Just for Laughs .....

A group of women were at a seminar on how to live in a loving relationship with their husbands. The women were asked, "How many of you love your husband?" All the women raised their hands. Then they were asked, "When was the last time you told your husband you loved him?" Some women answered today, a few yesterday, and some couldn't remember. The women were then told to take out their cell phones and text their husband: "I love you, sweetheart." Next the women were instructed to exchange phones with another woman and read aloud the text message she received in response to her message. Following are hilarious 11 replies. If you have been married for quite a while, you understand that these replies are a sign of true love....who else would reply in such a succinct and honest way?

1. Who the hell is this?
2. Eh, mother of my children, are you sick or what?
3. Yeah ,and I love you too. What's wrong?
4. What now? Did you wreck the car again?
5. I don't understand what you mean?
6. What the hell did you do now?
7. Don't beat about the bush, just tell me how much you need?
8. Am I dreaming?
9. If you don't tell me who this message is actually for, someone will die.
10. I thought we agreed you wouldn't drink during the day.
11. Your mother is coming to stay with us, isn't she?

CLARENDON TOWN BOARD Meeting Highlights - November, 2023

At the November 1, 2023 special meeting the town board authorized that the unpaid balance for zoning violations and mowing services be re-assessed and added to the January 2024 Town/County property tax bills. On November 20, 2023 the town board met with representatives of the Clarendon Fire Company to discuss and consider the fire company contract for 2024. Some amendments to the proposed contract were agreed upon and changed. The fire company proposed a 5-year contract, the town requested a 1-year; accepted by both was a 3-year contract. The fire company will come back to the town with slightly higher annual contract amounts because it is not for 5 years. Insurance coverage for other fire companies on mutual aid for Clarendon will be looked into by the town and the fire company. Prior to the regular meeting in November, review of possible ARPA funded projects were discussed and considered; funds remaining unspent and available for project designation total $92,000. Different town hall repairs were mentioned: front door/frame to town clerk's office is rusted; repair/replace base and fascia boards and window trim as needed - wrap in vinyl or aluminum; electric service entrance cable and repair gutters. The Clarendon Offices sign posts are rotted at the base; will contact the person making the Welcome signs for a sign similar to replace the offices sign. Discussion was held regarding security posts outside the town hall doors to prevent vehicles from smashing into the building. It was said that the current salt shed will last another 5 years; discussion was held regarding replacing its walls. Superintendent Chalker informed that the loader used to be changed-out every three to four years to have more value for its sale. Superintendent will contact HCH regarding a grant application for a loader. Any funds left from ARPA after town hall repairs will go toward purchase of a loader. Board members acknowledged the passing of former Clarendon resident Pat Giglio who gave the property at Hillside Cemetery by the creek to the Town; it is beautiful there. Pat was also very involved with the American Legion and is fondly remembered for selling poppies on Memorial Day.

HIGHWAY/WATER DEPARTMENT REPORT

Superintendent Tracy Chalker reported that the trucks are completely winterized and the crew has already had a spot salt run due to black ice on the bridges. Multiple deer have been removed from the roadsides and the highway crew replaced/repared the drain in the fire company parking lot. Two graves were dug for burials in Hillside Cemetery and dead Ash trees have been cleaned up. The new pick-up truck is in; in parking lot if anyone wants to see it. One hundred nineteen red tags were hung on residences for non-payment of water bills. This process took two employees three hours to fill out the tags and 20 hours to hang them. Superintendent suggested that the board may want to reconsider going back to a second mailing prior to tagging houses. With the second mailing, red tags hung were down to 30 or 40. Supervisor informed that this has been the first year ever that there were no water re-leivies to put on tax bills. Clerk suggested the water clerk fill out the tags instead; that the highway department just pick them up and hang them.

Councilman Major thought it a good idea. The crew added material and regraded McAllister Drive. Superintendent reported a lot of road name signs missing; an inventory determined 20 signs at 10 different intersections along with information signs (curve, driveway etc.) The Sheriff's Department has been called. Cost to replace the missing signs is figured to be $5,000. The third roadside mowing is complete and the mowing equipment cleaned and put away. The town received a letter from Mack Trucks informing of a safety recall; reflectiveness of the turn signals is not visible enough and need to be replaced. Two of our trucks have the warranty recall but Mack doesn't have the materials to replace them yet.

