.
Adios and God Bless.

Clarendon Personalities

In honor of his 100th birthday on May 16, 2019 this personality column is being reprinted from the Oct 2006 issue of the Gazette.

Joseph Angelo

Andreano was born on May 16, 1919 in Rochester, NY, the number five of seven sons to Cosmo and Michalina Andreano. Joe has been a Clarendon resident since 1969 and he now lives with his wonderful wife Grace on the South Manning Road. They were married in August 1944, and have just celebrated their 62nd Anniversary. When I asked Grace the secret to their obviously successful marriage, she said "Marriage is all give and take. You need to discuss things and work them out together. It takes work and nothing worth it is easy." Grace is amazed and very proud of Joe.

Joe left high school in tenth grade and went to work as a mason contractor. He worked for the City of Rochester Urban Renewal as a rehabilitation specialist, the Building Bureau in property maintenance and then in Water Works until he retired. After retiring from the City of Rochester, Joe became New York State certified and served as Clarendon's Building Inspector for a salary of $25/month. He instituted the change of building permit fees from a flat $25 each to a charge per square footage and certificate of occupancy.

In 1938 Joe enlisted in the U.S. Army. He met Grace in 1943 and they married August 10th in 1944 when Joe was home on a ten-day furlough. Joe was shipped overseas for 1 1/2 years and it was December when he came home. That's when he and 'Gracy' (as he calls her) started their life together. Joe fought in the Battle of the Bulge and served in the Army Infantry 75th Division. He's been awarded both a bronze and silver star for his service in the U.S. Military. Just recently, Joe received a Plaque for the 2006 Man of the Year from the Veterans 75th Division.

Joe and Grace moved to Clarendon from Rochester with their daughters Grace Lizabeth and Vinessa Jo, to escape the riots that had begun in the city. They purchased a seven room farmhouse with two barns and 65 acres of land on the Mansfield and Manning Roads, and raised their family.

Residents that know him feel "Joe is quite a guy!" An active senior citizen, Joe decided that instead of being a 'couch potato', he would go back to school. At age 78, he took the high school equivalence test and earned his General Education Degree with one of the highest scores in his group. He then attended Genesee Community College, where he earned his Associates Degree in Liberal Arts & Science General Education. Joe continued his schooling and at age 82, he received his Graduate Degree in Criminal Justice from Brockport State University. Channel 12 News out of Rochester, NY interviewed Joe for his accomplishments. When asked why he decided to go back to school at his age, Joe said it was for his own self esteem. Brockport College has claimed Joe Andreano to be the oldest person to ever graduate from their facility with a degree. Joe became an artist while attending GCC and he loves to paint using mostly water color and some acrylic paints. A number of Joe's many paintings are hanging in his home and some are on display at the Holley Community Library. Of course, Joe has given many to his friends. Joe told the newscaster that he'd like to see if his talent on canvas was good enough to sell and decided he needs a good agent for that! Joe is hoping to be recognized as a new artist in the D&C newspaper, Living Section.

One thing that Joe really enjoyed was attending school with the young people. Geary Shenck shared his thoughts in that "Knowing Joe,

I'm sure they enjoyed him too. Joe is quite a guy and best of all, a good neighbor." About education, Joe feels that teachers need more freedom on how to approach topics instead of the repeated lessons, confined to the text books. He thinks college should be more challenging and is too systemized; that it should allow teachers and youth to challenge and expand their minds. Joe's message to the youth is "Don't waste your time while in school. Work hard, do your homework, get good grades and then when you're out, use your mind!"

In October of 2009, the Genesee-Orleans Regional Arts Council sponsored an exhibit at its Satellite Gallery in the Shirt Factory Cafe on West Center Street in Medina, displaying 23 of Joe's paintings in various media, the second public showing of the then 90-year old's artwork.

Happy
Birthday
Joe!

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD - Meeting Highlights May 2019

Orleans County Legislator Bill Eick reported that construction of the new county building is complete and that the furniture is now being moved in. There will be a ribbon cutting ceremony on June 11, 2019 at 3:30 PM; this would be a good time for anyone wanting to tour the building to come. Councilman Allen Robinson acknowledged Bob Freida, Assistant Chief of the Clarendon Fire Company for the quick response in handling the fire on Church Street; that it could have been a big problem. Thank you.

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Superintendent Larry Swanger reported that the rainy weather keeps delaying summer work needed to be done. Most of the lawn restoration (due to snow plow damage) has been done. The grader needed/has been repaired. The Highway employees have attended Hazmat training and obtained excavator operator certification as required now by New York State. One grave was dug this month and the annual water quality report has been completed and mailed to those hooked-up to the public water system. The Highway crew ground out a few stumps in town and at the cemetery. Dirt roads have been graded. Superintendent Swanger reported his plans to pave the dirt portion of Brown Schoolhouse Road beginning on May 29, 2019 but that may be delayed. A new home is being built there and trucks are hauling dirt to the site. Superintendent doesn't want the trucks on the road after just being paved. He has grindings to use, helping cut the project cost. Superintendent informed that he has paved eight or nine miles of dirt road since being in office.

Just For Laughs A guy is driving around the back woods of Montana and he sees a sign in front of a broken down shanty-style house: 'Talking Dog for Sale'. He rings the bell and the owner appears and tells him the dog is in the backyard. The guy goes into the backyard and sees a nice looking Labrador retriever sitting there. 'You talk?' he asks. 'Yep,' the Lab replies. After the guy recovers from the shock of hearing a dog talk, he says 'So, what's your story?' The Lab looks up and says, 'Well, I discovered that I could talk when I was pretty young. I wanted to help the government, so I told the CIA. In no time at all they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders, because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping.' 'I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years running... But the jetting around really tired me out, and I knew I wasn't getting any younger so I decided to settle down. I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security, wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings and was awarded a batch of medals. I got married, had a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired.' The guy is amazed. He goes back in and asks the owner what he wants for the dog. 'Ten dollars,' the guy says. 'Ten dollars? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap?' 'Because he's a liar. He's never been out of the yard!'

The Clarendon Lions Club

Our past months' speakers were Brian Bartalo, Superintendent of Holley Central Schools. He described all the activities presently happening at the school along with answering numerous questions concerning the school budget, scholarships, community service of student volunteers and instructional needs of the students. During our Pot Luck Supper, we were serenaded by Rick and Bonnie, a couple who sang oldy but goody songs. Lynne Menz and Dawn Borchert of Orleans County Tourism addressed our second meeting, informing us of all the brochures and guides their department publishes for the county tourism. This brings our meetings to a close, starting again on Wednesday, September 11, occurring on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month, starting at 6:30 PM, with a Pot Luck Supper.

During June, we will be selling hot dogs, hamburgers and sausage starting on June 1, at the Holley June Fest and again on Friday, June 14 at Crosby's in Clarendon, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM for lunch.

If you haven't noticed, there are 2 new picnic tables at the Clarendon Historical Society. These were purchased by Lion Member Susan Persia, in memory of her parents, Mark and Maejel Robertson. The Lions Club organized their delivery and secured them into their location.

We would like to thank everyone who purchased flowers this year at our Annual Geranium Sale, to make it a success again.

Don't forget, over the summer, to contribute to our "Little Free Pantry" located at the east end of the Town of Clarendon Office parking lot, on Church Street, for those in need of short term food help. If you would like to join our organization, please contact Lion, Tom Persia at 638-5750.

*Thank you for your support,
