CLARENDON TOWN BOARD

Meeting Highlights - APRIL 2022

HIGHWAY/WATER REPORT

Superintendent Tracy Chalker thanked his crew for the many long hours worked this year during the brutal winter and in his absence for a couple of weeks; Clarendon has a good crew! Plowing and salting was done in late March and early April. Trucks are being prepared for the summer; cleaning and painting the plows. The first quarter water readings are complete. The crew has picked up a lot of brush from earlier wind storms; trees at the Town Hall have been cleaned and trimmed and dead trees along roadsides have been removed with the help of the county. Several dead deer have been picked up from the side of the road. The town's roller has been delivered to the Holley School for use on the sports fields. There were three burials at Hillside Cemetery. The crew has been hauling stone for the Village of Holley waterline project through the shared program. The 403 Sterling has been cleaned and is ready for auction on May 14, 2022; the 405 was taken to Beam Mack to fix a def default alarm. A fire hydrant was hit on NYS Route 31A; no report was filed with the sheriff so we don't know who did it. The Village of Holley is scheduled to repair or replace it. The highway crew has been working on yard repairs and cleaning intersections with a rake and broom. The crew is replacing water meters purchased with the ARPA funding; over 30 have been replaced this week. Notice of state funding was received today. The towns were pushing for a 20% increase; 3% was received but everyone in Orleans County took a loss as the funding went somewhere else. CHIPS is down 2%; Extreme Winter Recovery stayed the same and PAVE NY is down 1%. Cost of chip sealing through Suit-Kote is up 20% this year; still waiting for price of blacktop from the state. The money budgeted for roads won't go far this year.

HISTORIAN/HISTORICAL SOCIETY REPORT

Historian Melissa Ierlan submitted the following written report: Planning on having some displays set up inside the chapel at Hillside for Memorial Day to coincide with whatever the American Legion and VFW are doing. John Patt, son of Debbie and Jim Patt is busy working on his eagle scout project which is a pavilion on the canal in Holley. He took on a pretty substantial project and so far, it looks amazing. Steve Hawley visited with him and posted a picture on his Facebook page along with other pictures including Jacob Crandall's flagpole veteran's monument in Hillside.

SUPERVISOR REPORT

Deputy Supervisor Allen Robinson reviewed that in 2014 the Town Board voted to be a 'Climate Smart Community'. At the time special lighting was put in. The Office of the State Comptroller sent a survey to be completed regarding how the town is addressing climate change and how much spending is being done to adapt to climate change. The survey pertained mostly to water levels and flooding which did not pertain to Clarendon. Deputy Supervisor Robinson did ask the representative about funding to take care of the many ash trees that are dying and are a hazard along roadways; that it will be a burden on the town and the fire company.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Town has received $42,289.21 in payment for first quarter 2022 sales tax revenue. Updates on the solar project in Byron, Genesee County have been received. Deputy Supervisor reported that the project includes 3443 acres for 280 MW; that it is pretty much approved. Residents had asked for state consideration to not allow prime farm land for solar projects; it did not make a difference. The County will hold a Self-Insurance Quarterly Meeting on April 26, 2022 at 10:30 AM. Deputy Supervisor Robinson will attend.

OLD BUSINESS

The Town Board adopted a SEQR Resolution for the proposed zoning ordinance amendments, issuing a negative declaration for the action. Transfer of Certificate of Non-Conformance for 16179 East Lee Road was addressed. Kevin Manna presented a notarized affidavit from Jamie Lynn Halstead, prior owner of the property, stating that the underground gas tanks in the front of the building and the oil storage tank behind the building have been closed, cleaned and removed from the property. Mr. Manna said that it can clearly be seen where the tanks were in the parking lot; that the Supervisor told him he would be satisfied with an affidavit and thought the board would be also. The tanks were removed prior to DEC needing paperwork. Regarding the septic, lines and tank have been dug up and inspected by a licensed inspector. Results have been sent to the county health department and they were satisfied; OIO Ierlan has talked to the health department. Councilman

