Greetings to all you lovers of nonsense! School will soon be over for the summer. "Whoopee!" Father Joe is leaving St. Mary's in Holley after 18 years. I remember when he first got here. The first thing he did was write some notes to his relatives and friends in Buffalo, telling them about his new parish, St. Mary's in Holley, New York. He came out of the rectory to mail them. There were two youngsters playing out in the yard. He asked them, "Where is the Post Office in this village?" One of the lads pointed and said, "Right over there." Then he asked Father, "Who are you?" Father replied, "I'm the Reverend Joseph Koslowski. I'm the new pastor of St. Mary's Church." The lad asked, "And what do you do?" Father said, "I'm here to show you the way to Heaven." The lad said, "Ha, you don't even know your way to the Post Office!" Anyway, we wish Father Joe the very best for his future and may he always find the Post Office!

Snowboarding is an activity that is popular with people who do not feel that regular skiing is lethal enough. Here are some ponderisms: 1) Why do croutons come in air tight packages? Aren't they just stale bread to begin with? 2) If four out of five people suffer from diarrhea, does that mean that one enjoys it? 3) Do Lipton Tea employees take coffee breaks? 4) Ever wonder what the speed of lightning would be if it didn't zig zag? 5) What color hair do they put on the driver's licenses of bald men?

This Month's Riddles:

1. Why did the Indians live here first?
2. What kind of music do angels listen to?
3. What does an ear of corn have when it gets dandruff?
4. What's the best place to keep your baseball mitt?

Some of the world's shortest books: Things I Love About Bill by Hillary Clinton; Amelia Earhart's Guide to the Pacific; My Plan to Find the Real Killers by O.J. Simpson; How to Drink and Drive Safely by Ted Kennedy. "Anyone with needs to be prayed over, come forward to the front at the altar" the preacher says. Leroy gets in line and when it's his turn, the preacher asks, "Leroy, what do you want me to pray about for you?" Leroy replies, "Preacher, I need you to pray for my hearing." The preacher puts one finger in Leroy's ear and he places the other hand on top of Leroy's head and prays and prays for Leroy. After a few minutes, the preacher removes his hands, stands back and asks, "Leroy, how is your hearing now?" Leroy says, "I don't know Reverend, it ain't 'til next Wednesday!" Old bankers never die. They just lose interest. I once bought my wife a mink outfit for her birthday. Yep, two steel traps and a shotgun. Clyde: "Son, why do you have cotton in your ear? Is it infected?" Gregg: "No Dad, but you said yesterday that everything you told me went in one ear and out the other, so I'm trying to stop it." I asked my wife if old me should wear boxers or briefs. She said, Depends! Age 85: I've learned that every day you should reach out and touch someone. People love that human touch, holding hands, a warm hug or just a friendly pat on the back. Experience is a great thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake while you're making it again!

A couple from Minneapolis decided to go to Florida to thaw out during one particularly icy winter. They planned to stay at the very same hotel where they spent their honeymoon twenty years earlier. Because of their hectic schedules, it was difficult to coordinate their travel schedules. So, the husband left Minnesota and flew to Florida on Thursday, with his wife flying down the following day. The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an email to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter in her email address and without realizing his error, he sent the email. Meanwhile...somewhere in Houston, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a minister of many years who was called home to glory following a sudden heart attack. The widow decided to check her email expecting messages from relatives and friends. After reading the first message, she fainted. The widow's son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor and saw the computer screen which read: To: My Loving Wife. Subject: I've Arrived. Date: March 30, 2009. I know you're surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send emails to your loved ones. I've just arrived and have been checked in. I see that everything has been prepared for your arrival tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then! Hope your journey is as uneventful as mine was.

P.S. Sure is hot down here!

Slower and steady wins the race only if quicker and faster ones fall on their face! Attorney: Doctor, how many of your autopsies have you performed on dead people?

Witness: All of them. The live ones put up too much of a fight!

Attorney: All your responses must be oral. Okay?

Witness: Oral.

