

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD Meeting Highlights - October, 2023

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Superintendent Tracy Chalker submitted a written report; as follows: The Highway Department did grader paving on New Guinea Road, Glidden Road and Howard Road; rebuilt Boots Road and NYS Route 237 Intersection. Multiple roads have been patched and the crew worked with the Town of Barre putting shoulders on in their town. The third roadside mowing is still being done and town properties are being mowed. We've been cleaning the town park; there were three events there this month. Work on routine water maintenance continues and the third quarter water reads have been completed. One grave was dug for a burial at Hillside Cemetery. All trucks have had oil and filter changes and have been greased. The Mack plow truck (402) went to Thru-way Spring for repair of a broken rear spring. The crew pulled bumpers and mounted plow frames to trucks. They're currently working on mounting plows and setting up salters. Clarendon hauled stone for the Village of Holley and cleaned up trees on Jackson and Howard Roads. The highway employees have a lot of vacation left, so chances are we will have small crews working through November.

HISTORIAN REPORT

Historian and Clarendon Historical Society President Melissa Ierlan submitted the following report: The CHS will have a book signing with author Raymond Santoro and his book Haunted Holley on October 18th at 6pm in the chapel at Hillside Cemetery. The Rotary interact club will be in Hillside Cemetery this Sunday to clean headstones again. Doctor Dan Schiavone donated the cleaning solution used for the job this year. I have sent the application for the Christmas Parade which will be on December 8th this year. Scout Troop 62 held an awards ceremony at the CHS this month. All American Diesel Service would like to donate more Christmas lights to the CHS again this year. We are thankful for the donation.

CORRESPONDENCE

Orleans County Self Insurance Plan has sent Notice of an informational meeting Oct. 16, 2023 in Albion. Notice was received from the NYS Department of State Local Government Training Staff of scheduled Land Use Training for Local Officials and Orleans County has sent Notice that FEMA has released preliminary flood insurance rate maps for Orleans County for public comments.

OLD BUSINESS

The Town Board adopted the final town budget for 2024. Regarding Joint Youth, the Commission is trying to get an attorney to look at the changes of funding if a not-for-profit, free of charge.

NEW BUSINESS

Supervisor Moy informed that regarding proposed Water Improvement Benefit Area No. 14, Clarendon has recently been determined to have poverty level income and therefore does not need income surveys completed. The Town needs to take water samples from the homes within the proposed area and have them tested for sanitary quality and will be mailing letters requesting volunteers to have their water tested. Then, the town will go for funding.

The Town Board scheduled a workshop meeting for discussion regarding ARPA funding and intended projects to be held November 21, 2023 prior to the regular meeting; to begin at 6:00 PM. A listing of intended projects must be secured by 2024 and the ARPA monies all spent by 2024.

The contract for Monroe Ambulance will be on the November Town Board agenda.

Did you know that there is a 'library' at the Clarendon Town Hall? There are numerous books (novels, educational and inspiring) and DVDs available to borrow at no cost or time limit. Stop in and take a look!!

From the Assessor's Office ...

ATTENTION HOMEOWNERS:

If you are turning 65 in 2024 and are receiving the STAR exemption, NOT the STAR credit which is a check from the state, please be sure to apply for the Enhanced STAR exemption by coming into the Assessor's Office no later than March 1, 2024.

GREETINGS ALL: *Well, it's that time again. Time to hopefully enjoy the following pearls of wisdom. Did you know, every day more money is printed for monopoly than the U.S. Treasury. Men can read smaller print than women; women can hear and smell better. (I agree they smell a lot better.) Intelligent people have more zinc and copper in their hair. Uh oh – Coca Cola was originally green.  $111,111,111 \times 111,111,111 = 12,345,678,987,654,321$ . (I don't think that was on the need-to-know list.) In a move that must have been unsettling for thousands of Iowa seniors; in 2009 the state changed the name of Elder Affairs Department to the Department on Aging or DOA. Ever wanted to insult someone in terms wittier than "He's a jerk!?" Feel free to borrow some of these classic examples. From James Thurber: While he was not dumber than an ox, he was not any smarter either. From T.S. Eliot: He had a mind so fine that no idea could violate it. From George Bernard Shaw: The problem with some people is that they lack the power of conversation, but not the power of speech. Pies Offered by a Café. They had Cherry, Apple, Berry, Peach and Herman's. I asked "What kind of pie is Herman's?" "Apple" he said. "Then why is it called Herman's pie?" "Because Herman called in to reserve it!" A young man who didn't enlist but was drafted was not happy about it and decided to not be one bit helpful to anybody. During his physical the doctor asked softly, "Can you read the letters on the wall?" "What letters?" he answered slyly. "Good" said the doctor, "you passed the hearing test." There are three kinds of people in the world. Those who are good at math and those who aren't. A man comes home from his usual Saturday golf game. "What a terrible day" he tells his wife. "Harry dropped dead on the tenth tee." "Oh, that's awful!" she says, "You're not kidding" says the man. "For the whole back nine, it was hit the ball, drag Harry, hit the ball, drag Harry."*

