CLARENDON TOWN BOARD

Meeting Highlights - May 2020 via ZOOM on-line

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Superintendent Chalker reported that the plows have been removed from the trucks; that maintenance and repair has been done on the trucks and equipment. Hall Road has been ditched so Gary Germeo can get his drive-way in and a driveway culvert on Bennetts Corners Road that collapsed has been fixed. The Highway Crew has been patching roads and that will continue. The department has been working with Holley and Barre through the work share program. Town properties are being mowed. Water District 13 is in operation and two people have been hooked up. Keeler is working on the restoration. Superintendent Chalker reported waiting to hear about the CHIPS funding and will wait on major road work until amount and receipt can be confirmed. Superintendent told the board he wanted to alter the 284 form submitted for proposed road work; that the COVID 19 situation has created unsure budget funds, probably for the next couple of years. The major construction planned for LaDue Road has been reconsidered and roads will be chip/sealed to try and protect what we have until funds are more available. Some towns are just going ahead with the work. Supervisor Moy suggested he wait until June to review the road work again; that hopefully will hear regarding the funding by then. Superintendent Chalker suggested the board increase the bulk water rate currently at $6.00 per 1000 gallons. Some towns charge $7 to $7.50 per 1000 gallons and also $30 to $35 to hook up the meter and the same to remove it. One town charges $8 per 1000 gallons with no meter hook-up fee. Councilman Robinson suggested bulk water be drawn from the dead-ends in the water system. The Board increased the Clarendon bulk water rate to $7 per 1000 gallons and to add a meter fee at $30 to hook it up and $30 to remove it.

HISTORIAN/HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT

Melissa Ierlan, Historian & CHS President reported that the Historical Society has cancelled its program speakers for this summer. For Memorial Day, flags and wreaths will be put up at Hillside and Holy Cross Cemeteries.

SUPERVISOR REPORT

Supervisor Richard Moy reported from the County ZOOM meeting last Saturday, it was reported that county sales tax is down 36%; that towns will not receive a second payment this year. For Clarendon that loss is $34,000. The town has been informed that the Census Bureau will be doing a small field operation stopping at rural address in Clarendon that have a post office box mailing address. They will be dropping off packets with Census information and forms to be completed/returned to the Bureau.

OLD BUSINESS

Supervisor Moy reviewed that the Comprehensive Plan review is on hold until people can get together for meetings. Cindi Davis has agreed to chair the committee. A public hearing needs to be held in regard to the proposed zoning ordinance amendments; solar regulations and minor changes in definitions. Supervisor reported many conversations with citizens Laura Kingdollar and Deb Longer regarding their interest in the solar regulations and interest in the public hearing being 'open to the public'. Supervisor Moy reported options to the board, as informed by the attorney at the Association of Towns, regarding public hearing meetings. 1) ZOOM Meeting; people can listen and respond by phone; 2) ZOOM Meeting; then leave the public hearing open for two weeks in order to receive comments by email or regular mail; 3) ZOOM Meeting; Currently the Governor has determined that after June 6th, we can assemble but must follow the Center for Disease Control (CDC) regulations. This deadline has been extended multiple

TID BITS

Geary (Moose) Shenck

Greetings to one and all. Sorry, but I'm back again. I hope if you stand six feet away you are able to read this. I read somewhere that the human brain is a device to keep the ears from grating on one another. The way the world is now a days, there must be quite a lot of people with sore ears. Experience is what enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again. Ways to tell you're getting older: You get breakfast out of the medicine cabinet. Doing the Hustle means you're on the way to the bathroom. You repeat gossip because you can't remember it from the first time. The average citizen works seventy days a year to earn enough money to pay his taxes and he does it because he loves his country, is patriotic and can't figure out any way to get out of it. Some daffynitions: Conscience: Something that knows what's wrong. Egotism: What makes a man in a rut think he's in the groove. Cow: A calf's kin. Safety Belt: When a girl slaps her date. Sign at railroad crossing: Go ahead. We buy junk. What you don't know may not hurt you but it will certainly amuse a lot of people.

THIS MONTH'S RIDDLES

1. What did the buck say about the doe?
2. What do you call a mare with a sore throat?
3. How can you communicate with a fish?
4. How do you quiet a loud overcoat?
5. What book has the most stirring chapters?