I thought that the senior ladies might enjoy the following: Grandma Shoes When I was very little, all the grandmas that I knew walked around this world in ugly grandma shoes. You know the ones I speak of, those clunky black-heeled kind. They just looked so very awful that it weighed upon my mind. For I knew, when I grew old, I'd have to wear those shoes. I'd think of that from time to time. It seemed like such bad news. I never was a rebel, wore saddle shoes to school. And next came ballerinas, then the sandals, pretty cool! And then came spikes with pointed toes, then platforms, very tall, as each new fashion came along, I wore them one and all. But always in the distance, looming in my future, there was that awful pair of ugly shoes. The kind that grandmas wear. I eventually got married and then became a mom. Our kids grew up and left and their children came along. I knew I was a grandma and the time was drawing near when those clunky, black, old lace up shoes was what I'd have to wear. How would I do my gardening or take my morning hike? I couldn't even think about how I would ride my bike. But fashions kept evolving and one day I realized that the shape of things to come was changing, right before my eyes. And now when I go shopping, what I see fills me with glee, for in my jeans and Reeboks I'm as comfy as can be. And I look at all those teenage girls and there upon their feet, are clunky, black, old grandma shoes and they really think they're neat!

Clarendon Lions Club

The Lions Club had our June meetings on Wednesday, the 12th and 25th, with a Pot-Luck Dinner at 6:30 PM and great conversation, followed by our meeting at 7:00 PM, at the Clarendon Methodist Church in the Conference Room. Our Annual Geranium Sale this year was a great success. It was done by phone orders to Lion Joann Smith. Our speaker this month was Boy Scout Michael Clark from Troop 94 in Kendall. He spoke about his Eagle Scout Project occurring at the County Fairgrounds. He designed, obtained funding and built a pavilion for displaying of small animals. Great job Michael! Look for us at the Holley June Festival on Saturday, June 4th and the OONA Summer Concert Series, at the Orleans County Marine Park, Point Breeze, starting on Tuesday June 28th, for 6 continuous Tuesday nights, at 7:00 PM. We will be there, selling hot dogs, hamburgers, sausages, popcorn and beverages. We still have a few of our 911 Signs, a blue metal sign, with white reflective numbers, indicating your house number, which can be installed at the entrance to your driveway, making it easy for emergency services to locate your residence. We will install it, for a small additional cost. Orders can be made by contacting Lion Kevin Johnson by phone at 585-638-5230. Don't forget, to contribute to our "Little Free Pantry" located at the east end of the Town of Clarendon Office parking lot, on Church Street, for those in need of short-term food help. Our meetings are on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month, with a pot luck dinner at 6:30 PM and meeting at 7:00 PM, in the basement, of Disciples First United Methodist Church. If you would like to join our organization or volunteer to assist on our fund raisers, please contact Lion, Tom Persia at 638-5750. Thank you for your support, Lion Roger Boynton

Safety Warning for New York State Roads

Grass clippings in summer months are reportedly as slippery as winter ice on road surfaces. Yard waste that blows onto road pavement presents safety hazards to motorcyclists whose two-wheeled vehicles speed over the slick grass clippings.

Clearing grass clippings from roadways is not a choice; it is mandated by state and local law.

NYS Vehicle and Traffic Law Section 1219 prohibits any substance that is likely to cause injury from being placed on highways. If grass clippings from a lawn mower are either accidentally blown or intentionally deposited onto the pavement, homeowners

Orleans County will again be running a household hazardous waste collection event on August 13, 2022 which will held be at the Orleans County DPW at 225 West Academy Street in Albion. Residents will need to register for a time slot to bring household hazardous waste. The county expects it will start taking registrations in mid-June. The agreement with Environmental Enterprises includes aerosol cans, anti-freeze, chemicals (labpacks), corrosive acids, corrosive bases, fluorescent tubes, household cleaners, miscellaneous chemicals, latex paint (Paint Care program), oil base paints (liquids), oil base paints & varnishes (sludges), oil filters, organic liquids, oxidizers, pesticides/insecticides, pesticides/insecticide (dioxin precursors), poisons, resins & adhesives (with cans), and waste oil. The event typically costs about $18,000 to collect and haul away the waste, with state paying half of the cost. The county on Aug. 13 will also accept up to 10 tires from residents in a separate contract with Modern Disposal Services.