TID BITS

Reprinted from December, 2011
Geary (Moose) Shenck

GREETINGS TO YOU ALL! I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving. Average folks have five senses; touch, taste, sight, smell and hearing. Successful ones have two more; common and horse. "How's your new job at the factory?" one guy said to another. "I'm not going back there." "Why not?" "For many reasons." He answered. "The sloppiness, the shoddy workmanship, the awful language. They just couldn't put up with it." When someone tells you that something defies description, you can be pretty sure he's going to have a go at it anyway. I've just been on a once in a lifetime vacation. I'll tell you what, never again. Many folks over 50 are quite confused today about how they should present themselves. Feeling young, they try to conform to current fashion and present a youthful image. Contrary to what you may have seen on the streets, the follow combinations do not go together and should be avoided: 1. A nose ring and bifocals; 2. Spiked hair and bald spots; 3. A pierced tongue and dentures; 4. Miniskirts and support hose; 5. Ankle bracelets and corn pads; 6. Unbuttoned disco shirts and a heart monitor. Some things you'll never hear a red neck say: 1. When I retire, I'm moving north; 2. I'll take Shakespeare for 1,000 Alex; 3. Duct tape won't fix that; 4. We don't keep firearms in this house; 5. You can't feed that to the dog; 6. That car is too old and unsafe to drive; 7. Wrestling is fake and 8. We're vegetarians. Question: Are there too many immigrants in the U.S.? 17% said "yes", 11% said "no", 72% said "I am not understanding the question". Dormitory: When you rearrange the letters: dirty room. George Bush: When you rearrange the letters: he bugs Gore. WOMAN'S PRAYER: Dear Lord, I pray for wisdom to understand my man, Love to forgive him, Patience for his moods. Because Lord, if I pray for strength, I'll beat him to death! Did you hear about the big winner on Jeopardy? He went home the next day and his wife said, "Who were those women I saw you out with last night?"

This Month's Riddles

1. What did the student do when he lost his pen the second time?
2. What did the Teddy bear say after dining out?
3. How do you confuse a ditch digger?
4. Why did the bee go to the doctor?
5. Who do firemen miss the most?

People don't usually think of a race horse as a mode of transportation, but it can take several thousand people for a ride at the same time. What America really needs is more people who will carry to their jobs, the same enthusiasm for getting ahead that they display in traffic! One of the latest computers is so human that it knows how to blame its mistakes on other computers. Inflation is when after you finally get enough money to buy something, it isn't enough! A man in an office irritated everyone. Whether it was the tone of his voice or his condescending attitude, everyone steered clear of him. He must have suspected he was annoying because he asked a co-worker, "Why does everybody take an instant dislike to me?" He responded, "It saves time!" Here are just a few more quips from "Can You Top This?!" A customer went into a barber shop, "What's the idea of your hands being so dirty?" he asked. "Nobody's had a shampoo today!" confessed the barber. A fellow said he liked his radio better than his wife because he gets less interference from his radio! I know a woman who was so fond of vegetables that she married a fighter with cauliflower ears. A little boy asked his father, "Will you please explain the difference between capital and labor?" His father replied, "If you lend money, it's capital; and when you try and get it back, it's labor." There is so much confusion in Washington that spies can't find out anything. My doctor told me exercise kills germs. I asked him "how do you get the germs to exercise?" A northerner asked a southerner "is there any other cure for snake bites besides whiskey?" "Who cares?!" drawled the southerner.

When you see a husband and wife walking down the street, the one who is two or three steps ahead is the one that's mad! Then there was the woman who hated Echo Valley because she couldn't get in the last word. Age 52 – I've learned that if you go to a garage sale, you'll almost always buy at least one item you don't need. Age 23 – I've learned that life is like a blind date. Sometimes you just have to have a little faith.