GREETINGS ALL! Well, here we go again. One thing to remember, failure is a delay, not a defeat. It is a temporary detour, not a dead-end street. My wife said if she knew grandkids were so much fun, she would have had them first! At a scouting campout, the scouts were told just what to bring. The scout master, going through all the backpacks, found an umbrella in one of them. He asked the young scout, "Son that was not on the list, so how come you brought it?" The scout replied, "Sir, do you have a mother?" A lady was attending a field trip with her daughter's class to the art museum. The group walks through, observing the different styles of art being explained at each station by one of the experts or one of the actual artists. When they get to the modern art section, they see the first canvas has only black and yellow blobs of paint splattered all over it. The next painting is murky grey that has drips of purple streaked across it. The lady walks over to the artist and says, "I don't understand your paintings." The artist says "I paint what I feel inside me." The daughter says, "Have you ever tried Alka Seltzer?" No matter how short the session, Congress always has the necessary time to pass unnecessary legislation. I wanted to buy a candleholder, but the store didn't have any, so I got a cake! Comic Brian Kiley said: "I don't get these people who instead of buying a four or an eight-pack of toilet paper, buy the single individual roll. Are they trying to quit?!"

This Month's Riddles:

1. What do you call a group trip for physicians?
2. What kind of bird goes to church?
3. Who was the first person to say T.G.I.F.?
4. What traffic violation is common in baseball?
5. What did one potato chip say to the other?

Wordisms from Robert Ivester: Artery – the study of paintings. Bacteria – Back door to a café cafeteria. Cat scan – searching for kitty. Barium – what doctors do when patients die. Dilate – to live long. Nitrates – cheaper than day rates. Node – I knew it. Urine – opposite of you're out. Medical Staff – a doctor's cane. Varicose – near by. Some newspaper headlines: Alzheimer Center Prepares for an Affair to Remember; Legislators Want Tougher Death Penalty; Man Found Dead in Cemetery; Couple Slain - Police Suspect Homicide; Woman Improving After Fatal Crash; Man Minus Waives Hearing; War Dims Hope For Peace. Girl: How did you get that red spot on your nose? Boy: I was smelling a brose. Girl: There's no 'B' in rose. Boy: There was in this one! A man said his ex-wife was deaf. She left him for a deaf friend. To be honest, he should have seen the signs. The easiest time to add insult to injury is when you're signing someone's cast. I was feeling pretty creaky after hearing the R.V. reporter say, "To contact me, go to my Face Book page, follow me on Twitter, or try me the old-fashioned way, E-mail. Three rough looking young men on bikes stopped at a truck stop where a grizzled old-timer was having breakfast. One of them extinguishes his cigarette in the old guy's pancakes. Another put a wad of chewing tobacco into his coffee. The third dumps the whole plate on the floor. Without a word of protest, the old guy pays his bill and leaves. "Not much of a man, was he?" said one of the bikers. "Not much of a driver either" said the waitress, "he just backed his truck over three motorcycles!" The other day I passed a sign on a small truck with a pro-customer service motto, "Gene's Hauling, Satisfaction Guaranteed or Double Your Trash Back".

Still groggy from an operation, the patient was in an agitated state. "Nurse" he moaned, "I heard the surgeon use a four-letter word and it caused me great distress." "What did the surgeon say?" asked the nurse. "Oops". A new study revealed that one out of every five people snores. In a separate study, scientists found that four in five people suffer from insomnia. Stress Management: 1. Picture yourself near a stream. 2. Birds are singing in the crisp, cool mountain air. 3. Nothing can bother you here. 4. No one knows this secret place. 5. You are in total seclusion from that place called the world. 6. The soothing sound of a gentle waterfall fills the air with a cascade of serenity. 7. The water is clear. 8. You can easily make out the face of the person whose head you're holding under the water. There now, feeling better? Rodney Dangerfield quote: "Always look out for number one, and be careful not to step in number two!" PRICE-LESS!! She spent the first day packing her belongings into boxes, crates and suitcases. On the second day, she had the movers come and collect her things. On the third day, she sat down for the last time at their beautiful dining room table by candle-light, put on some soft background music and feasted on a pound of shrimp, a jar of caviar and a bottle of wine. When she had finished, she went into each and every room and deposited a few half-eaten shrimp shells dipped in caviar into the hollow of the curtain rods. She then cleaned up the kitchen and left. When the husband returned with his new girlfriend, all was bliss for the first few days. Then slowly, the house began to smell. They tried everything; cleaning, mopping and airing the place out. Vents were checked for dead rodents and carpets were steam cleaned. Air fresheners were hung everywhere. Exterminators were brought in to set off gas canisters, during which they had to move out for a few days and in the end, they even paid to replace the expensive wool carpeting. Nothing worked!!! People stopped coming over to visit. Repairmen refused to work in the house. The maid quit. Finally, they could not take the stench any longer and decided to move. A month later, even though they had cut their price in half, they could not find a buyer for their stinky house. Word got out and eventually even the local realtors refused to return their calls. Finally, they had to borrow a huge sum of money from the bank to purchase a new place. The ex-wife called the man and asked how things were going. He told her the saga of the rotting house. She listened politely and said that she missed her old home terribly and would be willing to reduce her divorce settlement in exchange for getting the house back. Knowing his ex-wife had no idea how bad the smell was, he agreed on a price that was about one tenth of what the house had been worth, but only if she were to sign the papers that very day. She agreed and within the hour, his lawyers delivered the paperwork. A week later the man and his girlfriend stood smiling as they watched the moving company pack everything to take to their new home .... And to spite the ex-wife, they even took the curtain rods!!!! I LOVE A HAPPY ENDING, DON'T YOU?