A candidate is the only man who knows all the answers, especially if he's out of office. An election is an important democratic process by which you are given a choice to decide who will spend your money. A prosperous purveyor of rare Orchids on Park Avenue is intoxicated about four out of every five hours. He now is known as "The Petrified Florist". Then there was the mattress tester who got fired for standing up on the job. Hopelessly lost, a man pulled his car into an abandoned gas station in the desert and got out. The only creature there was an owl sitting on a cactus. "Owl, are you able to tell me the quickest way to town?" "Are you walking or driving?" asked the owl. "I'm driving." "Well, that's the quickest way!" "Congressman, what advice can you give a young man entering politics?" "Grow a big mustache." "Why?" "So they can't read your lips." A woman rubbed a lamp and out popped a genie. "Do I get three wishes?" she asked. "Nope, I'm a one-wish genie. What will it be?" "See this map? I want these countries to stop fighting so we can have world peace." "They've been at war thousands of years. I'm not that good." Said the genie. "What else would you like?" "Well, I'd love a good man. One who's considerate, loves kids, likes to cook and doesn't watch sports all day." "Okay" said the genie with a sigh. "Let me see that map again!" Words of Wisdom: Experience is what you get when you didn't get what you wanted. Few things are more satisfying than seeing your own children have teenagers of their own. On Wisdom: A wise man will never plant more garden than his wife can hoe. A wise husband will buy his wife such fine China that she won't trust him to wash the dishes. If ignorance is bliss, why aren't more people happy? He who thinks education is costly ought to try ignorance. Father: "I want an explanation and I want the truth." Son: "Make up your mind Dad, you can't have both." On Trouble: The only fellow whose troubles are all behind him is a school bus driver. If you're in deep water, the best thing to do is keep your mouth shut. On Success: The Lord has given us two ends. They have a common link. For with the bottom end we sit and with the other, think. Success in life depends upon which end you choose to use. You'll discover this, my friend, heads you win and tails you lose! Age 44: I've learned that what sounds like music to my teenagers, sounds like a train wreck to me. Age 40: I've learned that elderly ladies can get away with anything. I Agree. You young'uns today, why when I was your age, I got up at six every morning and walked five or six miles before breakfast. I used to think nothing of it. "I don't blame you Grandpa. I wouldn't think much of it myself."

This Month's Riddles

1. Why did the chef's spaghetti fall apart?
2. Why did it take Brahms five years to compose his lullaby?
3. Why did the cucumber hire a lawyer?
4. Why did the baseball rookie have coal on his face?
5. How did the tomcat find out he was a father?

Some more from Can You Top this: *A husband and wife were having breakfast. "You know" she said, "that you swore at me in your sleep last night?" "Who was asleep?!" he replied. Fred Allen's definition of a shroud is: "It's a wind breaker for a ghost." Two fellows met. "Is it unlucky to postpone a wedding?" asked one. "Not if you keep on postponing it!" said the other. A fellow was telling Clancy about his numerous thrilling adventures; How he flew over the Alps with one wing broken, how he discovered gold in Alaska by accidentally stumbling over a rock, how he steered a ship in a raging storm in the middle of the Atlantic and saved everyone. After he was all through, one of the listeners asked Clancy what he thought of the guy's adventures. "He reminds me of the horns on a steer," said Clancy. "A point here, a point there, and an awful lot of bull in between!" They say if you catch a cold and don't attend to it, it will last fourteen days. But, if you go to a doctor and take medicine, you can get rid of it in two weeks! After reading up on the finer points of ice fishing, a young woman went onto the ice. Just as she's about to drill her first hole, a booming voice from above bellows, "There are no fish under the ice!" The woman is startled, but she kept drilling. Again the voice thunders, "There are no fish under the ice?" Now the woman is shaking, but she takes a deep breath and just as she's about to cut a new hole – "There are no fish under the ice!" The frightened woman looks skyward and asks, "Is that you Lord?" "No, this is the manager of the skating rink!"*