An Ode to the English Plural

We'll begin with a box and the plural is boxes, but the plural of ox becomes oxen, not oxes. One fowl is a goose, but two are called geese, yet the plural of moose should never be meese. You may find a lone mouse or a nest full of mice, yet the plural of house is houses, not hices. If the plural of man is always called men, why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen? If I speak of my foot and show you my feet, and I give you a boot, would a pair be called beet? If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth, why shouldn't the plural of booth be called beeth? Then one may be that and there would be those, yet hat in the plural would never be hose and the plural of cat is cats, not cose. We speak of a brother and also of brethren, but though we say mother, we never say methren. Then the masculine pronouns are he, his and him, but imagine the feminine: she, shis and shim! Let's face it, English is a crazy language. There is no egg in eggplant nor ham in hamburger, neither apple nor pine in pineapple. English muffins weren't invented in England. We take English for granted, but if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square and a guinea pig is neither from Ginea nor is it a pig! And why is it that writers write but fingers don't fing, grocers don't groce and hammers don't ham? Doesn't it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend? I If you have a bunch of odds and ends and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it? If teachers taught, why don't preachers praght? If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat? Sometimes I think all the folks who grew up speaking English should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane. In what other language do people recite at a play and play at a recital? We ship by truck but send cargo by ship. We have noses that 'run' and feet that smell. We park on a driveway and drive on a parkway. And how can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites? You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out and in which an alarm goes off by going on. And in closing, if Father is Pop, how come Mother's not Mop?

I hope and pray everyone has the very greatest Merry Christmas ever.

Adios & God Bless

The Tinker's Road

by Eric Weatherbee

I've always wondered, from whence He came. Each time we've met he looks the same.
He was old and gray when I was young, but within his eyes the joy of life was sung.
I'll bet he's walked ten thousand miles, most times He speaks other times, he just nods and smiles.
We called him Tinker, for that was his trade. We were all impressed by the things he made.
A new shovel handle, carved from oak. From an old piece of canvas a rain proof cloak.
An old wagon wheel, bent and broken. Trued to perfection, for a mere token.
He was a simple man, or so we thought. But our lives were changed by the lessons he taught.

He lives amongst us as he passes through, only staying a day or two.
It seems this mountainous highway is His abode and so we call it, The Tinker's Road.
Even the wildlife knows when he's near. I've watched him walk within arm's reach of the white-tailed deer.
He exudes a presence like no other. To one and all He is like a brother.
All the people of this rustic land, have felt the power of His calloused hands.
And yet I wonder what is His place? There are volumes of knowledge within His face.
He is always present at our times of grief. He comforts our souls, though His stay is brief.

He comes and goes of His own free will, He is an honored guest within these ancient hills.
One day I watched in secret as he strode, past our farm on The Tinker's Road.
It was an autumn morning cool and crisp. As He walked on by he simply faded, into the mountain mist.
From that time on I knew this humble man, was an intricate part, of some Divine plan.
As the years rolled by I never spoke my point of view. But each time we met, I believe He knew.
So I wondered, "What is His purpose in this place?" I long to ask him, face-to-face.
I've grown old and weak but yet, I carry on. One day I stopped to rest, by the old mill pond.

And as I sat there by the water's edge, I thanked God above for the grand life I've led.
And as I rose to carry on, a simple man stood, by that old mill pond.
He was an old acquaintance and I knew, from whence he came. For each time we meet, He looks the same.
I said, "I know it's my time your eyes do tell." He said, "I am here to reward you, for a life lived well."
He said, "Upon this highway for ages I've roamed, guiding good mountain folk toward their Eternal home."
"You see, mountain folk are a special creed, and I have been sent, to attend to their needs."
He said, "Have no fear about what lies in wait, you are but a stone's throw away from Heaven's Gate."

"You'll be surrounded there by family and friends. This is just the beginning, there is no end."
With all that said he extended a hard, calloused hand, and as I grasped it firm he said,
"Welcome son, to the Promised Land."
And so towards the setting sun up that old mountain we strode, this angel and I, upon
... The Tinker's Road.

They traveled to Batavia High School on Friday, Nov. 3 to rehearse and on Saturday, Nov. 4 to perform. To be selected to participate for this festival, the students need to complete a NYSSMA Solo Festival performance in the spring, achieve a high score, and have their teacher complete a rigorous application and recommendation. A committee then selects the very best students from Orleans, Genesee-Wyoming, Monroe, Genesee-Valley, Ontario, and Wayne counties.