We shall steer safely through every storm
So long as our heart is right
Our intentions fervent our courage steadfast
And our trust fixed on God.

2021 was another year of upheaval as we all responded to the challenges COVID caused. Throughout all of this, however, your library has been there for you. Mrs. Shaw and the Library Board developed and modified policies and procedures to ensure the safety and well-being of the community and library staff and to ensure that community members would have access to the library materials and internet within the guidelines set by NY State, Orleans County and the CDC. Your library was only closed for a few weeks. When it was open, materials and the facility were rigorously sanitized. When it was not possible for patrons to enter the facility, Mrs. Shaw continued the procedure whereby community members could call, text or request library materials online and then have them bagged for pickup in the library foyer. Deliveries continued to be made to home bound community members. Procedures continued in place to meet community copying and faxing needs. With the library being a hot spot, 24/7 access to the internet was provided to the community from outside the library. Until her accepting a position at another library in July, the Children's Librarian provided virtual story hours, projects and activities. The Library Board is actively seeking a new Children's Librarian, but in the meantime, services have continued to be provided for our young patrons. In-library story hours were continued on Wednesdays by Mrs. Shaw, Board members, and library staff members. Grab and Go materials were also provided on a weekly basis and thematic displays of children's materials have been created by Mrs. Shaw and the staff. A free lending library has been established at Holley Gardens. Noting the importance of the services your library has been providing to the community, local and state legislators have been providing Mrs. Shaw with FREE N-95 masks and COVID test kits to be given to community members, all of which have been available at the circulation desk. Upon further inspection of the water-damaged wall in the Children's Room, it was discovered that the damage extended farther along the wall. The repairs were completed and covered by the grant obtained by Mrs. Shaw, ensuring the work was done at NO COST TO THE COMMUNITY. This grant also included the installation of high efficiency lighting and the handicap accessible doors. Again, this was work done at no cost to the community. Your library is here for you. Your library... Provides resources and activities for the whole family; Provides 24/7 online access through the library website to an online catalog and selected electronic resources and databases; Has equitable access to computers and other forms of technology; Has summer reading programs for children and young adults; Has adult/young adult programs as well as children's story hours and programs; Participates in resources sharing throughout the NIOGA system; Provides free meeting space for groups; Has upgraded its homeschool collection; Has contacts with companies such as Teacher Geek and its STEAM products; Is always available to help with questions and concerns, to do programs and obtain materials, all based on patron request. We are here for you. Please vote on May 17, 2022. The Proposition for the library budget will be included with the vote for the Holley School District budget. The budget on which you will be voting on May 17 will be $194,966, a 3% increase over the previous year's budget. The largest part of the budget is staff salaries, where we increased funding to be parallel to those provided by large local chains. In trying to keep the budget reasonable, cuts were made in many areas but not those providing service to the community. If you have any questions, feel free to call Sandy Shaw, Library Director, at 638-6987, or contact Mel Gminski, Board President, at 585-208-3577.