Well, that's it for now. Adios and God Bless

PASSIN' THROUGH

by Eric Weatherbee

copyright 2018

As I travel down the dusty trail of time, I ponder what direction should I take?
What will be the outcome, of the decisions that I make?
And so I wander cautiously, through the canyons of indecision, across the prairies of my spirits endless plains, searching for a guiding light, or perhaps a defining vision.

And as I drift along searching for life's meaning, beneath an endless sky of blue, the only fact I know for certain, is that we are all just Passin' Through.
As I travel between the eternities, of this life and the next, some days my thoughts are pure and simple, other days my mind is most perplexed.

I'm not sure just what it is I'm searching for, as I traverse the plateaus of my mind, contentment eludes my grasp, as I journey towards that one thing that I must find.
And so I keep on riding, among the haunted mesas, and mountain streams that run cold and blue, all the while pondering the mysteries of life, as I'm just Passin' Through.

And then suddenly it strikes me like a lightning bolt, amidst the higher elevations, and life takes on new meaning, with this single revelation.
This entity that I am searching for, this thing that I simply cannot find, it spurs me on to keep riding on, towards the horizons of my mind.

You see the one thing that I've figured out while searching endlessly, is that the trail of life was by design, a never-ending mystery!
So I'll just keep moving on down that dusty trail, and enjoying life anew, riding the high plains between Heaven and Earth, content to be . . . just Passin' Through!

On Sunday October 22, 2023 the Holley Rotary Interact Club participated in a group effort to clean headstones at Hillside Cemetery in Clarendon. The event has been done for a few years and was the idea of Holley Central School District's social worker Samantha Zelent. Some of the students have brothers or sisters that have previously participated. Clarendon Town Historian and former school board member Melissa Ierlan helped to coordinate the day. About 73 kids and a dozen adults participated on what proved to be a cold, windy day. That did not stop this group from jumping in and working hard. Donuts from Paula's which has become a tradition were supplied by Rotarian, Alex Lane. The biggest help we received was a donation from Doctor Daniel Schiavone who has a practice in the village of Holley. Other donations were procured by Samantha Zelent. This is such a meaningful event not only to teach our younger generations how to give back to the community they live in but to honor the generations of local residents who have been buried in the cemetery since 1866. It is so amazing to me the attitude the young people of our school district towards doing community service. They do it with ease and are so sincere in their efforts to give back. The staff, parents and local residents who came out today did a lot of work. It is so rewarding to see the before and after results of this event. The type of cleaning done will help keep the headstones clear of dirt and moss or lichens for several years.

The students that participated are as follows: K. Babcock, G. Campbell, E. Ebbs, K. Eiland, M. Gearing, C. Kelley, E. Kinsey, L. Lane, S. McCormack, M. McGuire, A. Mendoza, C. Mogle, H. Mullins, H. ## The Clarendon Lions Club resumed our meetings in September at the church. We had a pop-up Sausage Sale on Oct. 13 at Clarendon Park. We didn't advertise much, as location and weather became a factor at this time of season. Everchanging! Keep an eye on The Gazette and 'Holley and Surrounding Communities'

Facebook page for events! We sponsored the Halloween Party at the Holley Community Center this month, as well.

Our meeting in September included guest speaker, Karen Kinter, from Oak Orchard

Health. She spoke of the many medical programs in our area that Oak Orchard offers. In October we sponsored the Halloween party at the Holley Community center with costume contest, candy and all!! We are always looking for new members! We now meet at the Clarendon Town Hall, 16385 Church St., Clarendon. Our meetings for winter months Nov - Feb are on the second Wednesday of the month. We have a pot luck dinner at 6:30 and meet at 7. We would really love to see you there! Our final meeting of October, we had Town Supervisor, Richard Moy, talk to us about what the town could possibly use to which the Lions' club can contribute.

A sincere THANK YOU to the Disciples United Methodist church in Holley for allowing us to meet in their facility for so long!