A young boy stopped before a large bronze plaque in the back of the church. "What are all those names up there?" he asked the padre. "Son," the padre answered, "Those are the names of people who died in the service." "Which one?" asked the young lad. "The nine thirty or the eleven o'clock?" It's not as easy as you think to get a parking ticket. First you have to find a parking space. Inscription for fly swatter handle: The hand is quicker than the eye but is somewhat slower than the fly. One major difficulty is how to get a watermelon in the refrigerator without taking out the beer cans. I have a nephew. I won't mention his name but his initials are Donald. He and his wife were going out dining and dancing one evening. She came downstairs all dressed up, ready to go. He said, "Boy you sure look beautiful." She said, "Why thank you." He said, "I hardly recognized you." Rod's son came up to me the other day. He said, "Mr. Moose, mom wants me to go to camp this summer." I asked, "What about Dad?" He said, "She wants him to go to St. Peter." "How'd you get up here?" New arrival: "Flu." Dad, is an ox a sort of male cow? Sort of yes. And equine means something to do with horses doesn't it? That's right. So then what's an equinox? Theme song of the Association of Nearsighted People: I've Lost My Glasses So I wonder Who's Kissing Me Now? A chronic bad check passer suffered his greatest indignity recently. He received a call from the Red Cross Blood Bank. It seems his blood bounced. My buddy Greg sent his wife to advanced cooking school. He signed her up for advanced defrosting. One thing about a wolf, he whistles while he works. There's one bridegroom who knew he was going to have problems right from the beginning. As he carried his bride over the threshold, she warned him, "Wipe your shoes."

When I was little I didn't care about things like what to wear. My parents dressed me. Looking at some of my old pictures it's obvious my parents didn't care either. Did a little mechanics work today. I put a rear end in a recliner. My friend texted me: Send me one of your funny jokes. I replied: I'm working now I'll send you one later. He came back with: That was great. Send me another one. Did you hear about the man with the gleam in his eye? Somebody bumped his arm while he was brushing his teeth. Man to banker: You're looking for a cashier? I thought you hired one last week. Banker to man: I did. That's the one I'm looking for. Conceit is confidence out of control. Mummies are Egyptians who were pressed for time. Jack was at the peanut counter. He asked, "Who attends to the nuts?" Clerk "Be patient, I'll wait on you in a minute." Diner: Waiter, bring me a pork chop and make it lean. Waiter: Which way? A lady buying a piano asked the salesman, "How come the keys are so yellow?" The salesman replied, "The elephant was a heavy smoker." An adolescent is a youngster who is old enough to dress himself if he could just remember where he dropped his clothes. A Laplander is a person who can't keep his balance on the bus. Did you hear about the snake charmer who married an undertaker? They had towels marked hisss and hearse. There were two skunks named In and Out. One Saturday they went on a picnic. After the picnic was over In got lost. The mother skunk told Out to go look for In. In a flash Out came back with In. The mother skunk said, "How did you find him so fast?" "Instinct," Out said. Teacher: Eddie, what kind of birds do we usually find in captivity? Eddie: Jailbirds. The reason some of us find it difficult to think is because we haven't had any previous experience. "What parable in the Bible do you like best?" was the question asked of a young lad. His answer was "The one about the fellow who loafs and fishes." Don't give up because there swims no goose so grey, but soon or late she finds some honest gander for her mate.

There's Sunshine in a Smile

Life is a mixture of sunshine and rain,
Laughter and pleasure, teardrops and pain.
So just keep on smiling whatever betide you
Secure in the knowledge God is always beside you.
For each time you smile you will find it is true
Somebody somewhere will smile back at you.
And nothing on earth can make life more worthwhile
Than the sunshine and warmth of a beautiful smile.

*Well folks, that's it for this time. I'm out of gas.
Gotta go for a refill! Have a great month.*

*Take care and God Bless.
Geary (Moose) Shenck*

Hillside Cemetery

In one of the earliest sections of Hillside Cemetery, the Webster family purchased Lot 37 where several family members are buried. The cemetery was incorporated in 1866 and I noticed that 2 of Norton L. and Jemima Websters children died prior to the cemetery being opened. It is assumed that many people buried family members on their property before there was a cemetery available. These children were likely removed and placed in the cemetery when the family purchased the plot in the 1870's.

Norton L. and Jemima Webster had three children who died at an early age. Charles 1855-1858, Jerit 1852-1855 and Zilpha 1849-1851. They had a son Harrison 1845-1925 who also buried 2 children Charlie 1871-1881 and Maude 1876 (5months). Norton was a farmer who came to Clarendon sometime before 1850 and had a farm on lot 228 which is on East Lee Road near the Barre town line. When he retired, he moved to Murray and lived there until his death in 1873.