Hillside Sketches

Usually, the Hillside Sketch is about a person who lived a long time ago. This month it is about my friend, Jack Loy Wannewetsch who was born on August 30, 1931 and died on February 15, 2022. I met Jack when his wife Nancy died in 2014 and quickly realized that he was a very unique individual. He had a love for history and we chatted about many things over the course of the next 8 years. He came to the cemetery one day and we sat there on the steps at the chapel talking about the upcoming restoration of the building. Jack always had a smile on his face and pep in his step. He had a sharp wit and was so genuine. I was fortunate enough to attend his 90th birthday party this past summer. I never thought he would soon be gone and after he passed, I was lucky enough to help his daughter sort through his things in preparation to sell his home that he lived in some 50 years. The things I learned about this man during this time makes me wonder how he managed to do all of the things he did in 90 years that would have taken other people 3 life times to accomplish.

He served in the US Air Force and spent time in Korea. He worked on aircraft engines. He took thousands of photographs through out his life and I reckon that he could have been good enough to have photos in the National Geographic Magazine. Each photo, slide or negative was meticulously labeled. After the service he attended RIT for photograp

He was a ham radio enthusiast collection. He loved to fish and even made his own fly-liked to tool leather and made many beautiful items. his family, especially his two grandchildren and his person and anyone who knew him was lucky. He will

Each participant is responsible for transporting their materials to the collection site.

CleanSweepNY results in enhanced stewardship of the environment through the improved management and proper disposal of unusable pesticides and other chemical wastes. These materials may pose human health risks upon exposure and represent a potential hazard to New York State's groundwater and surface water resources.

The collections are scheduled and organized by NYSDEC with the collaboration of NYSDDOT who generously provides sites for the collection of these unwanted chemical materials. CleanSweepNY is supported by Cornell Cooperative Extension, the Agricultural Container Recycling Council, Soil and Water Conservation Districts, New York Farm Bureau, and other related grower associations.

The 2022 Orleans County Household Hazardous Waste Collection Event is expected to be held on a Saturday in late summer at a date to be determined once a vendor is chosen. In the many years the county has been conducting this program, one of the most frequent refusals necessary is acceptance of items from contributors other than households pursuant to the HHW permit issued by New York State.

Clean Sweep NY is a convenient chance for non-householders as evidenced in the neighboring article to dispose of hazardous waste. It has been confirmed that despite the drop-off sites listed are outside of Orleans County, they would not render non-household enterprises in Orleans County ineligible provided that they properly registered in advance.

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company held its annual awards and installation dinner on April 9, 2022. Earl Jenks gave the invocation before dinner, which was catered by Beary Good Friends Catering. President Bob Freida gave the welcome and candles were lighted for past members Jonathan DeYoung, Sr., John Harvey, Penny Margis, Don Eberlain and Al Sharp.

The 2022 officers were sworn into office by Orleans County Emergency Management Director Dale Banker and awards for years of service were given. Pictured from left include new Fire Chief Marc Major who started Jan. 1; Jon R. DeYoung, appreciation award for nine years on board (now deputy chief); Mary Kay Jenks, president's award for exceptional service to president Bob Freida; outgoing chief Jim DeYoung presented with engraved ax for two years of service as chief; Kerry McCormack, chief's award of excellence; Josh Henneman, board of directors' award; Jonathon Salber, 15 years of service and life member; and Mark Lambert, 15 years of service and life member. Robert Margis, not pictured, also was recognized for 30 years of service as a Clarendon firefighter.

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Company responded to 426 calls in 2021 – 326 of those were EMS calls.

Pest Alert

Box Tree Moth

This invasive pest primarily feeds and completes its life cycle on boxwood species. In its native range, it also feeds on burning bush, Japanese spindle tree, purple holly and orange jessamine once nearby boxwoods are completely defoliated. Signs of damage may not appear at the beginning of an infestation because young larvae hide among twigs and leaves. Larvae skeletonize the leaves and feed on the bark causing defoliation and dryness, leading to the plant's death. Signs of feeding include green-black frass (excrement) and webbing. The female moths lay their eggs on the underside of the leaves of boxwoods. If you find an insect you suspect is the box tree moth in NY please report it to have the specimen identified properly.