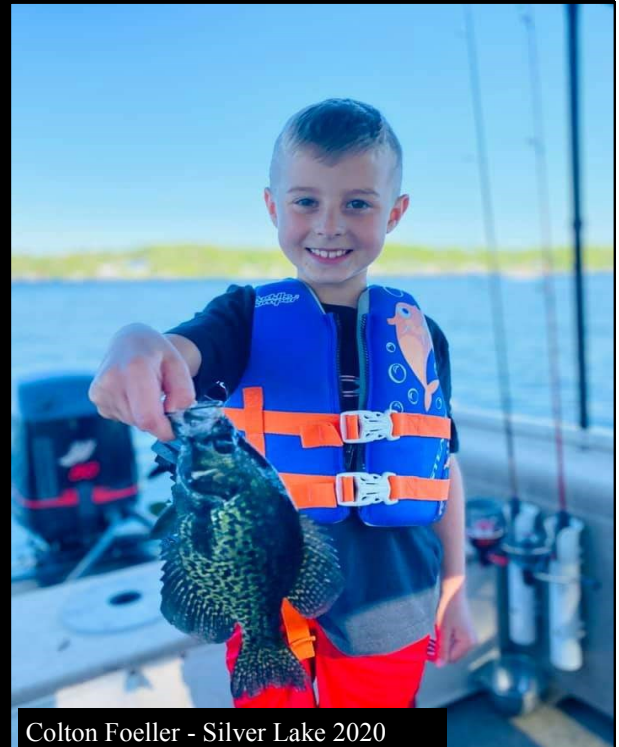

While in Clarendon he was very involved in the formation of the Methodist Society of Clarendon. In a room above George Copeland's store the first meeting took place on February 13, 1848. Norton was elected as a trustee along with George M. Copeland and Benjamin Pettingill. Norton served over the years as a trustee, holding his last seat from 1868-1870. Norton died March 16, 1873 at age 59 and the inscription on his headstone read: Oh, who can say what rapturous scene Upon his vision fell as o'er the stream of Death he passed and uttered All is Well.

Just for Laughs

An elderly Italian man lived alone in New Jersey. He wanted to plant his annual tomato garden, but it was very difficult work, since the ground was hard. His only son, Vincent, who used to help him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and described his predicament:

Dear Vincent - I am feeling pretty sad, because it looks like I won't be able to plant my tomato garden this year. I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. I know if you were here my troubles would be over.. I know you would be happy to dig the plot for me, like in the old days.

Love, Papa. A few days later he received a letter from his son:

Dear Pop - Don't dig up that garden. That's where the bodies are buried.

Love, Vinnie. At 4 a.m. the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologized to the old man and left. That same day the old man received another letter from his son. Dear Pop - Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances. Love you, Vinnie

I would like to thank the following people for all their help on Saturday putting over 600 flags on the Holley/ Clarendon cemeteries:

Randy, Tyler and Lily Moore; Dave and Dawson Arnold; Chad, Chrissy, Hunter and Logan Sommerfeldt; Heidi, Dalton and Jake Thurley; John and Jacob Crandall; Melissa Ierlan and Scott Galliford.

Without their help this NEEDED job would have taken so much longer.

times already and may be extended again. CDC regulates that persons stay six feet apart, wear masks and no more than ten people are allowed to assemble. Regular attendants at a meeting are the five-man town board, town clerk, highway superintendent, planning board chairman and historian leaving room for one more person in the assembly. Citizens can be scheduled for a five or ten minute time slot to come into the meeting and give their comments/opinions one at a time. The Town Board scheduled the public hearing for June 16 prior to the regular meeting. See Legal Notice on Front Page Purchase of new water meters has been approved by Rural Development with left-over funding from WIBA 12 project. The Town Board did accept the resignation as Board of Assessment Review Secretary from Elizabeth Skehan and appointed Evelyn Pangrizzio to fill that position. The Board authorized all Bond Anticipation Note (BAN) interest payments be made in September. Supervisor Moy advised board members to join the Saturday morning ZOOM meetings that the county holds. Jack Welch talks about the financial situation and gives good information.

PROUD Town Historian moment and PROUD cousin moment: Gabe Lindsay of Clarendon (shown here with his mother Mary Beth) spearheaded a project to honor Evan Valentine as he celebrates small victories as he progresses after having a bone marrow transplant to Kick Cancer's Butt! He will be donating all the proceeds from donations received for these specially designed cookies to CURE Childhood Cancer in Evan's name.

The end of an era ...

On a deed dated May 14, 1952 Albert J. Blank and Lillian S. Blank sold 16852 Fourth Section Road to Donald E. Blank. I had the pleasure of visiting Don a few years ago and talking to him about the old farm. He showed me some wonderful pictures and shared some memories of Clarendon with me.

These are pictures showing the house before it was sided. It was a red brick structure with a wooden addition. The information says it was constructed in 1838. The barn and other outbuildings probably came soon after. Over the years the Blank family lived here and eventually sold the property. It changed hands several times in the 90's. The current owner who bought it several years ago.

The silo was gone, the barns had deteriorated and the current owner was very interested in saving it until the roof became so bad and partially collapsed. Eventually the insurance company told the owners that it was dangerous and there was a possibility of them pulling the insurance policy.

After consulting with many people and crunching the numbers they sadly decided that they could not afford to save the barns and instead hired a contractor to take them down.
